PERT PARAGRAPHS.

The guarantors of the Chatauga entertainments at Kincardine had to meet a shortage of $7 this year.

Now that the season for eating corn on the cob is at hand, there is a great demand for a muffler for the most eager performers.

The scarcity of the nut crop in the woods is bringing the red squirrel into the orchards and gardens. One would enjoy seeing him skipping about if he were less destructive in his habits.

A business organization is very much like an orchestra. The little man who bangs the big drum makes the most noise, but the big man who waggles the little stick earns the most money.

The Canadian dollar is still a little over 10 per cent. below par.
You can now buy 30 Russian roubles that before the war were worth $10.10, for 5 cents. How's that for shrinkage? That would make one dollar bills worth less than half a cent each.

A syndicate of medical men from Galt, Kitchener and Preston have bought up the Hotel Del Monte property of Preston, and intend wrecking the hotel and building a modern sanitarium to accommodate the people who congregate annually to the Preston baths.

The Midland druggist who was charged by License Inspector Reid with selling beef, iron and wine as a beverage pleaded guilty before Police Magistrate Brown of Victoria Harbour on Monday and was fined $200 and costs. He had sold as many as 70 or 80 bottles in a week.

It looks as if prohibition was beginning to prohibit. Last week 8,000 cases of liquor were seized in Windsor, Ont., because of the court in Windsor, Ont., because the 400 who had ordered them could not or would not "show cause" for ordering such quantities.

The answer to the question: 'Why did Arthur Hawkes and J. M. Elson take so much interest in opposing Hydro-Radials before the investigating commission is out? The statement of cost of the investigation shows that Mr. Hawkes received $4,900 and Mr. Elson $1,750, as well as $301 travelling expenses between them.—Telegraph.

The fight against the grasshoppers for 1921, has been finished in Saskatchewan, but a still greater battle over a larger area is in sight for next year, according to officials of the department of agriculture. The total amount of materials mixed into poison this summer is staggering and includes 3,024 tons of bran; 10 carloads of sawdust; 361,233 pounds of arsenic; 10,100 pounds of paris green; 92,360 gallons of molasses; 895 barrels of salt.

A sad accident occurred at the home of Mr. W. J. Hewton, T. P. of Eastnor, on the morning of the 18th when the youngest son, Alvin A. Mc-me, his death by drowning in the ditch which runs past the house. It appears that the little fellow left the house unnoticed, and on his absence being discovered, search was made and his body was found as above stated. Medical aid was at once summoned but life was found to be extinct. The funeral took place on Friday, a large gathering of relatives and friends being present. Deceased was one year and five months of age.—Lion's Head Peninsular News.

This was not a marine but a youth who had been very attentive to a girl all summer, but had never squeezed her hand while dancing, had never whispered sweet nothings into her ear, had never told her anything in the least bit complimentary. In fact had never made any advances to her at all. The last day at the hotel was open, they were sitting on the beach, and he was telling her of the trip which he was going to take to the White Mountains, when she turned to him suddenly and said: "Aren't you going to kiss me?" "I've got some sand in my mouth," he replied.
"Don't you think you'd better swallow it and get some into your system?" said the maid.

The village of Waterdown has one Juryman after juryman had been challenged by the prisoner's counsel.

However, all things come to an end, and at last the jury was completed.
But the prisoner, leaning over the dock, sought the ear of his counsel "The jury's all right now, I think," he whispered, "but ye must challenge the Judge. I've been convicted under him several times already, and maybe he's beginning to have a prejudice."

If some of the nickle-plated hold-up artists who so cheekily go about their grab game had daylight drilled through their anatomy by a 7 shooter they would receive little sympathy and the man behind the gun should be presented with a premium and a pound of tea for the lesson practically taught. We do not advocate taking the law into your own hand, but we do believe a man has the right to defend himself and his belongings when assailed by a lazy, reckless fellow who has no regard for life or limb so long as he secures your valuables without your consent. Sometimes it is a good thing to give a doze of their own medicine in return and that without wasting much time in feeling his pulse or taking his temperature.—Brussels Post.
