Follow Nature's Rule

If gaining natural skin beauty is your aim
By NORMA TALMADGE

Foremost skin specialists urge this simple rule in skin care. Follow it for one week—note the improvement that comes.

BECAUSE all the world seeks natural skin loveliness today, natural ways in skin care now have supplanted the artificial ways of yesterday.

Thousands of the pretty complexion you see and envy are due to the simple rule in skin care given here. It has brought clear complexion to more women than any other method known.

For your own sake, try it, if only for a week—just 10c for a cake of soothing Palmolive, used in this way:

THE RULE... AND HOW TO FOLLOW FOR BEST RESULTS
Wash your face gently with Palmolive Soap, massaging it softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away. Follow these rules day in and day out. Your skin will be soft and lovely—naturally colorful and clear.

BE SURE YOU GET THE REAL PALMOLIVE
Do not use ordinary soaps in the salon will recall the story by Rex Beach which appeared serially some months ago. It is a story of what is happening today in thousands of homes where parents and children look at life from different points of view.

When her intolerance finally leads to her mother's accidental death, the girl runs away from home to become a cabaret dancer in New York. Her exciting adventures amidst the gay night life of Broadway and the millionaire society atmosphere of Long Island is vividly and brilliantly portrayed.

The manner in which the tender Edith Gilbert is brought to a startling realization of his injustice to his daughter, their subsequent reunion and the girl's romance with a young scion of wealth bring the picture to a stirring climax and a happy ending.

Lola Moran, who jumped into the limelight via "Stella Dallas," gives a memorable performance as the modern daughter; Noah Beery handles the exacting role of the bigoted father in his usually deft fashion; and Louise Dresser adds to her laurels with her effective delineation of a woman with a past.

The Imperial enjoyed tremendous holiday business and gave a very fine bill of entertainment indeed. Walter Neale's tenor solos were just as artistic as ever and elicited the

GLORIA SWANSON ON UNIQUE SCREEN

In "Stage Struck" Rich Comedy is Enjoyed—A Colorful Production

"Stage Struck," Gloria Swanson's Paramount picture, which is the feature at the Unique all this week, is a colorful production in story, acting and photography. The first and final scenes are in natural colors. It is a story of little Jenny Hagen (Gloria Swanson), waitress in a one-room lunch room in a small factory town in the middle west.

In love with Ormie Wilson, who flaps pancakes in the restaurant, Jenny is taking a correspondence school course in stage acting all because Ormie favors actresses. All the girl wants is a chance to prove just how good she is.

That chance comes when the Water Queen, one of the show boats which ply the Ohio River, arrives in town. Jenny goes to the manager, who kills her as "the masked marvel" in a women's boxing match. All does not go so well and the ensuing scenes find her being fished from the river by Ormie, who brings cave-man tactics into play, lauds the embryo stage star back home, and the picture closes with Jenny and Ormie in a fancy lunch cart which they start in opposition to their former employer.

This is but a glimpse of the story, but even if related in full it wouldn't begin to tell how really amusing "Stage Struck" is.

Lawrence Gray is Gloria's leading man in "Stage Struck." Ford Sterling has a great comedy role as the manager of the feasting theatre. Gertrude Astor is leading woman on the show boat.

Marguerite Evans, Carrie Scott, Emil Hoch and Margery Whittington complete the cast.

FIRE PICTURE IS FEATURE AT GAIETY

"Fighting the Flames" is Thrilling Story With Notables in Cast

"Fighting the Flames," which opened at the Gaiety Theatre Monday for a run of two days, has a remarkable cast to play the exciting fire story. The lead is played by William Haines who will be well remembered for his success in "The Midnight Express." With Mr. Haines is Dorothy Devore, who is a great favorite with filmgoers. David Torrence, brother of Ernest Torrence, of Covered Wagon fame, is in the cast and is an excellent actor in his own right. Sheldon Lewis needs no words. He is a villain and every one knows him for those parts.

The cast also includes Frankie Darro, who though a little boy, plays one of the largest parts in the production. Charlie Murray takes one of his inimitable character parts. Max Davidson and William Welsh also play in the cast.

SOCIETY DRAMA IS SHOWN AT PALACE

Alice Joyce and Other Notable Players in Cast of "Dancing Mothers"

What is a faithful adaptation of a Broadway play, opened at the Palace last night in "Dancing Mothers," adapted by Forrest Halsey from the Selwyn-Goulding stage success. Conway Tearle is seen as Jerry Naughton, the man who started all the trouble. Alice Joyce is the woman who decided to become one of the "Dancing Mothers," and Clara Bow is seen to advantage as the troublesome young daughter. Excellent work is done by Norman Trevor as the father, and Donald Keith as the daughter's fiancee. Notable characterizations given by Dorothy Cumming and Elsie Lawson.

The story is built about a family, who are part of the New York set, all except the mother, who stays at home.

In this role, Alice Joyce is excellent. Waiting at home for a mad-cap daughter, and a wandering husband, she decides to play a part herself in the whirlpool that threatens to engulf them all. Then comes a twist which is one of the queerest things seen in many a day.

IMPERIAL Rex Beach's "PADLOCKED"

The Cream of the Season for Paramount Week

IN "PADLOCKED," REX BEACH, BRILLIANT AUTHOR, has written a searching, dramatic story that is a sweeping revelation of this restless age—a flaming document of our times! With a series of intensely human and vividly compelling situations, he has built up a strong, closely knit plot that emphasizes with striking clarity and force the bitter conflict now raging between the older and younger generations. The central character is a lovely, high-spirited girl, who, driven from home by the soul-crushing bigotry of her narrow-minded father, plunges into the mad vortex of night life. Her inherent moral strength and indomitable courage carry her through dark days of hardship and temptation up to the crest of the wave of fortune. Smart society welcomes her with open arms; a romance with a scion of wealth develops. Then, suddenly, her father lurches out at her like an avenging demon. Money, reputation, admirers vanish. But from the depths to which she descends, emerges a glorious woman and a great love.
