TEACHERS HERE FOR VOCATIONAL SCHOOL COURSE

Commercial Teachers' Institute Opens Wednesday—Registration Today

Registration in connection with the month's course at the Saint John Vocational School will commence this afternoon, on the arrival of between 20 and 25 New Brunswick home economic teachers who are expected in the city to take advantage of the special course.

Speaking of this month's course, Fletcher Peacock, director of the Vocational School here, said that Miss Sarah Barnett, provincial supervisor of home economics, assisted by two Massachusetts teachers, will give instruction in millinery and dress making, and Miss Ingh, graduate of Columbia University, New York, and head of the home economics department of the Saint John Vocational School, would together conduct the courses.

The cafeteria of the Vocational School will be opened tomorrow. Miss Barnett will be in charge.

INSTITUTE WEDNESDAY.

The Institute of commercial teachers of New Brunswick will commence at the Vocational School on Thursday, July 15 and extend over three weeks. The mornings will be devoted to book-keeping, and allied subjects, and the best methods of imparting knowledge to pupils. The afternoons of the first week will be taken up with shorthand, office practice and penmanship; those of the second week will be given over to business English, and filing, and those of the concluding week will be devoted to typewriting and course construction.

A. J. Polishing, manager of the Isaac Pitman Publishing Company of Canada, will address the institute on July 19. An address on shorthand and a demonstration will be given on July 21 by Nathan Behren, holder of the world's speed shorthand championship. During the third week of the institute, C. A. Ganong, a member of the faculty of the University of Wisconsin at Madison, Wis., who has specialized in the study of commercial education, will give a series of lectures on the elementary phases of economics.

PICNIC POSTPONED UNTIL THIS EVENING

Hampton Event Set Over on Account of Rain—Forty Hours at Rosethay

Speaking to the congregation at the Roman Catholic church at Rosethay yesterday morning, Rev. James Brown announced that the picnic, which was to have been held at Rosethay, had been postponed until today and would be conducted rain or shine. In the event of the weather being inclement, he said that arrangements had been made to look after the crowd indoors at Rosethay, where the picnic would be held.

Forty Hours Devotion

In the announcements for the week at Rosethay yesterday, Father Brown said that the Forty Hours Devotions for that parish would commence on Friday next and end on Sunday. These three days were set apart, he said, for the people of Rosethay to make the Jubilee. The regulations for the parish were: Three visits each day for the three days, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with Holy Communion on the last day.

Sailor Is Hurt On Steamer Oswall

Shortly after noon Saturday Police Sgt. O'Neill and Constable McCauley responded to a call to the warehouse at No. 4 berth, West Saint John, where they found P. Nelson, a sailor lying on a table quite badly injured and bleeding from a wound on the head. Nelson, who is a Norwegian, informed the officers that Axel Olsen, aged 40, hailing from Sweden, who is chief engineer on the steamship Oswall, leading lumber at No. 3 berth, had pushed him from a doorway on the ship and knocked him down on the iron deck.

After the officers rendered first aid to the injured man he was taken to the General Public Hospital and Olsen was taken to police headquarters for investigation. It was learned that the injuries to Nelson were the result of an accident and Olsen was allowed to return to his ship.

A Wedding In China

COLORFUL scenes like those of centuries ago were enacted at Peking when Prince Pu Chia, cousin of the Chinese "boy emperor," Pu Yi, was married to Miss Tseng Huang-yuan, daughter of a former Chinese government official. This picture shows bride and groom in their ceremonial costumes worn at the wedding.

Joseph A. Darrah
The death occurred yesterday at his home, 865 Union street, of Joseph A. Darrah, for about 65 years a well known baggage master. He was superannuated about a year ago. Mr. Darrah's health had not been good during the past year, but he was not so ill today. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Margaret Dolan, of this city, three sons and nine daughters, all at home with the exception of one, son Joseph, who is in Ontario.

Mr. Darrah was a member of Union Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and a charter member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Arrangements for the funeral are incomplete.

A. FITZRANDOLPH, LUMBERMAN, DEAD

Was Well Known Business Man—Wife and Daughter on Trip to England

Allan H. Fitz Randolph, of Randolph, a prominent business man of Saint John county and also of Fredericton, passed away at his home on Sunday morning, following an illness of several months. Mr. Fitz Randolph was 67 years of age, the greater part of his life being spent in Fredericton, where he had varied business interests. He came to Saint John in 1911 and became managing director of the well known firm of Randolph & Baker, Ltd., lumber merchants and line manufacturers. He was born in Fredericton. Previous to his coming to Randolph the late Mr. Fitz Randolph was president of Randolph & Baker at Fredericton and was president of the People's Bank, succeeding his father, the late John H. Fitz Randolph, who held the position at the bank. He was also president of the Field Boom Company, which later was merged in the Saint John Log Driving Company. He was a partner of A. F. Randolph & Sons, Limited, wholesale grocers at Fredericton and was identified with several other business interests.

ACTIVE IN GOOD WORK.
He took an active part in community work at Fredericton previous to his going to Randolph. He was a member of the Victoria Hospital Board and was one of its keenest workers. He always showed an interest in matters that pertained to the public welfare and his passing has removed a prominent member of the business life of New Brunswick.

A particularly sad feature of his death is the fact that his wife and daughter, Miss Helen, are at present in England, word of his demise having been cabled there immediately. Other relatives surviving are two sons, Guy A. and Randolph, and A. M., in England; also two brothers, Robert, of Fredericton, and Charles, of Montreal, and two sisters, Mrs. D. L. V. Eaton and Miss Helen Fitz Randolph, both in England.

The funeral arrangements have been made for Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Service will be held in Christ Church Cathedral at 2:30 p.m.

The Soviet Government of Russia is preparing to buy 50,000 freight cars.

Mr. Larsen is making the trip under the advice of his physician, who has prescribed a complete rest and cancellation of all business appointments during the time he is away.

Earl L. Crabb will be in charge of Mr. Larsen's interests during his absence. Mr. Crabb is an associate of the Keith-Albee office in New York city and a man who has had a wide experience as a showman.

Mr. Larsen was formerly a Saint John newspaper man.

Sign Suggested For Market Building

Many tourists and other visitors to the city frequently ask the police and others where the Saint John market building is. A Boston man in town recently had heard of the big market and when he was shown the building he expressed surprise that there was no sign on the building as well as an electric sign with the same lettering.

Strangers who see the market for the first time are favorably impressed with it and consider that the city is fortunate in possessing such a commodious building. New Brunswick visitors to the city who have never seen the market have been given in locating it and these, too, advocate the labeling of the structure.

The French Franc Is Going To Par

The French franc recently touched the lowest value in its history. An upward movement set in immediately after the franc had reached a considerably higher level. Its future major movements can hardly be other than upward in nature.

Part of exchange for the franc has been made in the form of bonds. The franc is now at 19,300 francs (19,300 francs) is now in sight. It is a situation of some interest to investors and one of the most attractive opportunities of the present generation. It is now possible to purchase French Government bonds, direct obligations of the Republic to value, with assured confidence that as France's economic and financial position approaches its normal state, the franc will show a continuous appreciation in value.

We very strongly recommend French Government bonds of 1920. Incidentally, we advise the purchase of the Bonds in preference to the currency because from an interest-income point of view, the French Government bonds are a better investment. A 100,000 franc 6% Bond can be bought for $7,700.00. With the franc at parity of exchange its value will be $100,000.00. It is therefore, a potential net profit of $92,300.00. This is without considering the income from interest coupons which yield about 5 per cent per annum now will return nearly 45 per cent on present investment when the franc is at par. These interest coupons, which can be cashed at any bank in Canada and throughout the world.

While the number of investors who perceive this opportunity prevails only because France is passing through a transient period of recuperation, and who are, in consequence, taking advantage of the current low price to accumulate these government securities, while this number, we repeat, is growing, it represents only a small fraction of the facts that have been presented. It has always been true: the man or woman who exercises his or her better judgment, or records action, has been the investor who earned the most liberal profits.

In discussing economic and financial questions that are purely temporary in nature, the investor is apt to lose sight of the facts for the future. It is this who recognizes that FRANCE IS FUNDAMENTALLY SOUND, that her recuperation is a matter of time, and that the French Government is established following the Franco-Prussian war when France lost 13 per cent of her normal value, completely recovered and showed her strength, that ultimately FRANCE WILL TRIUMPH OVER HER PRESENT DIFFICULTIES AS COMPLETELY AS SHE TRIUMPHED OVER THE HORDES WHO SWEEPED HER PEACEFUL VILLAGES AND TOWNS IN THE DAYS OF THE GREAT WAR, it is such investors who are to-day accumulating French Government 6% Bonds.

It was the same class of investors who reaped fortunes through their investments in selected issues of depreciated government bonds of other countries during the past five or six years.

In March, 1919, the pound sterling reached the lowest point in its history, selling for $1.19 in the markets of the world, against a par value of $4.86.65. At that time many said the pound would never return to its pre-war value, but that it would have to be "established" permanently around $3.25. But everyone knows that sterling has since CROSSED PAR. To be sure, there were many critical periods during its recovery but the important point is that the pound is again world its normal exchange value.

The astute investor is not greatly concerned over the minor fluctuations in French exchange when he invests in French Government 6% Bonds. He not only knows that he owns Government Bonds, the principal and interest of which are fully guaranteed by one of the world's greatest powers, but he is well aware of the fact that FRANCE HAS NEVER DEFAULTED ON HER PAYMENTS. He knows that FRANCE HAS NEVER FAILED TO PAY THE PRINCIPAL of her bonds at maturity and furthermore, that no unit of currency has ever risen to its par value without reactions.

TIRE PRICE SLASH IS EXPECTED HERE

Canadian Trade Likely to Follow Movement in United States

With a reduction of automobile tire prices in the United States amounting on the average to approximately 9 per cent, a corresponding drop in the price on this side of the line can confidently be expected, according to many tire men. The drop in the price of crude rubber, amounting to almost 75 per cent in the past six months, coupled with the general tendency for lower prices in the fall, is given as further reason for this belief.

Past experience has shown that Canadian prices fluctuate with United States tire prices, and while there may be a difference in degree of fluctuation, the tendency has always been in the same direction, local dealers state. Some feel that while American prices will be more than 8 per cent, the reason for this expected difference is partly attributed to over production in the United States and the efforts of American manufacturers to unload their surplus stock before winter.
