

WESTERN FAIR

LONDON, ONTARIO.

SEPTEMBER 14th to 23rd, 1893.

Canada's Favorite Live Stock and Agricultural Exhibition!

ESTABLISHED 1868—OLDEST FAIR IN THE DOMINION—INCORPORATED 1887.

MAKE YOUR ENTRIES EARLY. FIRST COME FIRST CHOICE.

HORSES, CATTLE, SHEEP, HOGS, POULTRY—
Entries close Sept. 14th.

The best specimens of pure-bred animals in the country will be on exhibition. No better market for purchase and sale than the Western Fair.

AGRICULTURAL and HORTICULTURAL PRODUCTS—Entries close Sept. 7th.

Choice grains, seeds, and other cereals. A multitude of edible roots, vegetables and plants, consisting of all the valuable old and new varieties.

DAIRY & APIARY DEPT.—Entries close Sept. 7th.

The principal prize winners in cheese at the Columbian Exposition will be among our exhibitors. The new refrigerator insures a large butter exhibit. Honey and apiary appliances will excel former displays.

MAIN BUILDING—Entries close Sept. 7th.

Textile fabrics of choice and delicate patterns, valuable etchings, drawings, paintings and engravings, will decorate the walls. Musical instruments, sewing machines, furnaces, stoves and cooking utensils; elegant and costly merchants' displays will be seen on every hand.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS.

W. C. COUP'S EQUESTRIAN CURRICULUM—

16 celebrated horses. $100,000 offered for the production of their equals. Selected for perfection of form and intelligence. These human animals give a realistic battle scene, and feats even more wonderful.

IMPERIAL JAPANESE TROUPE—

Here by permission of the Mikado, from the Royal Palace, Tokio, Japan. Marvellous performances of novel and sensational acts, not equalled by any other troupe in the world. Japanese daylight fireworks which are wonderful, curious and amusing.

PROFESSOR FREYER'S EDUCATED DOGS—

Hold high court session, consisting of judge, lawyer, jury and prisoner. They try, convict, hang, and bury one of their number, besides performing numerous other intelligent and astonishing tricks.

PROFESSOR CALVERLEY—

The high wire artist and champion of Niagara Falls, will give exhibitions day and night during the fair.
