Poetry.

FAREWELL! IF EVER FONDEST PRAYER.

Farewell! if ever fondest prayer
Might win for thee a wish or sigh,
Mine will not all be lost in air,
But waft thy name beyond the sky.
'Twere vain to speak, to weep to sigh;
Oh! more than tears of blood can tell,
When rung from guilt's expiring eve,
Are in that word—Farewell!—Farewell!

These lips are mute, these eyes are dry;
But in my breast and in my brain,
Awake the pangs that pass not by,
The thought that we can ne'er meet again.
My soul nor deigns nor dare complain,
Though grief and passion there rebel:
I only know I loved in vain—
I only feel—Farewell!—Farewell!

MY BANKER.

Who puts my money in his till,
And when in difficulties will
Employ it to take up a Bill?
My Banker.

Who cuts a very pretty dash,
By spending other people's cash,
And ends, with a tremendous smash?
My Banker.

Who has a pleasant country seat,
With park and grounds and all complete,
And is a thorough going cheat?
My Banker.

Who goes to church and says his prayers
And gives himself religious airs,
And pawns my bonds, and sell my shares?
My Banker.

Who when convinced the house must go—
Hints to a friend to let him know,
'Tis well to keep his balance low;
My Banker.

Who lives in most recherche style,
And wears the blandest smile,
Though he's insolvent all the while?
My Banker.

Who may a lesson yet be taught,
And find himself some morning brought
Before the Central Criminal Court?
My Banker.

IS FRIDAY AN UNLUCKY DAY.—From time immemorial Friday has been frowned upon as a day of ill-omen. And though the prejudice is less prevalent now than it has been of yore, when superstition had general sway, yet there are many even in this matter of fact age of ours, who would hesitate on a day so suspicious, to begin an undertaking, of momentous import.—And how many brave mariners, whose heart unquailing could meet the wildest fury of their ocean foam, would blanch to even bend their sails! But to show how much reason this feeling is indulged, let us examine the following important fact in connection with our new settlement and greatness as a nation, and we will see how little cause we Americans have to dread the fatal day.

On Friday, June 21, 1492, Christopher Columbus sailed on his great voyage of discovery.

On Friday, August 12, 1492, he first discovered land.

On Friday, Jan. 4, 1493, he sailed on his return to Spain, which, if he had not reached in safety, the happy result would have never been know which led to the settlement of this vast continent.

On Friday, March 15, 1493, he arrived at Palos in Safety.

On Friday Nov. 22, 1493, he arrived at Hispaniola, in his second voyage to America.

On Friday, June 12, 1494, he though unknown to himself, discovered the continent of America.

On Friday, March 13, 1496, Henry VII of England gave to John Cabot his commission, which led to the discovery of North America.—his is the first American State Paper in England.

On Friday, Sept. 7, 1565, Melendes founded St. Augustine, the oldest town in the United States by more than forty years.

On Friday Nov. 16, 1620, the Mayflower with the pilgrims, made the Harbor of Provincetown. And on the same day they signed that august compact, the forerunner of our present glorious Constitution.

On Friday Dec. 22, 1620, the Pilgrims made their final landing at Plymouth Rock.

On Friday, Feb. 22, George Washington, the Father of American Freedom, was born.

On Friday June 16 Bunker Hill was seized and fortified.

On Friday Oct. 7, 1777, the surrender of Saratoga was made which had such power and influence in inducing France to declare for our cause.

On Friday, Sept. 22, 1780, the treason of Arnold was laid bare, which saved us from destruction.

On Friday, Oct. 19, 1781, the surrender at Yorktown, the crowning glory of the American arms, occurred.

On Friday, July 7, 1776, the motion in Congress was made by John Adams, seconded by Richard Henry Lee; that the United States Colonies were, and of right ought to be, free and independent.

Thus, by numerous examples we see that however it may be with other nations, Americans need never dread to begin on Friday any undertaking, however momentous it may be.

TAKING THE CENSUS.—Marshal,—How many male persons are there in this family? Old lady.—Do you mean children and all? M.—Certainly. O. L.—Oh then there ain't none, 'cause my children is all girls 'cept John, and he ain't my child; do ye count John? M.—Who's John? O. L.—Oh la! don't you know John? Why he's lived with me these ten years. He's our hired man. M.—Well that's one. How many females are there in the family? O. L.—Females Let me see, there ain't none, but Biddy the hired gal. M.—I understood you to say that your children were all girls. O. L.—La! yes! Well, d've count them too? M.—Certainly I do; I count all who make their home in your family—old and young,—men women, and children. O. L.—Snakes alive! Then you want to put down the old gentleman, I suppose—don't you? M.—What old gentleman? O. L.—My old man, to be sure. M.—To be sure I do. I thought you said that John the servent man was the only male in the family. O. L.—So I did; but I didn't 'spose "males" meant decrepit old men, like my husband. Poor dear! He's been all but dead with the palsy six years next heeing. M.—Now for the females. O. L.—Well, there's Biddy, and Prudence, and Grace, and Jemima; and that is all—four of them. M.—But you haven't included yourself here. O. L.—Gracious! D'ye put me down the old woman too? Pears to me that State's mighty curious this year.—American paper.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

ERYSIPELAS OF EIGHT YEARS DURATION CURED!

Copy of a Letter from George Sinclair, Esquire, of Paris, Canada, dated the 16th of July, 1854.

To Professor Holloway.

SIR,—I feel a pleasure and pride in bearing witness to the wonderful benefit I have derived by the use of your invaluable Ointment and Pills. For eight years I suffered unmercifully from attacks of erysipelas; large purple blotches came all over my body; in addition to the unpleasant feeling of itching and burning, which effected me both night and day, rendering life misery to me, as well as to all around,—and several times the attacks I most several reputed remedies without deriving the least cessation to my misery. At last, I determined to try your Ointment and Pills; after taking them for a few weeks, a visible improvement took place, and I feel considerably better;—in three months, by continuing with your medicines, I was completely cured, and now enjoy the best of health. The truth of this statement is well known here, hence there is no necessity for me to request secrecy. I am, Sir, yours respectfully,

(Signed) GEO. SINCLAIR.

ULCERS IN THE LEG.—REMARKABLE CURE!

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Edward Tomkinson, of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, dated the 4th May, 1854.

To Professor Holloway.

SIR,—My sister, Miss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a bad leg; in which there were several deeply seated and old wounds, defying the skill of some of the most eminent of the faculty, a variety of remedies were also used unsuccessfully; and it seemed to me that there was at last any thing capable of mitigating the agonies she endured. At length she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and after using them for about five weeks, she was completely cured, after all other means had failed to afford her the slightest relief. I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known.

I remain, Sir, your most obedient servant,

(Signed) EDWD. TOMKINSON.

A BAD BREAST CURED WHEN at DEATH'S DOOR!!

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Henry Bodkin, of Three Rivers, Canada West, dated July 9th, 1854.

To Professor Holloway.

SIR,—My wife suffered most severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There were several holes in it, one as large as a hand; all the devices and strategems I tried would not heal them, but assumed an aspect more frightful than before, and horrible to behold. As a last resource I tried your Ointment and Pills, which she persevered with for seven weeks, at the expiration of that time her breast was almost well; by continuing with your remedies two more weeks, she was entirely cured, and we offer you our unfeigned thanks for the cure effected.

I remain, Sir, yours truly,

(Signed) HENRY MALDEN.
