

The Evening Times Star

VOL. VII. No. 85

ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 1912

EIGHT PAGES—ONE CENT

SEVEN DIE IN FIRE IN NEW YORK

Bodies of All Believed to Have Been Burned to Cinders

THE EQUITABLE DISASTER

Vaults Found Unharmed by the Conflagration—Society Officers Say Hundreds of Millions in Securities Will Be Found All Right

(Canadian Press) New York, Jan. 11.—Seven lives are believed to have been lost in a fire which raged through a three-story frame building in Broadway avenue, early today. Those who were in the building at the time are believed to have perished in the flames, which spread so rapidly through the wooden structure that the flames were seen to be coming from the windows of the building on Broadway avenue, early today. Those who were in the building at the time are believed to have perished in the flames, which spread so rapidly through the wooden structure that the flames were seen to be coming from the windows of the building on Broadway avenue, early today.

Witnesses today the preliminary work of clearing away the debris and the vaults of the Equitable Life building which were found to have been completely unharmed. The vaults of the Equitable Life building which were found to have been completely unharmed. The vaults of the Equitable Life building which were found to have been completely unharmed.

MAYOR AND COUNCILLORS IN BY ACCLAMATION

No Election in Woodstock—Board of Trade Demand on Government

Woodstock, N. B., Jan. 11.—(Special)—The annual meeting of the board of trade was held last night. Twenty-one new members were elected. A resolution was passed calling upon the government for an active policy regarding immigration, also a resolution regarding the making of the route in the vicinity of Woodstock. The officers elected were: J. T. Allan, president; W. S. Sutton, vice-president; A. D. Holyoke, secretary; R. E. Estabrook, treasurer. There is a strong advisory council.

This was nomination day for the town election, but the mayor and six aldermen are elected by acclamation. The only change in last year's board is the substitution of Wm. Balmain for A. G. Bailey. Mr. Balmain will be a valuable member of the board. The board for 1912 is composed of: Mayor T. C. L. Ketchum; councillors, Edgar W. Main, J. T. A. Dibbles, Hon. Wendell P. Jones, James W. Gallagher, Wm. Balmain and George W. Gilpin.

WEATHER BULLETIN Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries. R. F. Stupart, director of meteorological service.

9 A. M. WEATHER REPORT. Forenoon Bulletin from Toronto. Max. Min. Dir. Vel. Toronto... 8 12 NW 14 Clear Montreal... 0 -10 W 12 Fair Quebec... -2 -18 SW 20 Clear

Forecasts—Strong northwest winds; fair and very cold today and on Friday. Synopsis—The great western cold wave is still impressing and nothing but very cold weather is in sight at present; banks and American ports, strong north-west winds.

CLARK NOT GUILTY AS JURY'S VERDICT

Judge Barry Sends Them to Jury Room Just Before Noon

Returned at 2.40 O'Clock—One Call for Information—Strong Addresses by Counsel for and Against Clark—The Judge's Charge

The jury in the H. B. Clark case was told that they were to return a verdict of not guilty. The judge's charge was strong and clear. The counsel for and against Clark made strong addresses. The judge's charge was strong and clear. The counsel for and against Clark made strong addresses.

THE BOND

Mr. Fowler's friend has spoken at length of the irregularities regarding Collins and Melrose. The judge's charge was strong and clear. The counsel for and against Clark made strong addresses.

INDEX TO TODAY'S TIMES. PAGE ONE. The Clark case; late sport news; seven die in New York fire; fashion dictates for next season; trying to save Richardson's life.

PAGE TWO. Women's page; Marquis de Fontenay; early ship news; hints for cook; Times' story.

PAGE THREE. Financial; latest local and dispatch news; deaths.

PAGE FOUR. Editorial; lighter vein; poetry.

PAGE FIVE. General news.

PAGE SIX. Classified ads; the estimates.

PAGE SEVEN. Sporting news.

PAGE EIGHT. News of the city.

TASK WAS TOO MUCH FOR QUEEN

New York Runner Beaten by Raines and St. Yves in Heat

LATE NEWS OF SPORT

John Dymont, Canadian horseman, seriously ill—Bomber Wells cancels his trip across Atlantic—Billards Championship Match in New York.

MEMBER OF LONDON BANKING FAMILY KEPT DANGEROUS PETS

London, Jan. 11.—Terence Barclay, a member of a famous banking family, who was mauled by a pet lion and a couple of wild dogs, but they have gone along all right, notwithstanding the tariff and they are willing to pay for it now.

DIAMOND RUSH TO PEARL RIVER

Thousands of Claims Staked—Hotel Shack Clearing $7,000 a Month.

Johnannesburg, Jan. 11.—Blosshof, a farming colony on the banks of the Vaal river in the center of a great diamond rush and within the last month a caravan town with a population of 12,000 has sprung up on the banks of the river.

IS TIMID ABOUT HORSE RULE. Lord Macdonnell's Speech Looked on as Having Some Significance.

MAKE IT EASIER FOR PEOPLE OF BOTH COUNTRIES TO BUY

Dr. J. A. Macdonnell Discusses Tariff and Reciprocity Before United States Shoe Men

(Canadian Press)

New York, Jan. 11.—At the annual dinner of the Shoe Manufacturers' Association, Dr. J. A. Macdonnell, of Toronto, deploring the fact that the move for a reciprocity agreement between this country and Canada had come to naught.

LION KILLED HIM

Mr. Barclay had for nearly two years kept two lions and two blooded dogs, which were allowed to run about an enclosure near his home.

EDMONDS FINANCES EFFORT TO SAVE THE LIFE OF RICHESON

Boston, Jan. 11.—It is expected that within the next two weeks a proposal will be sent to Governor Foss and the executive council in an effort to save the life of Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson.

GIRLS LOSE THEIR WORK. Paris, Jan. 11.—The women and girls employed as cigar-makers in the factories of the state tobacco monopoly are, according to the "Figaro," to be dispersed with their places being taken by machinery.

STRIKERS BACK TO WORK. Bradford, Eng., Jan. 11.—The lockout of wool combers at Bradford, has been averted. It was expected to follow a strike of 1,500 combers, and would have involved 12,000 non.

GOES TO ASYLUM

Baron Who Murdered Countess Declared Mentally Irresponsible

(Canadian Press)

Rome, Jan. 11.—Lieutenant Baron Paterno, the Italian cavalry officer, who murdered Countess Trignone, a lady-in-waiting to Queen Helena, in circumstances which caused an immense sensation at the time, has been found mentally irresponsible by the legal-medical experts.

FIRST CASE OF WIFE KILLING HUSBAND

Glasgow High Court Calendar's Record No Longer Clear

BRITISH SOLDIERS TO PERSIA

Calcutta, British India, Jan. 1.—Orders have been issued today to the brigade of Indian soldiers to be sent to Persia.

THIRTY SIX MOROS DIE IN ATTEMPT TO AMBUSH TROOPS. Manila, Jan. 11.—Twenty-six Moros were killed today while they were attempting to ambush a body of United States troops on the island of Jolo.

EDMONDS FINANCES EFFORT TO SAVE THE LIFE OF RICHESON. Boston, Jan. 11.—It is expected that within the next two weeks a proposal will be sent to Governor Foss and the executive council in an effort to save the life of Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson.

BIG PROJECTS FOR QUEBEC ON THE PROGRAMME

Railway to James Bay; Ten Millions for Roads of Province

PREMIER'S STATEMENT

Sir Lomer Gouin Lays Matters Before Legislature—Railway Proposition in Application of New Company—From Near Hull to James Bay.

FREDERICTON DOES NOT WANT BISHOP TO MOVE TO ST. JOHN

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 11.—(Special)—Although no authoritative statement has been made, it is generally felt here that the report that Bishop Richardson will soon move to St. John is well founded.

INQUIRY INTO COLLISION

Captain Demers of Ottawa Holds Investigation Here.

WHAT FASHION DICTATES FOR THE WOMEN NEXT SEASON. Chicago, Ill., Jan. 11.—What women will wear during the coming season was discussed today by the style congress held here by the Ladies' Tailors and Dressmakers' Association of America.

WHAT FASHION DICTATES FOR THE WOMEN NEXT SEASON. Chicago, Ill., Jan. 11.—What women will wear during the coming season was discussed today by the style congress held here by the Ladies' Tailors and Dressmakers' Association of America.