

WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday, Nov. 19.—St. Elizabeth of Hungary, was the daughter of a King of Hungary and the niece of St. Hedwig. She was betrothed in infancy to Louis, Landgrave of Thuringia and brought up in his father's court. While her husband lived she devoted her wealth and influence to charitable purposes. When he died she was driven from the palace and forced to wander in the streets with her children. She died in 1231, at the age of twenty-four.

Monday, Nov. 20.—St. Felix of Valois was the son of the Count of Valois. An unjust divorce between his parents led him to take the Cistercian habit at Clairvaux. After living for a time as a hermit in Italy he returned to France where after another period of solitude he and St. John of Matha formed the Order of the Holy Trinity for the redemption of Christian captives. The Order was confirmed by Pope Innocent III. He died in 1213.

Tuesday, Nov. 21.—The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It is an ancient tradition that the Blessed Virgin Mary was solemnly offered to God in the Temple in her infancy. The tender soul of Mary was then adorned with the most precious graces, an object of astonishment and praise to the angels and of the highest complacency to the adorable Trinity; the Father looking upon her as His beloved daughter, the Son as one chosen and prepared to become His mother, and the Holy Ghost as His darling spouse.

Wednesday, Nov. 22.—St. Cecilia, virgin and martyr, a rich beautiful and noble Roman maiden on her wedding evening renewed the vow by which she had consecrated her virginity to Christ. Her husband was converted by her words and a few days later was martyred. Cecilia herself was placed in a hot air bath heated to seven times its customary temperature but was unharmed after a day and a night. She was dispatched with the sword, although she remained with head half severed for two days and nights, in the year 177.

Thursday, Nov. 23.—St. Clement of Rome, was consecrated Bishop of St. Peter himself and was among the first of those who have held the place and the power of Peter. His famous epistle to the Corinthians restored order in the Corinthian Church which was torn with schism and rebellion. Shortly afterwards St. Clement sealed with his blood the Faith which he had learned from Peter and taught to the nations.

Friday, Nov. 24.—St. John of the Cross, became the first prior of the Barefoot Carmelites. His reform though approved by the general was rejected by the elder friars. Three times he was shamefully persecuted by his brethren and publicly disgraced. But his complete abandonment by creatures only deepened his interior peace and devout longing for heaven.

Saturday, Nov. 25.—St. Catherine of Alexandria, was a noble virgin who was converted to the Faith. When the tyrant Maximian II. urged his suit and was rejected he became enraged and ordered her to be stripped and scourged. She fled to the Arabian mountains where the soldiers overtook her and after many torments put her to death. Her body was laid in Mount Sinai and a beautiful legend relates that Catherine having prayed that no man might see or touch her body after death, angels bore it to the grave.

GERMAN CATHOLIC SOCIAL STUDY

By Rev. Dr. Wilhelm Baron von Capitaine. One of the influences which is proving of great value in bringing about a restoration of friendly relations between Germany and other nations is the work of the Volksverein fur das Katholische Deutschland. This Catholic organization founded by the great Centrist leader, Windthorst has become an important and powerful institution for the dissemination of knowledge on social questions and students and scholars from all parts of the world have been attracted by its work. As a result they are coming to Germany to study its methods and to make use of its great library facilities and are thus brought into friendly contact with the German people.

The names found on the register kept in the central office of the Volksverein at Gladbach in the Rhineland indicate how widespread is the interest in this organization and show the possibilities for its influence. A recent entry on the register is the name of the director of the Catholic People's Union of Buenos Aires. He had been in correspondence with the central office since the end of the World War and finally came to Germany to study the Volksverein's methods for application in Argentina. Just now there is a priest there from Santiago, Chile, for the purpose of making a similar study. There are hundreds of names on the register from Czechoslovakia, Jugoslavia, Austria, Hungary and Roumania. A prominent member of the Benedictine order from North America registered at the office recently as did several well known Spanish scholars, the editor of the Osservatore Romano of Rome, the Rector of the Catholic University of Milan, a famous Portuguese diplomat, and more than twenty priests from the United States. Interest in the work of the Volksverein is not confined entirely to Catholic circles. Many Protestant university professors visit the headquarters at Gladbach for research work and some of them send their students there to work on dissertations.

A Good Place to go in Winter

- 1. Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C. 3. Famous Malahat Drive, Vancouver Island. 2. Golf may be played every day in the year. 4. Vancouver is a beautiful modern city. 5. Magnificent mountain scenery en route.

Nature has dealt most generously with Canada in respect to her climate. While in the East we have winter weather worthy of the name, with lots of snow, which nowadays proves an attraction to thousands who revel in the bracing winter atmosphere and enjoy our winter sports of tobogganing, skiing, skating, etc., there are many who seek a warmer clime. We have this in Canada also. Within the last few years, thousands of our Canadian people have been making their annual winter pilgrimages to the Pacific Coast, many to avoid the rigors of winter, and many simply to indulge in a winter vacation. Victoria and Vancouver, on our own Pacific Coast, offer ideal retreats. Here flowers bloom in winter, and the grass and trees are always green. South-westerly breezes prevail throughout the year, reaching the land warmed by their passage across the vast breadth of the Pacific, whose waters on this coast have a temperature of 52 degrees. In Victoria, 49 degrees has been the mean annual temperature for the last thirty years, while Vancouver is a little colder, but extremes in weather are never experienced. Golf and other outdoor sports may be engaged in all winter, while both cities have magnificent natural settings, and hundreds of miles of the finest roads on the continent invite motoring. You have the grandeur of mountain scenery, glorious meadows, luxurious evergreen forests and invigorating sea air, with all the advantages to be found in a modern metropolis, for Victoria and Vancouver are two of the finest cities in the Dominion. The mountains en route through the Canadian Rockies are magnificent in their sombre winter dress—a fairland of surpassing beauty. The Canadian National Railway passes through the mountains at the lowest altitude and easiest gradients of any transcontinental railway in America.
