White Sox this year.

At present, however, a well-defined and evidently well-founded rumor has it that Johnnie is to be made a deputy commissioner of the New York State Athletic Commission. Ever's career has been one of the most picturesque of any present-day baseball figure. He first gained fame as a second baseman on the old Championship Club machine—the phrase "Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance" appearing so frequently in box scores that it has become a tradition in the history of the game. While he wore a Giant uniform for a part of one season he was throughout most of his career a rival of New York teams, but despite this baseball figure here and throughout the big league circuit will regret to see him go and will wish him the same success in other fields that he achieved on the diamond.

White Sox this year.

New York, Dec. 19.—It looks as if Johnnie Evers, the stormy petrel of baseball, is finally going to desert the diamond for calmer pursuits. Last year Evers served as an assistant manager to Kid Gleason at Chicago and it was supposed that he would return to the White Sox this year. At present, however, a well-defined and evidently well-founded rumor has it that Johnnie is to be made a deputy commissioner of the New York State Athletic Commission. French Players Vistors.

The latest team match to be held in international tennis was that between France and Italy, in which the former was victorious by nine matches to three. Details of the match, the main surprise was the defeat of Jean Cochet, champion of France, by Colombo, in four sets, 6-8, 6-2, 8-4, 6-4. Cochet later defeated Count Baldi, champion of Italy, in another four-set match, to score 6-4, 6-2, 8-4, 6-4. Both Cochet and Baldi played in this country last summer with the French Davis Cup team, Max Woosnam, who captained the Champion of France.

Chicago, Dec. 19.—Johnny Evers, of Troy, N. Y., who assisted Manager Bill Gleason of the Chicago Americans last season, has it is reported, decided to accept an offer of a deputy commissionership in the New York State Athletic Commission.

Evers to Deert.

Chet Thomas, formerly catcher in the American League, has signed a contract with the Oakland Club of the Pacific Coast League. Thomas was with the Oaks in 1909 and afterwards played with Boston and Cleveland. Last season he was with Fresno, being the battery mate of Dutch Leonard, and he played such good ball that Clyde Wares advised Oakland to sign him.

Last season he was with Fresno, being the battery mate of Dutch Leonard, and he played such good ball that Clyde Wares advised Oakland to sign him.

Oakland now has Del Baker and Art Kohler as catchers, so that if Thomas is to remain with the others will have to go.

Honus Witzel, veteran catcher of the Oaks, has been given permission to make a deal for himself.
