WILLARD HALL TO BUILD AN ADDITION

THURSDAY MORNING JULY 15 1920

Will Provide Accommodation For Two Hundred More Girls.

Plans will be made at the annual picnic on Friday of the Toronto District W.C.T.U. for the erection of a large addition to Willard Hall. The property, which has a frontage of 55 to 60 feet and 100 feet depth, was purchased about three years ago. It is estimated that the new building which will provide accommodation for 200 girls, will cost from $100.000 to $150,000.

$150,000.

Edward B. Gung, secretary of the Chinese Y.M.C.A. of Toronto, stated yesterday that a $100,000 club house for this organization is to be erected on the east side of Chestnut street, opposite Osgoode Hall. An appeal will be made shortly to the Chinese citizens of Canada and to the churches to co-operate with the building committee.

mittee. Hon. W. E .Raney, attorney-general Hom. W. E. Raney, attorney-general for Ontario, has purchased from W. J. Wilkinson, news editor of The Mail and Empire, No. 3 Nina avenue, for $14,000. The property has 60 feet frontage and is 123 feet deep, and the total assessment is $8,200, of which $4,000 is on the house. Mr. Wilkinson in turn has bought 34 Rosemount avenue from G. Limon for $10,500. This property has 40 feet frontage and 100 feet depth.
