THE BRITISH LEAGUE. WE think it was LAMARTINE who observed that the " revolutions of the human mind are slow, like he eras of the life of Nations." The present peaceful revolution through which the inhabitants of this country are passing, is a proof of the accuracy of the apothegm of the poet-statesman. Those who believe that the movement which has een commenced in Canada is a mere flash, a momentary ebulition of feeling caused by the out- may refute, not by noise and clamor, but by fact Ferriers Stores, this day, (Tuesday.) We underrage of the Indemnity Bill, are very short-sighted ; so blind that they cannot read the signs of the times. There has always been an Annexation in the Convention, it is a mere cheat, becaus party in Canada, though it was certainly not to be thousands of those who elected the delegates some discovered in the precise quarter where it has now months ago, are now decided Annexationists, and, shown itself. It would not be difficult to prove therefore, in putting down the discussion, the Conting treasures from the deep, or bearing the that this party has been gradually gaining strength; us one from the modern El Dorado. Such that it has been by degrees winning over to its nameree, in the hands of so enterprising a race, is the bands of so enterprising a race, is devely many sensible men, whose reason is con-bits itself in all the incurries and elegancies of must be better for Canada than political connec-in with spacious mirrors, paintings, and the model of so enterprising a race, with spacious mirrors, paintings, and the better for Canada than political connec-ing with spacious mirrors, paintings, and the hydraret of the sum assem-bits interview of the second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the second ry so far off as Great Britain, the model of a second ry so far off as Great Britain, the second ry so far off a mts, are grouped though practically the difficulties of obtaining that independence must be enormous, and, perhaps, im-possible. We firmly believe that there are thouands of persons in Canada perfectly convinced that, for a new country, Republicanism is the best form of government, but their feelings overpowering their interests and their convictions, will not allow them to join with those who believe indeendence desirable and practicable. The converts to this belief have rapidly reased in number since the fatal step taken by England, of determining to make no distinction in commer.e between the Colonies and Foreign Countries. That event has but hastened desires which have been germinating for many years in the hearts of a very large number of the people. The advocates for Annexation are not so simple as to believe that the strong cords connecting this country with England are to be snapped in a mor that Annexation to the United States can be the work of a day. But they do argue that the time come for the Canadian people to decide on some course whereby the country may be delivered for ever from its intestine feuds, and those continual ommercial fluctuations that bring ruin and deso lation into so many happy homes.

There is not one man, we will venture to say at least we never met with one, or heard of one, either in Canada, England, or the United States but will acknowledge that at some time or other this country must form a part of the great North American Confederation. We know that some of American Confederation. English statesmen have not hesitated to express the same opinion in their places in Parlia and it has been declared, time and again, by the most influential journals of the Mother Country, friends in the Free States.

The season has passed away when politica Five and twenty years ago GEORGE CANNING' told Mr. Russ, that in a quarter of a century England would be prepared to cede to the United States all her North American possessions : that all her policy was regulated with a view to that philosophical spirit of a more enlightened era.

If the Convention is honest, and not a mere party electioneering organization of the Quis against the Ins, as many of the Upper Canada Delegates tried to make it, and Mr. Murney especially, let them adopt a Petition to the Queen, and plainly tell her, like honest men, that Free Trade and Colonies cannot exist together, and that unless Eng land is prepared to restore protection, the Colony is resolved to abandon the connection. There would be some manliness in this. The course of the League must be narrowly watched. HIGHLY IMPORTANT FROM VERMONT.

Our readers are aware that during one of the Conventions or Caucus meetings of the Vermont nembers, the Annexation movement in Canada stracted their notice, and elicited an expression opinion. Since then the subject was formally brought before the House by Resolution las Friday. In the Lower House, which consists of upward

On the other hand, there are a few journalists who are inclined to give the morecnent party at Montreal a fair opportunity of staing their case and the arguments which may be adduced in favor of it. This latter course we deem the most pru-dent, as well as expedient. The general tone of the American Press shews a disposition for non-interference with our domes-tic concerns whilst we continue a dependency of Great Britain. One thing we think all parties will admit, and that is, that the introductory dis-cussion of the subject of Annexation through the Press has tended to hasten a crisis, and to awaken the public mind throughout this continent to an examination into our alledged causes of distress and dissatiafiction. What are the leaders of the Annexation move-ment in Monsreal doing 1 Have they only scared up the fox and left the chase for others to run down the game 1 Having commenced, the agita-tion, it is incumbent on them to devise some plan for ultimately carrying out their views. The friends of Annexation in the Townships are look-ing to Montreal to see the commencement of an organization, to concentrate and embedy public Montreal, 29th Oct. 1839. friends of Annexation in the Townships are toos-ing to Montreal to see the commonsiment of an organization, to concentrate and embady public opinion on the subject throughout the Province. Nobody suppose that at present there is a majo-rity in the Province who are willing to come out and openly avow themselves in favour of Annexa-tion. The wonder is that the feeling in its favor that an under the program as is publicly manihas made so much progress as is publicly mani-fisted. The arguments in favour of the mea-aure have scarcely reached the mass of the poo-ple. What is most needed at present is organize-tion for the purpose of disseminating light on the subject. Ansexation is not, like French tion for the purpose of deseminating light on the subject. Ansecution is not, like French revolutions, a three days job, or to be accom-pliabed by a movement in a single city. The work must be prosecuted sainly, perseveringly, and above all, passently - Sterbrook Constit.
