

Viewpoint

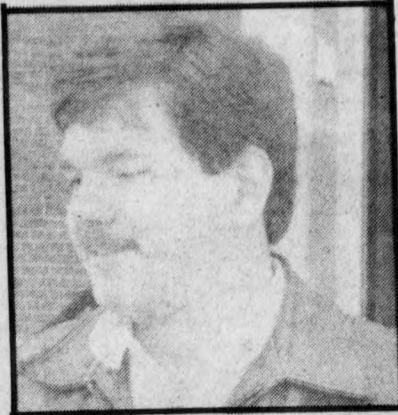

What do you think about pro-life speaker Dr. J. C. Wilke coming to campus?

Photos - Alan Brown
Núsin Brown
Interviews - Valerie White

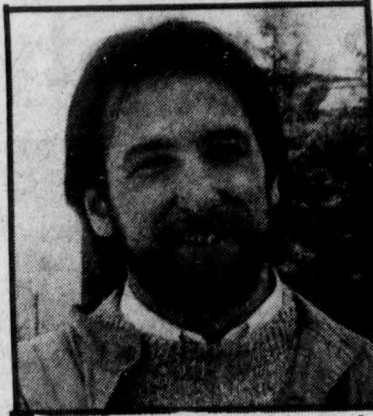

1. He has rights as well as Morgentaler.

Donna Zerdzicki BBA I

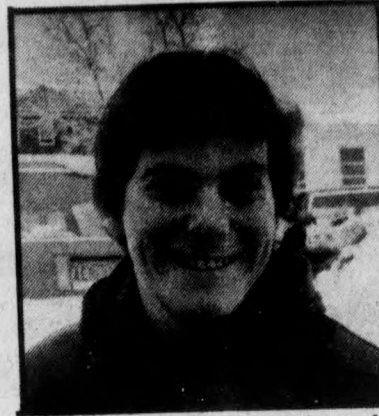

2. I think it's fine because you have to provide alternate viewpoints and let people decide from there.

Steve Young MPE V

3. I think he should leave his visual effects out of the show.

Mark Lutes MA

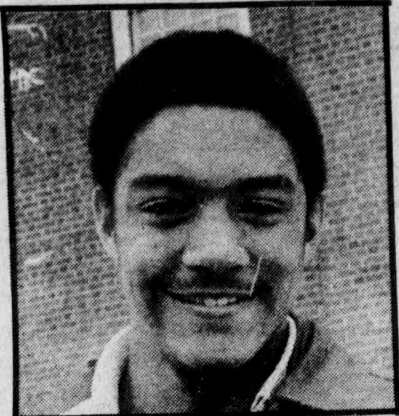

4. I think he's got a right to his opinion but I wouldn't go see him.

Colin Grieve BAV

5. It's good to hear the other side of the story.

Peggy Norris BAI
Alison Boorman

6. I think it's great. I hope that people will begin to think about the God-centered source of life.

Neville Gosman BAI

7. I haven't heard anything about it.

Margaret Fraser BEd II

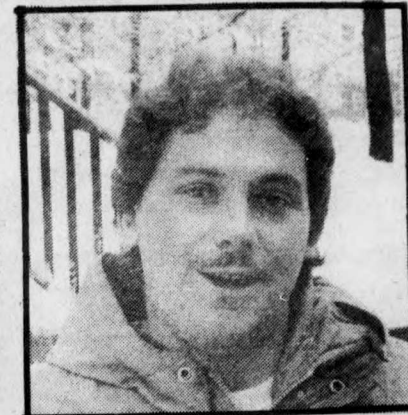

8. I think it's great. It will put new views on campus.

Jeremy Gavin BBA I

9. I think it's great that someone takes a stand for the issue of life.

Karen Clingo BAI

10. I think anyone that speaks out against abortion is doing a good thing. It's about time someone stopped the killing.

Neil Hooper MPE

The N.B. Right To Life Association and the Student Union are honored to present:

Dr. Jack Willke, M.D.

-President of International Right to Life
-President of National Right to Life in the U.S.
-Author of HANDBOOK ON ABORTION

Wednesday, January 29
Room 105, MacLaggan Hall, UNB

3.30 pm Lecture No. 1 Abortion: The Tide Has Turned
7.00 pm Lecture No. 2 Medical Ethics and The Question of Human Abortion

TICKETS :$3.00 student with UNB ID
$5.00 others

-Wednesday Jan 29 10.00 am Dr. Willke will be the guest on the CFNB open line show

-Wednesday Jan 29 12.00 pm The public is invited to attend a luncheon in Dr. Willke's honor at the Lord Beaverbrook Hotel. Dr. Willke will be the guest speaker giving a speech entitled: ABORTION: PUBLIC POLICY. Tickets $10.00 each.

Tickets on sale at SUB office,
Student Union Building, UNB Campus