SON OF F. W. JAMES WEDS IN MONTREAL

Marriage to Miss Everett of Interest in St. John.

At half-past four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, at the home of the bride's parents, 664 de L'Espey avenue, Outremont, the marriage took place of Miss Edith Bertha Everett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Everett, to Charles Kenneth James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. James, both formerly of St. John. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. M. P. McCutcheon, of the First Baptist Church, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. W. G. Webber. During the signing of the register, Miss Frances James, sister of the groom, sang "For You Alone." Yellow chrysanthemums and palms were used to decorate the drawing room where the ceremony took place. The bride, who was unmarried, was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of brown velvet, cloth, with touches of brown moire and gold, with a French model hat of brown velvet trimmed with hand-made flowers of pastel metallic ribbon, and she carried an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums. Immediately after the ceremony a reception for the immediate family and friends was held, the decorations in the tea room being carried out in pink roses and greenery, and later Mr. and Mrs. James left for Halifax, whence they will sail for Bermuda to spend a few weeks. Going away the bride wore a Hudson seal coat. On their return they will reside at 447 Darnley avenue, Outremont.

McNaught-Mullaly.

The Sacred Heart Church, of Norton, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday morning, Nov. 28, at 9 o'clock, when Miss Mary Ellen Mullaly, eldest daughter of Mr. John Mullaly, of Norton, became the bride of Mr. Francis McNaught, of New York. The I-chongin wedding music was softly played as the bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. Aker Mullaly, who gave her in marriage. The bride was—prettyly gowned in black panne velvet, with silver trimming and gray velvet hat with gray feather. She carried a large bouquet of sunset roses and was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Mullaly, who wore a suit of navy blue cloth and satin hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Harold McGilgore, of Annapolis.

The church was prettily decorated. After the ceremony there was a reception held at the home of the bride and a sumptuous wedding breakfast served. Mr. and Mrs. McNaught will reside in Hudson Boulevard, Jersey City, after a short honeymoon trip. The gifts of the groom were: To the bride, a piano; the bridesmaid, a white gold wrist watch; the groom, a white gold watch chain; Aker Mullaly, engraved cuff links. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert McNaught, Mr. and Mrs. William DeVine, Miss Marie, Miss Lucy and Miss Alice McNaught and Master Philip McNaught, of Sussex; Mr. and Mrs. John Daley, Miss Jennie Griffin, of St. John, and Mr. Harold McGilgore, of Annapolis.

Low-Bishop.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening in the Tabernacle Baptist church at 7.30 when Miss Irene Nurriel Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bishop, of Chipman, N. B., was united in marriage to Frederick Harris Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lowe, of New Germany, Lunenburg county, N. S. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. L. Tedford. The bride was gowned in a navy blue traveling suit with hat to match and carried a large bouquet of sweetheart roses. She was attended by Mrs. John Galbraith, who also carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by John Galbraith. The ushers were Claude Golding and William Ross. Miss Mary Owens was organist. A large number witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Lowe will reside at 228 Charlotte street. The good wishes of a large circle of friends will follow them.

Somerville-Parise.

Rev. Hugh Miller, M. A., pastor of St. David's Presbyterian church, yesterday performed the marriage ceremony of Leslie N. Somerville and Miss Ada Eliza Parise, both of The Narrows, Queens county, at his residence, 68 Queen street. The bride and groom were unattended. They will reside at The Narrows.

McDonald-Levine.

On Nov. 26, at eight o'clock in the evening at Mr. and Mrs. Churley's, 180 Union street, her son, Roddie J. McDonald was united in marriage to Miss Emily Levine by Rev. H. A. Goodwin, in the presence of a number of friends. The bride looked charming in a dress of Canton crepe with corsage bouquet of carnations and maiden hair ferns. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The bride received a large number of presents including silver and cut glass and china. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside at 190 Union street.

Miss Dorothy L. Weston.

The death was announced on Monday of Miss Dorothy L. Weston, aged 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Weston, at the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston. The parents of the young woman reside at 27 Bowdoin street, Medford, Mass., but have lived in St. John. Relatives of Miss Weston live in St. John and Fredericton. The body was taken to Medford for the funeral, which took place Tuesday.

Gordon Christie.

A notice this week in one of the Campbellton papers told of the illness and consequent operation of R. Allan Christie, but this was an error. The operation was performed upon the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Christie, Master Gordon Christie, their eldest child, a bright little fellow of seven years. He was taken to the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital, where an operation was performed last Friday for adenoids and for serious nasal trouble. Just when the little chap seemed to be recovering spinal meningitis set in and he died last evening about 10 o'clock. Mr. Christie telephoned his aunt, Mrs. George Dishart, last evening immediately after the little boy died.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie lived here with Mr. and Mrs. Dishart for two years, after their marriage, and have many friends in the city who will sympathize deeply with them in this sudden bereavement. Gordon was a great favorite with the friends of the family. He leaves besides his parents, a younger brother and sister and a large circle of relatives and friends who will regret the loss of a bright child.

TWO ARE INJURED.

Miss Mary O'Keefe, of Rodney street, West St. John, is suffering from scalds caused by falling with a teakettle in one hand. Philip Carter, aged 15, of Amherst, is in the city for surgical treatment. He fell recently and while one knee while chopping Christmas trees near Woodstock.
