

to £12,000,000 a year in give the annual addition insurance has during the £12,000,000 to £37,000,000, an An interesting feature of the benefits to be derived life assurance with or insurance, while other sec-incident and marine insur-

of assurance generally is e, as the increased wealth the attractiveness of ento swell the volume of ne assurance offices in a return for their invest-d sanitary conditions of
of the people are causing

CASUALTY NOTES.

ary of the Manufacturers' l, and is likely to accept Mutual Benefit Life In-
Mr. Papps stands de-his selection by so im-credit to Canada as well s.

marial sciences to prepare the Actuarial Society of d by the School of Com-w York University, at ty, on September 26th.
are Wendell M. Strong,
fe Insurance Company;
e Savings Life Assurance
nsulting actuary.

of the 'Life Underwriters' d at Toronto, and now dinate associations in the nce Edward Island in the
t. These are located as ooke, Quebec, Montreal;
ton, Toronto, Belleville, ipeg, Manitoba, Halifax,
k, Charlottetown, P.E.I., ewan, and Calgary, Al-
out 500.

at Conference of casualty Grande Pointe Hotel,
the circular must mean
-Ed. 1, on August 27th, s are to be read and discollections," L. O. Chat-insurance Company, "Can Organization?" Simon
ent Union, "The Agent;
pany," Reinhold R. Koch, pany. The president of ederal Casualty Co., and he Home, Accident and

ment recently made be-the Pelican and British the amalgamation is not y's business and good-ture of a legal combina-
offices which have been f a century. There is the interest of both, but company's interests are vides that the company insurance fund in accord-ies Act, 1870, and shall nt of the life assurance ire, and the assets comd applied by the com-
made for the directors;
ead office employees of luding the present man-Canada), are taken over nt to be continued (ex-insubordination) until f 40 years' service and ds of latest salary."

SOME PROMINENT OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE LIFE UNDERWRITERS ASSOCIATION OF CANADA.
(See next page.)