Mayor Said
Ald. Spencer: "There was a little loophole open and the City Council got a crack."

Mayor Hartman: "They said up at the police court the license had been taken in exchange, 139 Market St., Bran- tford."

Ald. Spence: "If it came about in the right way, if we had been called up, I would have been willing to do it. I had the matter straightened up amicably. If they throw it down the gauntlet to me, I'll take it up. Let them go to it. If they fine a man again who has a license we'll refund the fine."

Mr. H. S. Hewitt explained that at one of his, who had been driven out of the market for selling peanuts had complained to him. The result was a case in court against Campbell and when it was called it was an- nounced that neither defendant or lawyer would appear to testify. Accord- ingly a decision was given.

The Mayor: "My time was occu- pied at a civic committee meeting. It was just as valuable as that of the J.M. or Chief of Police. They could have adjourned the case in or- der to hear from me."

Thereupon the report was carried and the defendant got his fine back.
