ST. PETERSBURG has three car lines which are to be converted to the electrical system next Spring. Bids for the work are being asked.

THE CHRONICLE prefers a straight quotation of its editorials to a condensed paraphrase. If the cap fits any contemporary he is free to wear it.

GERMANY AND HOLLAND are about to build cable lines to their colonial dependencies, communication with which they are now dependent on English lines. France is talking of adopting the same course, so the cable industries will have a boom this year.
