Lesson Story

Father and Mother were away from home the day the dam burst and the great flood of water swept down on the little farm in the valley. Nelly and Ted outside in the yard saw it coming, and flew towards the house. Baby John was asleep in his cradle at the front door. But they only reached the back steps before the flood swept down on them. They rushed through the hall to the front, but the water was already up to the floor and Baby and cradle had disappeared. How they cried, till Nelly remembered. "God is sure to take care of him," she reminded Ted. And they knew that that was the reason that Father and Mother on their way home found the cradle with baby safely asleep inside, caught by the little bridge farther down the valley.

Lesson Hymn

Great God! and wilt Thou condescend
To be my Father and my Friend?
I a poor child, and Thou so high,
The Lord of earth and air and sky.

Art Thou my Father? Let me be
A meek, obedient child to Thee;
And try, in word and deed and thought,
To serve and praise Thee as I ought. Amen.
