MONTREAL.*Mercantile Summary.

A KNITTING mill is to be erected at North Coaticook, Que., under the management of Mr. Cruickshanks.

We observe the assignment, last week, of Messrs. J. Langlands and Sons, coffee and spice manufacturers, Montreal, with liabilities of $25,000.

THE MOSLEY tannery, burned out some weeks ago in Montreal, has received a bonus of $15,000 to remove to St. Hyacinthe. The town of St. John's offered $10,000.

THE boot and shoe dealers of Peterborough have entered into an agreement to close their places of business at seven o'clock each evening except Saturday.

THE British Vice-Consul at Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, has interviewed the premier and acting finance-minister at Ottawa, on the subject of extended trade between Canada and Hawaii.

We notice the recent death, in London, at the age of seventy, of Mr. Thos. Routledge, of the Ford Works Company, (Limited), Sunderland. In early life the deceased carried on paper making at Oxford, where he took out a patent for manufacturing paper from esparto grass. The patent proved a great success, and wrought a great change in the art of papermaking.

The affairs of the Alpha Oil Co. are reported by the Sarnia Observer to remain in the same embarrassed condition they have been in for the past three weeks. The stockholders have appointed Sheriff Flintoft and Mr. Wilbur McBride, of Marquette, Mich., liquidators of the company's affairs. The sheriff is already in possession of the works under the Van Tuyl & Fairbank execution. There is still talk of re-opening the works as soon as the present liabilities are wiped out, and carrying on the refining of petroleum.
