DO YOU WANT TABLE CLOTHS?

WE HAVE secured the "seconds" of a Belfast damask manufacturer's table cloths and we are going to have some real excitement in our celebrated Staples Department on Tuesday. There's little the matter with the cloths, the imperfections being technical rather than practical—a dark thread, a thick thread, a loose thread, or some little defect of that kind. Each flaw has been very kindly marked by the obliging inspector of linens at the factory, so we will be able to point out exactly why you are getting such good cloths so cheap.
