ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 10, 1902.

THE STAR.

Two years ago today the first issue of the Star appeared. It was said in that issue that "if the people get what they want they are willing to pay for The truth of the statement, so far as it relates to the Star, has been proved by a stealily growing popularity. It has been the aim of the Star to give more news of interest to St. John people than they find in other papers, and not to place before them columns of uninteresting matter for the mere purpose of producing a large paper. Articles in the Star are not colored by personal prejudice. The staff believe that when the news is given the people are competent to form an opinion; although where it is proper to do so this paper does not hesitate to express its own views. It has doubtless dawned by this time upon the slow minds of those who sneered at the "reprint," and called it a campaign sheet, that siderable length, with more or less of rivals. With the approval of the public, so generously bestowed in the past two years, the Star will go on with its work, producing the most readable and desirable of the city dailies. If a fraction of the complimentary words that have been spoken about the course of the Star in dealing with public affairs, and about the manner in which it gives the news, were printed, the staff might have great difficulty in wearing hats of ordinary size. But the citizen who comes around with an item, or even a subscription, need not pause on the threshold. He will be hailed as a man and a brother, and the item or the coin dexterously separated from his person, so that neither the one not the other will cause him further trou-

BOARD OF HEALTH.

The Star has several times intimat that if the officials of the board health would display more activi they would make some interesting di coveries in various portions of the cit; The state of the Diggs' house, at t foot of Duke street, as described yesterday's Star, is simply disgracefu It is an open secret that other place where people live in this city are menace to the health of those arou them. The charge is made by that the officials know of such places but do not take any action. This surely cannot be true, but it is time the board got down to business. If landlords object to making necessary im provements they should not be permit ted to let houses unfit for dwellings.

THE SPRUCE MARKET.

The Liverpool spruce market has advanced. The correspondent there of the Timber Trades Journal says in the ssue of Aug. 30th:-

rk.

"Referring to our last report, we then said: "The position of the spruce market is likely to be maintained here for the remainder of the season, if, indeed, an advance is not made." We hope our readers took these remarks with full consideration of their importance. The advance in spruce values has come sooner than we anticipated, for a strong upward movement has been made this week in c. i. f. contracts, and all grades may be marked so, per standard up. Holders of stocks are thus in a happy position, and can look forward to the future with complacency. No pressure will be put upon the market by shippers from openwater winter ports, such as St. John, N. B., and Hallfax, N. S., as they, will want some reserve on that side to suppose the processor. want some reserve on that side to supply the regular liners."

The unhappy Telegraph is in trouble again. Commissioner Barry, who for many reasons would be glad to favor an organ of the government, has been compelled in self-defence to charge the Telegraph with inaccuracy Institution enquiry. Mr. Gregory, one

A UNION LABOR CHURCH.

Plan Outlined by Rev. Geo. I. McNutt of Marion, Ind.

It is proposed by some of the 4,000 union workingmen in the city of Marion, Ind., to establish a Union Labor church. The chief promoter of the project is the Rev. George I. McNutt, lares that the churches of to who de lares that the churches of to-day are under a monopoly of the cul-tured and commercial classes, which have virtually barred their doors ag inst the workingmen. The good man admits that the idea of establish-ing a Union Labor church, like the one pro; osed at Marion, raises some intri-cate question, and may convey the projosed at Marion, raises some intricate questions, and may convey the impression to outsiders of putting the union label on the religion of the Nazarene. Fig. has says the cultured and commercial classes have already put the dollar sign on the gospel, and, as between the dollar sign and the blue label, the blue label will lead more people to beaven than the dollar sign. As soon as the church is established, Mr. McNutt will introduce some radical innovations on the present system of worship. He says the pastor should be chosen from the standpoint of priest, physician, athlete and teacher, who will give the boys and girls bodies as well as minds, fit to be acceptable living sacrifices to God. He also wants to see the church dedicated by tying its keys to the neck of a bird and turning the bird lopse, the church to be an open home at all times to the weary and heavy burdened.

Of St. John Co. Women's Christian Temperance Union.

held at St. Martins next week. The following ladies expect to attend: Fairville—Mrs. (Dr.) Gray; north end, Mrs. McAvity, Mrs. Vanwart. Mrs. Hanselpacker.
West side—Mrs. Day, Mrs. Retallick. St. John—Mrs. Bullock, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Scott, Miss Betts.
The north end and Carleton unions decided to engage Mrs. Burger, a prominent "Y" worker, to give a lecture in north end hall Sunday afternoon, and at Carleton Sunday evening. Mrs. Burger will be one of the speakers at the St. Martins meetings. The evening seesion yesterday opened at 7.30 with an address by the Rev. Mr. Scovil. He spoke of visiting the East End University Settlement in London, and described the central building and the various clubs in connection with that movement. The settlement is maintained by college men and its work is for men only. It aims, among other things, to provide innocent recreation and amusement for young men, including temperance bars, billiard rooms, and dances. Mr. Scovil reached the contention that no work of this kind can be successful which leaves Christ out. While he did not say that the University Settlement was a failure, he stated that the People's Palace, found.

be successful which leaves Christ out.
While he did not say that the University Settlement was a failure, he stated that the People's Palace, founded as a result of Sir Walter Besant's novel, "All Sorts and Conditions of Men," was admittedly not a success. Mr. Scovil was of the opinion that a clergyman could do better work by visiting and helping people at their homes than by founding clubs and social organizations.

Mr. Scovil was followed by Rev. Mr. Nobles and Rev. Mr. Penna, who agreed that the previous speaker had sounded the key-note in social work when he said that Christ must be a part of it. They commended the work of the W. C. T. U., especially what the society was doing for the moral eductor of the people. Mr. Nobles encouraged the ladies to continue giving their attention to this aspect of their work and not to be too strenous for legislation in advance of public sentiment.

Rev. Mr. Rattray, a native of New legislation in advance of public sentiment.

Rev. Mr. Rattray, a native of New Brunswick, now residing in California, spoke in another strain. He strongly urged a demand for prohibitory legislation, charging religious teachers and leaders with failure to do their duty in this direction, and thus making themselves obstacles to reform and progress. In his opinion there has been entirely too much compromise in these matters. Mr. Rattray, who is a very vigorous speaker, has agreed to deliver a lecture for the Carleton union at an early date.

a lecture for the Carleton union at an early date.

During the day an interesting episode took place in connection with the approaching departure for the far west of Miss Olive, who has been recording secretary for the Carleton union for fifteen years. Mrs. Day, president of this union, on behalf of her comrades presented Miss Olive with a gold pin set with an amethyst stone. In doing so the president paid a high tribute to Miss Olive's character and servicey, and expressed the deep regret of the society that the secretary would be with them no more. Miss Olive briefly acknowledged the gift, and spoke of her own sorrow in parting with her friends and comrades, with whom she had been so long and pleasantly associated. ciated.
