The attention of Mr. W. Frank Hatheway, M. P., to the fact that the local government, of which he is a supporter, has reduced the subsidy of the Grand Manan steamer, if he does not take early steps to repudiate this action he had better stop writing letters to the press telling the people of Grand Manan how deeply he is interested in their welfare.—Beacon.

GRAND LODGE MAY MEET HERE NEXT YEAR

Oddfellows Getting Ready for Trip to Charlottetown

Cantons LaTour and Wabasso Going Together—Will Put Through About Forty Candidates.

Arrangements are now complete for the visit of the local Oddfellows to Charlottetown next week. There is considerable activity among the subordinate lodges and particularly in canton circles. Canton LaTour has been putting in two or three nights a week lately in drill and degree work. Some 20 members will go to the island and on Wednesday evening will confer the Patriarch's Miltant degree on a large number of candidates. About thirty applications have already been received and a score or so more are expected.

The local men will be assisted in the work by members of Canton Wabasso, of Fort Fairfield. This latter body, 25 strong, and accompanied by several ladies, will arrive in St. John by boat on Monday afternoon from Fredericton. In the evening the visitors will be given a drive about the city. On Tuesday forenoon they will be joined by Canton LaTour and headed by a band, the party will march to the depot, leaving by the noon train for Charlottetown.

The I. C. R. upon application, will provide a special car for the Oddfellows. In addition to the canton all the delegates to the Grand Lodge will leave on Tuesday, a number being accompanied by their wives.

While definite instructions have not yet been given it is altogether probable that the Grand Lodge—now the largest fraternal gathering held in the Maritime Provinces, will be invited to meet in St. John next year. Officers of the order have been looking around to see if suitable arrangements for the meetings can be made, and it is believed all would be satisfactory. The invitation will therefore very likely be extended.

All members of Canton LaTour who have not yet met this evening in the Simonds St. hall.

M. G. TEED'S RESIDENCE BROKEN INTO YESTERDAY

Youthful Thieves Take Advantage of the Absence of the Family—Loss Not Yet Known.

Yesterday afternoon the house of M. G. Teed, 118 Hazen street, was broken open and entered by youthful robbers. The content of the booty carried away is not known. The Teed family have been away from the house for nearly two weeks stopping at their summer residence, while Mr. Teed has only used the house during that time for sleeping quarters. The doors were all securely locked and the windows barred to guard against anyone entering while the family were away. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Teed received a telephone message that his house had been entered by thieves through the basement window and the informant had seen them leaving. He reported this to the police and upon reaching the house it was found that the thieves had broken a window in a temporary porch leading into the first basement and had crawled through this into the interior. Here they broken the panels in the door and placing their hands through the hole, unfastened the catch. After entering this basement which was formerly used by the family as a dining room and kitchen, they proceeded to break into the second basement and considerable damage was done to the door while trying to make an entrance. They then tried to enter the apartments on the ground floor but finding this door locked it is thought that they failed to make an entrance. The door was defaced and wood around the key hole had been cut with a knife. The household furnishings and valuable merchandise was within easy reach of the thieves and whether they were successful in carrying away anything of value is not known. The thieves are supposed to be young lads. Those who saw their escape from the house state they were small in stature.
