

WESTMINSTER REVIEW

(Originated as Westminster Hall Magazine)

A Social, Literary and Religious Monthly

VOL. IX.

FEBRUARY, 1916.

No. 1

Published at 1600 Barclay Street, Vancouver, British Columbia.

D. A. Chalmers

Managing Editor

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Editorial	2
The Pulpit and the Press.
Congregational Business Meetings.
The Coming Election in British Columbia.
Organizing for Prohibition.
The Lucas Case Criticism.
The Children's Page Commends Itself—Two Prizes awarded.
A Competition for Adults.
A Eulogium from the Lammermuirs.
The Educational System of British Columbia—Article I.....	9
By C. N. Haney, M. A.
The British Contribution; or Maritime Preponderance in the War.....	11
Translated by Fanny E. Downie, with an Introduction by Donald Downie, B. C. L.
Notes and Comments	18
By Rev. R. G. MacBeth, M. A.
On the Delights and Dangers of Versatility	20
By Bernard McEvoy.
Western Canadian Church Notes.....	24
Presbyterian: By J. Richmond Craig.
Methodist: By A. E. Roberts.
Baptist: By G. R. Welch.
Anglican: By Archdeacon Heathcote.
The Children's Page	32
Our Bible Talk—The Patriot's Psalm.
Beginning Our Ninth Volume.....	33
Looking Backward.
Encouraging Words.
Looking Forward.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

In the British Empire: $1 a year (4/6) in advance; $1.25 in arrears.

CONTINUANCE OF SUBSCRIPTION

In each case the month and year when renewal falls due are printed beside the subscriber's name as a record and receipt.

Prompt attention to renewals is valued.

No subscriber's name is deleted from our list without notification in writing from the subscriber and the payment to date of any arrears.

Changes of address should be notified in writing.

Payment should be made by postal orders or notes. When personal cheques are used, unless they are payable in Vancouver, 15 cents should be added for Bank commission.

All communications should be addressed to the Magazine Manager, 1600 Barclay Street, Vancouver, B. C.

190071