

The Instructor:

A CHURCH OF ENGLAND MAGAZINE FOR THE TIMES, HAS JUST COMMENCED THE

THIRD VOLUME,

Three times the size of all former issues, and with Five Published Works of the Editor, the

REV. D. F. HUTCHINSON,

The names of which will be found on the Second Page of its Cover, can be had (post free) for the low price of

$1.35 A YEAR.

As heretofore the Magazine will be independent of any party.
It will advocate the true and narrow way of "Holiness to the Lord"
and loyalty to his Church.

 NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!

ADDRESS:

REV. D. FALLOON HUTCHINSON,

P.O., Box, 1669,

TORONTO, ONTARIO.

Works Just Published by the Editor:

- | | |
|---|---------------|
| 1.—A Reply to the Poem No Sects in Heaven, | Price 10 cts. |
| 2.—A Reply to Dr. Cramp, Priest of Acadia College, N. S.; on the mode of baptism preached by the Apostles of our Lord, .. | " 10 " |
| 3.—A Reply to the Rev. Father Damen, proving the present Church of Rome in Great Britain and these Colonies to be a secession from the Anglican Church, | " 15 " |
| 4.—The Religious Quackery of Mr. Spurgeon and others, and its dreadful results | " 10 " |
| 5.—The New Heresy of Ex-Bishop Cummins—the Rev. Mr. Cheny and others detected in the light of the Holy Scriptures, | " 12 " |
| 6.—A sermon on infant baptism and baptismal regeneration, | " 15 " |
| 7.—The Anabaptist Controversy, both sides of the question freely
given | " 15 " |

All or any of the above works can be had at Rowsell & Hutchinson's, Book Store, King Street, East, Toronto.

Or by a letter addressed to the

REV. D. FALLOON HUTCHINSON,

Post Office Box, 1669,

TORONTO, ONT.