OIL LAMP EXPLODES CAUSING BAD FIRE

Owing to the upsetting and explosion of a coal oil lamp in the onestorey frame stable at the rear of J. Cooper's residence, 73 Gowan avenue, Todmorden, at 7.25 last evening, one horse was burned to death, and the building, with an adjoining storehouse, was burned to the causing property damage to the extent of $1,300. The value of the horse was estimated at $250. The stable contained a team of horses, and one was rescued in the nick of time. The fire, which was of a spectacular character, attracted crowds of people for miles around, and a loud report followed the explosion of the blazing
