Of a batch of drunks questioned by Justice Heston of Detroit, 38—a mighty majority—put the blame on whisky. Others placed the blame as follows: Cider, 8; bay rum, 5; Hoffman drops (combined alcohol and ether), 1; elder-berry wine, 1; Jamaica ginger, 4; grape wine, 3; beer, 2; blackberry brandy, 1; white whisky, 1; white wine, 2; ginger and bay rum highballs, 4; unidentified liquors, 3.

As soon as she abstracted his wallet from an inside pocket the woman ex-claimed: "O, I must get my car, I'm late getting home," and hailed a taxi.

Tobin noticed that he had been robbed and prevented her from entering the cab. While they were talking Tobin called Sgt. Morrissey and Policeman Hyde, who were in the distance. They found the wallet of Tobin near the scene with his name inscribed on it.

A woman probation officer read the long criminal record of the prisoner, who said if she was not sent away she would give the man $70. She was told that she couldn't do that as his money was safely in the possession of Sgt. Mor-rissey.

Judge Creed would not listen to any thing but a full sentence for the woman.

It was said that she picked the pocket of Tobin near Trinity church Nov. 19, about midnight, after she stopped him and engaged in conversation.

Detzer Charged With Torturing Soldiers

Former A. E. F. Captain at Le Mans, France, on Trial at Govern-ment Island

New York, Dec. 12.—Brutal treatment and even deliberate torture of enlisted men of the American Expeditionary Forces is charged against Capt. Karl W. Detzer, formerly commanding officer of the 89th Military Police Company, whose trial by court-martial opened at Government Island.

Evidence will be submitted, it is said by officers familiar with the case, that will rival the sensational developments of the trials of Lieut. "Hard Boiled" Smith and Sgt. Bull, who are now serving prison sentences for brutality to American soldiers in Paris.

Capt. Detzer, who was formerly a Fort Wayne, Ind., newspaper man, had charge, under the assistant provost mar-shal of criminal investigation at Le Mans. It is charged that the officer him-self, and at his order, subjected prison-ers to various methods of torture to wring confessions from them.

Sgt. Samuel C. Roth, who was a desk sergeant at Le Mans, was the first to be called. The prosecution attempted to draw from him general information bearing on virtually the specifications.

Private George Williams, one of the men alleged to have been beaten, was not called, but he would follow Roth on the stand.

John M. Weir of Indiana was sworn in as assistant to the judge advocate, Major William E. Kelly.

Offered To Give $70 To Man She Robbed

Boston Judge's Reply Six Months For Dorothy Reed

Boston, Dec. 11.—Dorothy Reed, alias Dorothy Lydon, who has four other aliases, eight arrests, as well as two defaults in court against her, was before Judge Creed today in the municipal court, charged with larceny of $10 from Michael A. Tobin, a Boston and New York commercial traveler. She was arrested by Sgt. Morrissey and Policeman Hyde, who recovered the money from the woman, who had tried to escape in a taxi.

It was said that she picked the pocket of Tobin near Trinity church Nov. 19, about midnight, after she stopped him and engaged in conversation.

As soon as she abstracted his wallet from an inside pocket the woman ex-claimed: "O, I must get my car, I'm late getting home," and hailed a taxi.
