"Strangler" Lewis declares he is not the inventor of the much talked about headlock, "I learned that hold from Fred Beel," said the wrestler recently, "Seven years ago I wrestled Beel, then still a great grappler, and he threw me, and threw me badly. In that bout he used the headlock, and that's where I learned to use it." Beel never used the conk crush which Lewis applied to his victim. PARIS. Ont., Jan. 25.—Paris won an exciting and well-played game of hockey from London tonight by a score of 6 goals to 2, the same as they defeated them in London. For the first two periods the game was close and exciting, neither seeming to have the advantage, but in the last period the Paris boys played the visitors to a standstill, scoring three goals, while the London boys failed to tally. The score by periods was Paris 2, London 1; second period, London 1, Paris 1. Final period, Paris 3. For London Norman at centre was the pick of the team, while Gillies at defence also put up a good game. All the Paris boys played stellar hockey, there being little to choose between them. The teams were:
London: Smith, goal; Gillies, defence: Logan, defence; Norman, centre;

The contest which the London seniors stage tonight with Sarnia is the last of the first round of the senior O H. A. battle. The second round will start at Kitchener on February 4. February 4.

This prospect presents a bright outlook for the local boys. They are just in fine condition now. They have lost three games, but the conditions under which they entered the first couple of games were anything but favorable. The locals look to cop tonight's con-

Get Behind the Wheel of a Ford and Drive

RY it just once! Ask your friend to let you "pilot" his car on an open stretch. You'll like it, and will be surprised how easily the Ford is handled and driven.

If you have never felt the thrill of driving your own car, there is something good in store for you. It is vastly different from just riding—being a passenger. And especially so if you drive a Ford.

Young boys, girls, women and even grandfathers—thousands of them are driving Ford cars and enjoying it. A Ford stops and starts in traffic with exceptional ease and smoothness, while on country roads and hills its strength and power show to advantage.

Buy a Ford and you will want to be behind "the wheel" constantly.

In the final measure Ingersoll started out well, but their team-work seemed to fall to pieces, and they scored once, while Tilsonburg got through to their nets four times.
