Suspended and Fined.

Michigan, June 21—It is announced that George Orme, manager of Brantford, Michigan-Ontario League, has been suspended indefinitely and $1000 by G. H. Maines, president of the league, for conduct detrimental to ball. Orme is the player for whom Boston Red Sox paid $1,000, according to a decision by Commissioner Landis.

Hendrix Injured.

St. John, June 21—Tim Hendrix, righter of the Red Sox, today began a week's vacation caused by a broken arm. A high fly snapped the little r of his right hand while he was attempting a catch in yesterday's game.

LETIC

Thompson to Compete.

June 21—Earl Thomson, Canadian champion hurdler, now a student at Dartmouth University, and I Cutbill of Boston University, have been selected by the Boston A. A. members of the New England Athletic Union to the national track and field championships at Pasadena, on July 4. Thomson will be entered in the half mile, 120 and 220 yards.

British Championship.

Andrews, Scotland, June 21—Golfers who have entered the British championship tournament continue to arrive today. Both the course and the Eden course are used in this round. Half of the players, who played the old course yesterday, will play the Eden course today, while those who played the Eden course yesterday faced the severe odds of the old course for the second of the qualifying round today.

Frederick Races.

Frederick, N. B., June 21—Raoul, a Montreal horseman, will start impregn in the maritime provinces near at the Frederick races.

June 20 and July 1. While entries closed only last night and all postmarked up to noon today are eligible, there is every indication that there will be a surprisingly good entry for the opening. Prospects are that in addition to the twenty odd horses in training here, there will be horses from Woodstock, Hartland, St. Stephen, St. John, Bathurst, Miramichi and Houlton, Caribou, Fort Fairfield and Massachusetts.

FINE FOR WOMEN

IF SEEN SMOKING

Mississippi Representative Introduces Bill in Congress.

Washington, June 21—"Female persons" must not smoke cigarettes in Washington, so Representative Johnson of Mississippi, has introduced a bill which he has introduced and which would charge the women $25 for the first time they were caught smoking in public places, and $100 a cigarette for each subsequent offence. The same fines would apply to the proprietors of public places, which Representative Johnson has defined in detail. He said that he has long objected to seeing women smoking in public, but the last straw came last night when he was walking in F street in front of a moving picture theatre.

STRIKING SEAMAN

KILLED AT UNION HEADQUARTERS

Baltimore, June 21—C. E. Larsen, a striking seaman, was shot and almost instantly killed last night at Seaman's Union headquarters here. Mortally wounded, he rushed from the building and fell to the pavement. He died in hospital.

DEMPSEY A CORRESPONDENT.

Pugilist Named by Osage Indian in Petition for Divorce.

Pawpuck, Okla., June 21.—Jack Dempsey, pugilist, was made correspondent in a divorce suit filed here in District Court by P. R. Boulanger, an Osage Indian, who alleges his wife, Lilly, under a fictitious name has been carrying on a clandestine correspondence with one Jack Dempsey of Los Angeles, Cal., and claims to have letters written from Dempsey to her. The case probably will come to trial in September.

POPULAR GOLF.

(New York Times)
Golf has become so popular, the municipal links in our parks, notably Van Cortlandt Park, are besieged at early morning by those who desire to drive off before noon.
