KEEP ANDY BUSY SHAKING HANDS

Traffic Officer Duffy Wins Popularity Contest; Many Congratulate Him.

"I never knew I had so many friends in the city," was the statement made by "Andy" Duffy, traffic officer at the head of King street this morning. "Andy" was a busy man today; in addition to directing pedestrian and vehicle traffic he was kept on the go, and often when his eyes would glance in this or that direction in answer to the honk of an automobile klaxon and as his arms would start instinctively to give the necessary signal some enthusiastic supporter would seize his hand and with a hearty shake extend congratulations. This pleasant but additional duty which he was called upon to perform throughout the day, is a result of a popularity contest held in connection with the G. W. V. A. fair, from which "Andy" emerged with flying colors. When the returns were all in last evening "Andy" had 51,200 votes, while his nearest competitor for honors, Sergeant Thos. Sullivan, had 31,700.

Many Phone Calls. When his friends showered congratulations on him today "Andy" wore his good natured smile but while his eyes were snapping with pleasure there was a faint sign of tiredness under the lids.

"What's the matter 'Andy' didn't you sleep well last evening?" was a question asked him by a representative of The Times.

In answer he acknowledged that he had lost some sleep due to hundreds of friends calling him up on the phone to tender their congratulations. He said he was kept busy answering calls until far past midnight.

P. C. Duffy might be termed an "election dark horse." Not once during the balloting did he head the list that honor being granted one day to Sergeant Sullivan and next to Night Deskman "Red" Thomas. Of course, P. C. Duffy was never out of the running, but it was not until last evening that he was regarded as a serious competitor for honors with the popular Sullivan.

Tense Moments. At 9:30 o'clock the bulletin board showed the position of the leaders, as follows: Duffy 47,000; Sullivan 31,700; Thomas 21,000.

At 9:35 o'clock Sergeant Sullivan made a huge gain of 9,700 votes that put him into a commanding lead down the home stretch. Duffy made a gain of 5,000 votes, placing him at 20,000.

The board remained unchanged until 9:50 o'clock, when "Andy" shot the lead by the narrow margin of 300 votes over Sergeant Sullivan. Duffy then placed at 20,000 and Sullivan at 20,700. At 9:55 o'clock Duffy added 800 more. At this point P. C. Thomas gained 100 votes. The Sullivan took the lead when 2,000 ballots were deposited in his favor, giving him 31,700 votes.

Enormous Vote. At 8:47 o'clock, with three minutes to go, Thomas advanced to 10,690. With one minute to go, Duffy's friends flooded his ballot box with 21,000, giving him a grand total of 61,200 and the honor of being the most popular policeman on the force. When the result was announced, Policeman Duffy, who was present, was cheered heartily and was made the recipient of many congratulations.

Among these congratulations were those from Commissioner Thornton, head of the police and fire departments. Mr. Thornton had been asked to check the ballots but when he saw there was no question about the final result, he laughingly declined to fulfill his duties. "I do not think there is any one present who would want me to waste time counting these ballots," remarked Commissioner Thornton, "I remark Commissioner well satisfied with the decision of the G. W. V. A. officials in charge. I wish to extend my congratulations to the policeman Duffy. I always knew him to be popular and I have heard many favorable comments about his work as a traffic officer. His work is done well in fact, that can be said of the other members of the local staff. I believe St. John has a most capable force. I also wish to take this opportunity of congratulating the G. W. V. A. on the splendid results that have been obtained through this fair and I sincerely hope their future always will be bright."

The Final Figures. Lieut-Col. W. H. Harrison, D. S. O., chairman of the executive committee, and S. C. Phipps, president of the G. W. V. A., also spoke briefly, thanking the public for its generous support of the fair.

The final standing is as follows: Duffy, 51,200; Sullivan, 31,700; P. C. Thomas, 10,690; P. C. Gill, 4,130; P. C. Dunning, 5,540; P. C. McBride, 1,650; Sergt. Scott, 980; Sergt. McLeese, 710; P. C. McFarland, 940; Sergt. Baxter, 340; P. C. Dykeman, 270; P. C. Chisholm, 210; P. C. McNeill, 180; P. C. McNaine, 170; P. C. Gibb, 160; P. C. Conaghan, 110; P. C. Howard, 90; Sergt. Rankine, 80.

By winning, Policeman Duffy gets the first prize of $100 worth of clothing at Alex. Lesse's. A second prize will go to Sergeant Sullivan. This contest was in charge of Elmer Ingraham and M. J. Finnigan.

POLICE HAND OVER PRIZE TO ORPHANS. Divide Parade Award Between Protestant and Catholic Bodies.

The prize of $100 won by the policeman as the best appearing body of men in the parade Dry Dock upon Monday day has been donated by them to the orphanages of the city $50 to the Protestant and $50 to the Catholic. Commissioner Wigmore announced this morning.

FINISH IT NEXT WEEK. Commissioner Thornton said this morning that the work on the city hall west side, would be completed sometime next week. A new steel stairway has been installed and new lightings throughout the building.

MISS CANADA WILL NOT GO TO MONTREAL

Hopes to Attend Big Canadian Club Event in Boston.

It is understood in this city that the inter-city contest held in Montreal last winter in connection with the carnival at which a "Miss Canada" was selected will not take place this year, but instead a "Miss Montreal" will be chosen from among the pretty girls of that city. The Winter Carnival Committee have evidently decided to make their affair purely local.

It would therefore appear that in the first and final all-Canada competition for a representative maiden St. John Blair, present holder of the "Miss Canada" title, has been invited to attend the Montreal carnival again this year, but business will prevent her from accepting. The only invitation the St. John girl desires to accept, and one which St. John people as a whole doubtless want her to accept, is that of the Canadian Club of Boston.

The Canadian Club invitation is for the annual reception, banquet and ball in the Copley Plaza Hotel this month, an affair at which representative Canadian people of Boston and New England as well as many from adjoining States foregather in large numbers and renew pledges of loyalty and fond recollection to their membership. However, it is hoped by all concerned that the civic authorities here will grant Miss Blair the liberty to represent St. John and the country on this very special occasion.

The orator is to be Sir Robert Borden, and Miss Canada's place at the banquet table will be between the Canadian ex-Premier and Governor Cox of Massachusetts, who is pleased with the prospect of reciprocating in a measure the cordiality shown him on his visit here last summer.

The Boston Canadian Club is a live organization with a suite of always open rooms for Canadian visitors in the Bellevue Hotel, near the State House. It has a private dining room in the hotel, where many St. John and Maritime people are entertained by Boston residents upon chance meetings in the club quarters. St. John and other Canadian papers are on file. British periodicals, lavishly display of Canadian pictures and descriptive photographs. The atmosphere is truly Canadian, and the large attendance of Canadians at the large reminds one of a Montreal or Toronto hotel rather than an American.

The election of officers took place, and Rev. J. J. McDermott outlined the aim and objects of the society. Tentative plans were made for smokers and other forms of entertainment during the winter months.

John Crowley was elected honorary president; George McDermott, president; Edmond Lowe, vice-president; Rev. J. J. McDermott, chaplain; John Mooney, recording secretary; Leo Killoran, financial secretary; and William E. Ward, treasurer.

The following trustees were elected: Charles Dalton, Thomas Nagle and James McGiven. It was decided to hold meetings on Tuesday evenings.

As Hiram Sees It

"Look-a-her!" said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter. "What's gittin' into this here town. I see they wasn't no arrests from Friday night till Tuesday night. What's gonto happen?"

"We have become a law-abiding people," said the reporter. "We are learning not to break the law when the police are looking."

"I guess that's it," said Hiram. "Yes, sir that's it. Well, even that's somethin'—aint it?"

"It is the part of eat wisdom," said the reporter. "I suppose you'll cut down the judge's salary an' fire a lot o' policemen," said Hiram. "That does not follow," said the reporter. "One swallow does not make a summer."

"No," said Hiram, "but one swallow o' some o' the stuff they sell nowadays orto give about ten years to the one that sells it."

"When did you buy?" queried the reporter. "Who-me?" said Hiram. "I didn't buy—I just hauled the feller that did buy home. An' he hed to tie him down at that."

"Did he say he hed it?" asked the reporter. "No, sir," said Hiram — "a kind-hearted stranger jist give it to him—he said—in wunst him up. I guess the feller must hev thought he was startin' a furnace—By Hen!"
