its total cost. With its great and unquestioned advantages in distance, grades, climate and tributary fertile country, the Northern Pacific is assured of a vast and profitable business from the outset, with a large increase for the future. the outset, with a large increase for the future.

The Value of Land Grants. The average price at which the twenty-six leading Land-grant Railroads have thus far sold their lands, is $7.04 per acre—the highest average of any grant being $13.98, and the lowest $3.07. With tew exceptions, the average selling price has steadily increased from year to year. The lands of the Northern Pacific Road are admitted, by all who have seen them to be better and more salable.

Todhunter's Algebra for beginners: creased from year to year. The lands of the Northern Pacific Road are admitted, by all who have seen them, to be better and more salable than those of most other grants, but, sold at the general average of $7.04 per acre, they will yield more than $161,000 per mile of road—more than three times the possible cost of construction and equipment; or, at the lowest average of any grant ($3.07), they will produce more than $70, 000 per mile. These facts regarding Pacific Railroad carnings, and the market value of

NOTICES OF 'THE WISDOM OF THE KING BY

Rev. James Bennet, ST. JOHN, N. B.

"Characterized by directness of aim, sound sense, and right appreciation of the sacred writer's meaning.".—The Preachers' Lantern, (London), Feb. 1871. "His Book may be recommended as worthy o take a place in the Homiletical Literature of coclesiastes," - British Quarterly Review, April "The production of a highly cultivated mind.
. We have read several works on Ecclesiantes, and well remember the pleasure with which years ago we perused the 'Royal Preacher,' but for fine criticism, comprehensiveness of thought, striking illustration and unostentations, yet eloquent and forcible style, THE WISDOM OF THE KING, we think, surpasses them all."—St. Croix Courier, March 6, 1871. "The volume is not an unworthy companion of Dr. Buchanan on the same book."—The Homilist (London), April 1371.

Evaluation of the box of the street of the most sprightly, attractive and instructive works of its kind that has fallen under our observation."—Boston Evening Traveller, May 6th, 1871.

"He reveals in the treatment of his themes strong common sense, a firm grasp of thought, a logical acumen and a cleer insight into human character. Even when dealing with trite ideas he imparts to them a novelty and interest by which they are lifted into an importance they searcely deserve. The style throughout is lucid, pure, compact, forcible,—and it is his own—the garb of his own thinking. We have met in our perusal of the book with numerous paragraphs of finished and brilliant rhetoric—fine specimens of pulpit oratory. He is never tame nor tiresome. We have not found one slip shod sentence in the volume."—Christian Visitor, (Baptist) March 6th, 1871.

"We were not prepared to find him writing."

"We were not prepared to find him writing in such a finished style and issuing such a volume as 'the result of certain preparations made for an evening lecture to his congregation.' If all his pulpit perfermances are equal to these, his people have reason to rejoice in the Providence which guided his steps to them."—Evangelical Witness, May 1st 1871. Evangetical Witness, May let 187f.

"This is a remarkably thoughtful, solid book! Mr. Beenet is evidently at home in Metaphysics and Ethies, and he is a shrewd observer of human nature in its ordinary manifestation; consequently he ranges over the lessons of the Preacher with a power of illustration which shows his mastery of the subject. The style is close and direct, and yet so lucid, that any reader may understand every sentence in the volume. . It will, we doubt not, take its place, as it ought to do, among our household expositions of this treatise of observation and Jewish wisdom "—The Presbyterian (Philadelphia), May 20, 1871.

"The Wisdom of the King is well worth careful reading. Indeed you cannot read much of it at once. There is a constant play of fancy about the thoughts, and often the very words, that is admirably suited to the Scripture book, of which this is an exposition, but which demands such constant attention on the reader's part that he gets tired, for he does not know where it is to end, The style is compact, lucid, often sparkling and epigrammatic, the sentences cut sharply, but with a poetic full ness of original illustration, that redeems them from all hard-"Each chapter is so well done, so lucid, yet concise in its exposition, that it is sometimes d flicult to determine which is the best and most interesting.—Stewart's Quarterly, St. John.
