IN SENIOR GAME

Varsity Victors Over Aura Lee-Close Checking Contest:

OFFSIDE COUNTER

Only one goal was scored in sixty inutes of earnest battling at the Arens last night, and the counter that lander in the net was scored from an offside pass. The contesting teams were Aura Lee and Varsity seniors, and the students got the lucky break.

The only goal of the game came at an opportune minute for Varsity. It was in the second period, and when Referee Hewitson was skating across to warn an Aura Lee player for an illegal check. The play was just in front of the official, and as he turned his back to speak to the offending player, Carson picked up a pass from Wright. Carson was plainly ahead of the play, scooped up the puck, and netted it before the referee had turned to wheel into the play. It was tough luck for the Aura Lee Club and one of those breaks that cannot be helped.

and one of those breaks that cannot be helped.

The teams were so evenly matched that it was the tightest kind of battle for the full hour. Aura Lee staged a game fight in the third period to even the score. It was not the initial time after time they got inside, but Langtry was a wizard, and nothing could get past him. At the other end, Forbes played in his usual style. That means wonderful. The little fellow came out and saved time after time when the defence was beaten.

Aura Lee used a close-checking system to break up the Varsity team play all night. It worked. Another bright feature of the Avenue road club's work was the way the forwards streaked back to help out the defence.

Varsity worked like beavers thruout. Carson was easily the best man on the ice. He wiggled in time after time, and only the great work of Forbes kept him from scoring. Westman was a tower of strength both on the offensive and the attack. Dunne played good hockey all the way.

Aura Lee put their best licks into the third round, checked like fiends and moved every man up to the attack late, but the goal would not come. On their brave fight at the end, they at least deserved an even break.

Langtry got a nasty crack on the nose in the third period, when Lount lifted a hard one at him and the Varsity goaler took the count. Carson was carried off just a minute before time, when he was bodied heavily by Browne.

PREP COLLEGE HOCKEY.

This afternoon St. Andrews claim they will take a fall out of De La Salle Collegiate. The game promises to be fast and exciting, and there are so many surprises these days, the Scotchmen may make good their claim. De La Salle hope to convince everyone that they are the real contenders against U. T. S., but that remains to be seen. The hockey played in this series is the fastest and cleanest in junior hockey, so a large crowd should be on hand to cheer for the Irish or the Scotch.
