RECKLESS JITNEY DRIVERS.

Works Commissioner Harris stated yesterday that there are too many irresponsible people driving motor cars, and that if the traffic laws were not better respected than they had been since the strike commenced there would be many serious accidents. He had witnessed several very narrow escapes. The jitney drivers seemed to have only one idea—to make time and money. That was all right, he said, but common prudence demanded that they observe the laws.

BOOTLEGGERS MAY BE BACKED.

Special to The Toronto World.

St. Thomas, July 12.—William Karn, an ex-bartender of St. Thomas, was today fined by Police Magistrate Maxwell $200 and costs for selling liquor contrary to the Ontario Temperance Act. The accused telephoned friends who at once paid the fine. Now the authorities are suspicious that there is some organization in London which is backing the bootleggers.

CONTEMPLATE ABOLITION OF LIQUOR ADVERTISING

Chairman of License Board in Consultation With Federal Authorities at Ottawa.

J. D. Flavelle, chairman of the Ontario License Board, returned from Ottawa yesterday where he held a conference with the federal authorities regarding legislation to protect prohibition provinces from the solicitation within the provinces of sales of liquor by outside liquor firms. Mr. Flavelle announced that a bill would shortly be introduced in the commons dealing with this matter. He added that the board had received legal advice from several sources that it was quite within the rights of the board to adopt and enforce regulations which would give the board control over liquor advertising in newspapers within the province.

Children attending the daily vacation Bible schools are to have the free and special treat of a visit to Hanlan's every week to witness the baseball game, thanks to the kindness of James J.
