RECENT WEDDINGS

Kuhring-Stanton.
(Ottawa Journal.)
The marriage of Miss Grace A. Stanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Stanton, to Gustave F. Kuhring, second son of Rev. Canon G. A. Kuhring and Mrs. Kuhring took place quietly in Montreal at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Claremont avenue. Rev. Canon Almond performed the ceremony, assisted by the groom's father, Rev. Canon

Kuhring, of Toronto, formerly of St. John, N. B. The bride, who wore her travelling suit of dark blue with velvet hat and Isabella fox fur, the gift of her father, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses, was given away by her father. She was attended by Miss Grace Kuhring, of Toronto, the groom's sister. Henry Morrissey of St. John, N. B., was best man, and the ushers were the groom's two brothers, Paul Kuhring of Ottawa and Malcolm Kuhring. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Kuhring left for their future home at Dauphin, Man. Other out of town guests at the wedding were the groom's mother, Mrs. G. A. Kuhring, and aunt, Mrs. William Downie, both of Toronto.

to upper Canadian cities. They will reside in Westfield (Mass.)

Mollins-Killam.
A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles I. Killam, Havelock, on Wednesday, September 28, when their daughter, Florence E., was united in marriage to Carl D. Mollins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Mollins, of Shediac, Cape. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. U. Hatfield, pastor of the Baptist Church, Fairville.

RECENT DEATHS

Hon. William Wilson.
Fredericton, Sept. 29.—Hon. William Wilson, retired judge of the county courts of York, Sunbury and Queens, died this afternoon at his residence, Waterloo Row in this city. He was about seventy-five years old and had resided for the greater part of his life in this city.

Judge Wilson is survived by two daughters, Mrs. F. W. Harrison and Miss Jean Wilson, both of Fredericton. Mrs. Arthur C. Porter of this city is a niece and James T. Wilson of Halifax, and George L. Wilson of Boston, are nephews. His wife died several years ago. Senator F. P. Thompson of this city was a brother-in-law. Judge Wilson's only son, the late Alexander T. Wilson, was drowned while engaged on a survey of the Northern Transcontinental Railway shortly after his graduation from the University of New Brunswick in 1903.

PRIEST SNEEZES SO HARD THAT RIB IS BROKEN
Windsor, Ont., Sept. 30.—Sneezing violently for more than an hour, Rev. Father P. J. Howard, professor at Assumption College, Sandwich, suffered a fractured rib, so severe were the paroxysms.

Seaman-McDonald.

A quiet marriage was celebrated at the German street Baptist church parsonage last evening at 8 o'clock, when Stephen E. Seaman and Miss Myrtle K. McDonald, both of Wallace (N. S.), were married by Rev. R. Osgood Morse. The bride and groom were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Seaman will make their home in Wallace (N. S.).

Rebitt-Trueman.
The following article taken from the Manitoba Free Press of September 23, will be of interest to many friends in New Brunswick. Walter H. Trueman was a former resident of St. John, and many friends will wish Miss Trueman and her husband all happiness.

Augustine Presbyterian church was the scene of a brilliant military wedding Thursday afternoon, when Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon united in marriage Dorothy Wade, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Trueman, and Lieut. Henry Rivers Rebitt, M.C., D.C.M., Lord Strathcona's Horse, R. C.

Iles-Barnes.
A pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George McAvity, Hampton Village, on Thursday, Sept. 29, when their niece, Frances Iles, was united in marriage to Charles J. Barnes, Jr., of Westfield, Mass. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. G. Lawrence in the presence of immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride was attired in her travelling suit of navy blue with fuschia feather turban and wore a corsage bouquet of Ophelia roses. Immediately after the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served. Afterwards the bride and groom left on a wedding trip
