A Column Which Is Supposed To Be Of Interest To Women

Herein are Related Facts and Fancies Concerning the Activities of Individuals and Organizations, the Home, Fashions and Other Matters.

NEWS OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

We are always pleased to receive any news of Women's Societies, fashion notes, new or tried recipes, etc., which may be of interest to our readers and we will publish same when suitable. All communications for these columns to have name and address (not ard, St. John.

The Blue Cross.

We do not want to be narrow, in our sympathies, and if this war has done nothing else, it has certainly enlarged our horizon. One lady, asked for a contribution to the Blue Cross Fund, for horses in war times, stated that to her it was wrong to take money from the Red Cross for soldiers to give to the Blue Cross for horses. A little thought will show that to tend an injured animal, or put it humanely to death, is always right, and also that care of the horse is indirectly care for the soldier. The Blue Cross supplies veterinary requisites, horse clothing, and all comforts, both for army horses at home, and at the front.
Has six horse ambulances fully equipped at work at the military camps.
Has four horse hospitals in the French lines. Permission granted for four more hospitals, when funds permit. All horses cared for by the Blue Cross naturally not considered. The Blue Cross was started during the Balkan war. Donations to this cause from St. John, Mrs. C. J. Coster, or Miss Whitaker, at the sign of 'The Lantern', German St. Splendid information on the subject may be found in an article by W. T. Fitz-Gerald, in the February number of the Windsor magazine. This article is illustrated by pictures, which plead for the cause better than words.

Lenten season the housewife's mind turns naturally to the creation of unusual fish dishes, though not necessarily new ones. Soups, salads and vegetables also figure largely in the Lenten diet. It is a simple matter to vary the salads and vegetables offered but it is not so easy to vary the soups. But with a little thought on the subject it can be done very satisfactorily.

Polish Filled Fish.
Take a five-pound cod, file or any other fish liked, and after it is scaled and cleaned split it down the back and remove carefully the backbone.
Have ready a highly seasoned filling of salt, pepper, onion, and a little of half a lemon and an onion have been squeezed and a few fennel seeds added. Serve garnished with slices of broiled potato and parsley.

Codfish Turbot.
Flake, skin and bone two pounds of boiled codfish. Place a layer of the fish in a well buttered pudding dish, then a layer of the dry crumbs a little finely minced onion, pepper and salt. Repeat the layers until the dish is full, then add a cup of cream, a gill of melted butter and a cup of sweet milk. Bake in a medium oven forty minutes or more until it is a good brown.

Onion-Tomato Scallop.
Place alternate layers of sliced fresh tomatoes and young onions in a buttered baking dish. Cover each layer with crumbs, a sprinkling of salt and pepper and bits of butter. If a quart dish is used, pour on one cup ful of stock. Sprinkle the top with crumbs and bake an hour in a slow oven. Cover the top with a plate for the first half hour to keep the tomatoes from burning.

Codfish Balls.
Three pints of boiling water, one cup of shredded salt codfish, two cups of potatoes, peeled and quartered. Put all together in a pan and boil until the potatoes are soft. Drain off the water, wash and beat until smooth. Then add one tablespoonful of butter, a little pepper, and when cool one egg well beaten. Shape into balls with tablespoon and fry in hot lard.

Parsley Sauce.
Dip a bunch of parsley into boiling water for one minute. Drain and then cut very fine. Stir into a drawn butter gravy. Serve with the fish.

Salmon Souffle.
Flake enough cold boiled salmon to make two cups. Add pepper, salt, the juice of an onion, two finely chopped cold boiled eggs, a teaspoon of chopped tarragon leaves, half a gill of melted butter; half a gill of cream and the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs. Toss the ingredients lightly and turn into buttered ramekins.

Prune Whip.
Stew one pound prunes until soft with one-half cup sugar. Beat whites of three eggs stiff. Stir prunes into whites of three eggs thoroughly. Set each apple out into eight pieces. Sprinkle half-cupful sugar over the top and put a layer of biscuit dough over it.
Bake in a moderate oven for about three-quarters of an hour.

Apple Shortcake.
Make a short biscuit dough, roll it out to cover a baking dish. Fill the dish with six apples, pared, cored, each apple cut into eight pieces. Sprin-
put a layer of biscuit dough over it.
three-quarters of an hour.

Date and Apple Salad.
One-half pound of choice dates, four apples, Juice of half a lemon, five tablespoonfuls of olive oil, salt, lettuce leaves.

The Comforter.
Silent in the house, I sit In the fire-light and knit At my ball of soft grey wool Two grey kittens gently pull—Pulling back my thoughts as well.
From that distant, red-rimmed hell,
And knit tears the stitches blur As I knit a comforter.

"Comforter" they call it—yes, Such it is for my distress,
For it gives my restless hands Blessed work God understands How we women yearn to be Doing something ceaseless—Anything but just to wait Idly for a clicking gate!

Royal Servants Have Enlisted.
Almost half the domestic staff of Buckingham Palace has been released for duty at the front, and the life of the royal family brought down to a simplicity in keeping with times of war. The King still allows no wine at the table and the meals served are plain and simple as an example in self-denial to the people. Queen Mary, on her part, takes great care to prevent waste. One of the court institutions she has reduced in cost is the royal orchestra. The Queen also insists on strict economy in the management of the war-time charities over which she presides. Too often, in peace time, these charities are really extravagant, fashionable fetes in the name of charity. But they are now run on a simple and businesslike plan. Other members of the royal family follow the example of the head of their house. Princess Christian, for example, has no longer a grandiose funkey at her door, but a parlor maid in a dark blue uniform.

Dodging or Seeking.
Most of us are likely to think that we have responsibilities enough without trying to find more. We wonder how we can get through the day, and we are not generally hunting for additional cares. Yet this is exactly what one very busy business man often does in his morning devotions.
He asks God to send him such help to some one who needs such help as he can give. He is already a centre of personal service for others, but he is asking for more. While others are seeking to find the way out of so many demands for personal help, he is seeking for the way to get deeper into others' burdens. It would make a great difference in any neighborhood if a few men were praying for help instead of dodging such opportunities.

FOR THE AUTOMOBILE.
A smart motor coacher rose color home-spun has an applied self-belt set on across the sides and back of the garment only. Below this the coat is slightly gathered. The sleeves are cut-in-one with the upper part of the coat and are extremely wide at the arm-hole, the latter extending in fact quite to the belt.

Flaring cuffs and a high standing collar of self material trim this coat. It closes high at the neck and the collar is held erect by the one-inch band of black leather which encircles it at its base, this band, extending down the front closing a few inches.

The belt and the cuffs are both trimmed with an applied band of black patent leather, through the centre.
Dapper and still practical is the tailored suit of blue serge.

Egyptian comfort pillows are new arrivals. They are made of white mummy cloth, are cylindrical in shape and are decorated with appliqued Egyptian figures in black suede. The ends are finished with large black silk pompons.

OBITUARY.

Napier Lothian.

Napier Lothian, an old time opera manager and orchestra leader, died suddenly a few days ago in the Colonial theatre, Boston, of which his son, Thomas B., is the business manager.
He went on the stage in 1842 in New York. In the seventies he produced the opera Pinocchio, with Henry Clay Barnabee and Tom Karl in the cast.
By an unusual coincidence, Tom Karl died within one day of Mr. Lothian.

Theodore H. Videto.

The death is announced in Framingham, Mass., of Theodore H. Videto, a retired manufacturer. Mr. Videto was born in 1834 at Paradise, Annapolis Co., N. S., the son of Rev. Nathaniel Videto, a Baptist minister.

Frank L. Theal.

News was received in this city yesterday of the death in the Moncton hospital of Frank L. Theal, formerly of Shediac and Sussex. Mr. Theal was an uncle of T. W. Harper, manager of the Provincial Press on Green-street, and of Mrs. H. B. Steeves, Mrs.
May Harper and Miss Beatrice Harper of Shediac. He was born in Shediac 65 years ago. Many years ago he went to the Province of Ontario, residing in Chichester Falls and Philadelphia. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Margaret McFarlane, of Chatham, N. B., who predeceased him four years. His second wife was formerly Miss E. Elliott, of Moncton, who survives him. He is also survived by five sisters, viz., Mrs. D. S. Harper, Shediac; Mrs. H. S. Bell, Moncton; Mrs. Thos. Hicks, Maryville; and Mrs. C. C. Carlyle, and Miss Kate Theal, of Winnipeg. He has many former friends in this part of the province and in Philadelphia, who will regret to hear of his death.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at Shediac, from the residence of Mrs. D. S. Harper.

Mr. Karl.

Tom Karl, well known for years as opera singer, is dead in Rochester, N.
Y. He was born in Dublin in 1846.
He was a partner with Henry Clay Barnabee and William H. Macdonald in the famous Bostonians.

Charles J. H. Woodbury.

The death is announced in Lynn, Mass., of Charles Jephth Hill Woodbury, secretary-treasurer of the National Association of Cotton-Manufacturers, which has membership in St.
John and other parts of Canada. He was an expert in textiles, engineering and a historian and writer.

Mr. F. L. Theal.

Word has been received of the death in the Moncton hospital at seven o'clock last evening of Mr.
F. L. Theal. A little over two months ago relatives of Mr. Theal, residing in Shediac, received news of his serious illness in Philadelphia. They answered the summons and brought Mr.
Theal to Shediac, where for eight weeks he was ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. D. S. Harper. His physician advised an operation. Mr. Theal entered the hospital at Moncton a little over one week ago. On Friday last he was successfully operated on, but yesterday morning he took a weak turn from which he did not rally. The deceased was sixty-nine years of age, a man of kindly disposition, held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He had resided in Philadelphia for over twenty years, and in that city and in other parts as well as in his native town of Shediac, his death will be learned by his large circle of friends with deepest regret. The late Mr. Theal is survived by five sisters, Mrs. H. S. Bell, Moncton; Mrs.
Hicks, wife of Rev. Thos. Hicks, of Maryville; Mrs. C. C. Carlyle and Miss Thea of Winnipeg, and Mrs. D.
S. Harper, Shediac, from whose home the funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon. D. W. Harper, manager of the Provincial Press in this city is a nephew of the late Mr. Theal.

Mrs. Archibald McLean.

Chatham, March 21.—The death of Mrs. McLean, wife of Archibald Mc-Lean, one of Chatham's leading business men, occurred at the family residence, Howard street, Tuesday morning, after a lingering illness of heart disease. The deceased was a member of St. John's Presbyterian church and a highly respected lady. She leaves, besides her husband, three sons and three daughters, Herbert of the Overseas Battery, St. John; Harry and William, and Misses Catherine, Be-sie and Eva.

Capt. Partelow.

Capt. C. G. Partelow died suddenly at Boston, Mass., on the 21st inst.
Mrs. Partelow was formerly at St.
John. He leaves one daughter, Mrs.
William Ingraham of this city. His mother and one sister reside at Oro-mocton, and one brother, George, lives at Readville, Mass.

News Of The St. John Theatres Told In The Right Way

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture Game and on the Stage --- Film Favorites and What They Say and Do.

The Imperial.

Pennington's Choice was promised to us as a treat and it certainly is. It is one of the best pictures seen here for some time. The fight with really truly Jim Jeffries, the ex-champion, is robbed of its brutality (for the ladies' tender hearts) by the fact that it is a friendly bout and in the fierce battle which Bushman fights with the French-Canadian bullies, why the villains only get what they deserve and they get it good and hard. They must have been black and blue when the fights were really waged. The acting of the whole cast is splendid and the scenery taken in the Quebec woods is magnificent, with huge trees, streams and steep hills. It is played by Francis X. Bushman and Beverley Bayne and that is enough said. Miss Bayne gives an Annette Kellermann dive and she is exceedingly graceful and pretty to a degree. I have objected to actresses with flowing locks but Miss Bayne's are most beautiful and becoming and the style suits the part. The play has a good moral, showing how Pennington made the best of himself and proved a man. It gives his wonderful physique. To tell the story would spoil the surprise of the play but I strongly advise you to go early and see it for yourself.

The Universal Weekly.

The Universal Weekly showed views of Villa who is to be captured alive or dead," pictures of British troops, German troops, United States troops detaining at Mexican border.
H. Mayer's cartoons on illustrated news were very good.

Miss Marcella Spencer sings songs from The Firefly. She wears a pretious gown of blue chiffon taffeta over white lace.

Unique Theatre.

Yesterday the Diamond from the Sky—The Jewel is retrieved from a pig pen by a tramp who goes to an optum den. Some clever scenes follow here of the Chinese temple, the restaurant and den and a most horrible looking chink steals the diamond, and gives it to the priest, who adorns it in his throne. Blair Stanley with Blake the detective and Vivian are sightseeing in Chinatown, they discover the whereabouts of the stone and Blair manages to steal it back. In the meantime Hagar is discovered in the hidden chamber where Blair has flung her but her mind is affected and she babbles of the past, giving away secrets to not only Blair's mother but to Esther. They go back to the Gypsy camp in hopes that it will restore Hagar's reason and Quabba, the hunchback, watches faithfully over Esther. This is also a fine chapter.

The Unique also showed a funny comedy of neighbors, an old bachelor with a niece, a widow with a son, a clothesline and a dish pan figure in this picture, also a matrimonial agency. The audience enjoyed this heartily.

The Unique is fond of jewelry. Another picture yesterday was "The Stolen Jewels," featuring Miss Mignon Anderson. It was well acted but had a very weak plot.

Sir Charles Wyndham, actor manager, was recently married to Mary Moore, who for some years has been the leading lady in Sir Charles' company, and also has been interested ## with him in the ownership of several London theatres.

It is reported that Lillian Russell may be a candidate for the majority of Pittsburg.

Mrs. Frederick Harriott, known widely as Miss Clara Morris, actress, birthday at her house, on the Shore road, Whitestone, L. I. There will be no festivities. Owing to her failing health and sight, she practically is confined to her room overlooking Long Island Sound and the East River. With her lives her mother, now more than ninety-four years old. Miss Morris still devotes part of her time to magazine work, dictating to a stenographer.

Lon-Tellegen will come to Maxine Elliot's Theatre on next Monday night in "A King of Nowhere," in which he has the role of a knight of the time of King Henry VIII. The cast includes Sydney Greenstreet as the King, Miss Olive Tell, Corliss Giles, Robert Virgan, Robert Adams and Miss Wilda Marl Moore.

John O'Malley, tenor, at the concert at the Hippodrome on Sunday night, accompanied by Sousa's Band.

Two performances of "Hedda Gab-ler" are to be given in Stamford, Conn. before these special matinee presentations of Ibsen's play at the Globe Theatre here. All of the performances are to be under the auspices of the Blue Cross Fund.

Donald Crisp, director of "Ramona," the photo drama adapted from Mrs.
Jackson's famous novel, which W. H.
Clune and Lloyd Brown, will present at the Forty-fourth Street Theatre in April. Arrived from Los Angeles, Cal.
Fifty-two persons and two cars of scenery are utilized in the presentation.

Cleveland and its populous residential suburbs, Lakewood and East Cleveland, are paying much attention to the question of children's matinees. It is interesting to note, however, that the subject of children's matinees is in his throne. Blair Stanley with Blake the detective and Vivian are
away secrets to not only Blair's moth-
restore Hagar's reason and Quabba,
ter.

James Levering, Gaumont's fine old character actor, has been in the picture game four years. In that time he has been idle but three weeks. Edison, Pathe, Solax, Lubin and Gaumont have been his film affiliations.
He is at present playing an important role in "Peatherpot," starring Marguerite Courtot, under the direction of Henry J. Vernot. At the same time he has a dramatic bit in Director Edwin Middleton's big East India festivity, "The Haunted Manor," featuring Eva Shepherd.

Charlie Chaplin Organizes Music Company for Own Songs.

The Charlie Chaplin Music Company consists of Charles and Sidney Chaplin and Herbert Clark, has been organized and has opened an office in Los Angeles, says Motion Picture News.

The purpose of this company is to popularize the music written by the well-known comedian. The selection published to date include "Oh, That Cello," "There's Always One You Can't Forget" and "The Peace Patrol."

Gertrude McCoy is now a Gaumont star, to be seen first in "The Quality of Faith," a five-reel feature.

Among the prominent Gaumont players supporting Miss Iva Shepard in the forthcoming production of "The Haunted Manor" are Earl O. Schenck, Gertrude Robinson, Robert Clugston, Henry W. Pemberton, Mathilde Barling, Olive Trevor, William R. Hopkins and James Levering.

Surveyors have begun the work of laying the lines for Mirroville, which is to be the film city raised on the ground recently acquired by the Mirror Films, Inc., at Glendale, Long Island. There is great elation among the studio folk in Mirroville for they realize that once Mirroville is a fact, the street car rides and life in Harlem flats can be left behind.

The first picture in which Nat C.
Goodwin will be seen in any screen for the Mirror Films, Inc., has been called "The Marriage Bond." It will soon be projected before the public.
Goodwin has returned to New York from Florida. Billy Quirk, president of the Screen Club, came with him, as did Flora Finch, who off and over assisted the late John Bunny in creating the laugh round the world.

This week Francis Ford is finishing three one-reel dramas, at U City, in all of which he plays the stellar cast. In "The Key of a Flat," and "A Bad Start," are the titles of two of these plays, with Grace Cunard playing opposite him, and Jack Holt in the cast. In "The Three Veterans," Ford, Fete Gerald and Jack Conley, are the principals.

Graig Hutchinson will start in a few days on a one reel comedy, entitled, "The Boarding House Tangle," at Universal City. The cast has not as yet been named.

Unsightly Pimples Covered His Face.

All diseases and blemishes of the skin are caused by the blood being in an impure condition.

You cannot make a good complexion from the outside; you must get to the seat of the trouble. You must make the blood pure and rich by taking a medicine that will drive out all the impurities and poisons from the blood; one that drives out everything from the system that is the cause of these unsightly skin eruptions.

The best blood cleansing medicine on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters; a medicine that has been used with the greatest success for the past forty years; a medicine you don't experiment with when you buy it.

Mr. Lemoy D. Cooke, Indian Path, N.S., writes: "I am writing you a few lines to tell you what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. Last winter my face was covered with pimples. I tried different kinds of medicine, and it seemed to fail. I was one day to a friend's house, and there they advised me to use B.B.B., so I purchased two bottles, and before I had them taken I found I was getting better. I got two more, and when they were finished I was completely cured. I find it is a great blood purifier, and I recommend it to all."

B.B.B. is manufactured only by "The

IT MAKES YOUR RED BLOOD TINGLE all the way through this remarkable picture to see how the French Canadian lumbermen—jealous, apparently of Bushman's presence in the camp—are dead set on giving the good-looking big actor a rare thrashing. Then how he turns the tables on them—when, it is truly some scrap! Talk about
