

8. The provision of good storybooks and papers for homes and libraries, containing accounts of national heroes and events.

9. Story-telling, especially in the homes, in which the glories of the country and the classic tales of its founders and supporters are recounted.

10. The coöperation of the government, the Church, the home and the school in all of these matters.

The application of the above points to the kingdom of God on earth, its beginnings, its long and marvelous history, its significant epochs and its triumphant martyrs and heroes, ought to produce an atmosphere conducive to the highest missionary education and service.

When "missionary" is substituted for "patriotic" in all of the different meanings above an entirely new list of methods, some highly educational, appears.
