THE PROBS

TORONTO, June 12.—The shallow barometric depression which was near Lake Michigan yesterday has passed to the St. Lawrence Valley and the western high pressure is now spreading across the great lakes. Showers have occurred pretty generally in northern Ontario and a few more southerly points in the western provinces. Elsewhere the weather has been fine and dry.

Forecasts. Fresh northwest winds, fine and cooler. Saturday fine and comparatively cool.

Nuptial Notes

AVEY—WHITE. One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at 10 Murray St. this afternoon, when Miss Ella Delphine White, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. White, became the bride of Mr. Roy Harrison Avey of Toronto, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Avey, Los Angeles, formerly of Brantford. At the appointed hour the bride entered the drawing room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, leaning on the arm of her father, wearing a beautiful gown of white brocade satin, trimmed with real lace. The long veil caught up with orange blossoms looked charming. The bride's bouquet consisted of white roses and lilies of the valley. Rev. C. W. Rose officiated.

The bridegroom, Miss Aileen Clements, cousin of the bride, wore a beautiful gown of hand embroidered organdie over shadow lace, her cap of dainty white lace, trimmed with tiny rosebuds; she carried a large shower bouquet of marguerites.

Little Edith White made a pretty little flower girl carrying a basket of sweet peas and yellow roses.

The bride's mother looked very becoming in golden brown satin.

The groom was supported by Mr. O. R. White, brother of the bride.

Mrs. R. W. Rastall, (nee Miss Edna Bier), in her able manner presided at the piano. After the ceremony Mendelssohn's wedding march was played.

During the signing of the register, Miss Carrie Corke sang evry sweetly "Love's Birthday."

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pendant set with whole pearls; to the bridesmaid a pearl necklace. The best man, gold cuff links.

The popular young people were the recipients of many magnificent gifts.

The bride, going away costume was a blue brocade suit, trimmed with white corded silk, with chic black hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Avey left on the 6 o'clock G. T. R. train amid showers of confetti and good wishes for New York, Boston and Atlantic City.

The guests from out of town, present were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gibson, Miss Annie Banfield, Mr. Harry Banfield, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. F. Oremus, Mr. and Mrs. G. Oremus, Mr. and Mrs. F. Banwell, Mrs. Holder, Mrs. McNamee, Mr. and Mrs. Barton, Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. David White, Mr. and Mrs. Yager, Lynville; Mrs. H. White, Mrs. B. Clements, Hamilton; Mrs. Robert Mulligan, Vancouver.

Women Are In Session

CHICAGO, June 12.—A demonstration in favor of women suffrage was planned to-day by its advocates in the general federation of women's clubs that was expected to enforce its endorsement by the biennial convention in session here. Although the resolution committee must pass upon any question before it can be acted upon by the convention as a whole, it was planned that a demand in resolutions committee to pass such a resolution, would be carried by such an impressive majority that compliance could not be refused.

A canvass of the entire convention has been made, it was said, by the Illinois delegates under direction of Mrs. George Wilbur Trout, president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association. The result, according to the report, was that a large majority desires that a federation endorse suffrage.

A letter written by Mr. O'Dell in connection with the transaction was made the basis for the action taken against him. As stated the grand jury dismissed the matter.

The statement to which Mr. Letellier takes exception is that he purchased the ties at forty-five cents from Mr. and Mrs. Martin, who sold them to the harbor commission at sixty cents each. Mr. Letellier contends that he bought them for the commission at the latter prices, sixty cents. Mr. L. T. Marchal, K. C., is appearing for the defendants.

Mr. Rivard, K. C., for Mr. Letellier and Chief Justice Lemieux, is hearing the case. The only witness heard at the afternoon session yesterday, was Mr. Renaud, secretary treasurer of the commission, who identified certain cheques which had been issued by the harbor board payable to Luc Marin and which had been endorsed "Luc Marin per N. Belanger." He identified the writing of these endorsements as that of N. Belanger, who was the accountant of Letellier. It was not to his personal knowledge that these ties had been purchased from Martin, these transactions coming within the scope of the purchasing department. Some time after the cheques had been sent to Martin, he discovered that some of the ties had been paid for twice and had written Marin to this effect asking him to return the amount paid in error. The reimbursement of the money was accompanied by a letter apparently written and signed by Luc Marin through the same Belanger who had endorsed the cheques.

MR. ROWELL STANDS BACK MAKING A GRAND STAND PLAY FOR FRENCH VOTES

Up to English Speaking Electors, Protestant and Roman Catholic, Declares Sentinel to Support Stand of the Whitney Government.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)
TORONTO, June 12.—That there is an issue of vastly more importance before the electors of Ontario to-day than that of temperance or of tax reform is the assertion made in The Orange Sentinel of this week. This question is whether the language of this province is to be English or French. In other words, whether Ontario is to be preserved as an English-speaking province.

The Sentinel refers to the legislation passed by the Whitney Government. These regulations insist upon the English language as the language of the schools of Ontario. It shows that the government has been anxious to deal with the question in a considerate manner, but that it has maintained a policy of English for Ontario.

The Sentinel goes on to say that the champions of French schools have not been satisfied and that they are in open antagonism to the government upon this issue. It says that the first duty of Ontario electors, Protestant and Roman Catholic, is to see that no excuse is given for the setting up of French schools such as will be able to claim vested rights in the province and thus become established.

Rowell Deliberately Leads French to Hope.

The Sentinel proceeds to say that the attitude of N. W. Rowell, the leader of the Opposition, "has been most disappointing." "He has declared himself," says "The Sentinel," "as favoring a thorough English education for all children of the province, but he has persistently refused to pass judgment on the bilingual regulations and has deliberately led the French to hope that they will get more consideration from him than from the present government."

The Sentinel says that if Mr. Rowell refuses to go on record in a manly, straightforward way that he is unworthy of respect as a public man. His attitude it says is not one that inspires enthusiasm on the part of the champions of the English language nor confidence in the ability of the Liberal leader to carry out his policy in other particulars.

The Sentinel says the bilingual question has reached a critical stage, and that the electors should take no chances in the coming election. Every Anglo-Saxon, it says, should be on guard.

LIBEL SUIT AT MONTREAL CITY IS INTERESTING

One of Quebec Labor Commissioners is Suing the Montreal Star Co.

(From Our Own Correspondent)
QUEBEC, June 12.—Hearing was begun yesterday in the libel action which J. B. F. Letellier, one of the three Quebec harbor commissioners, has taken against the Montreal Star for the publication of a report of the proceedings against Ernest O'Dell, a lumber dealer early last year in connection with the purchase of a quantity of ties for use in the harbor works.

Mr. Letellier alleges that certain statements in connection with the proceedings which had been sent to the newspapers taking the service of the Canadian Press by the Quebec correspondent are libellous.

The complaint laid against Mr. O'Dell was dismissed by the grand jury. It arose out of a letter written in connection with the purchase of a number of ties for the Quebec harbor commission from Luc Martin, a dealer in lumber at Ste. Anne Des Monts.

Negotiations for the purchase of these ties had been proceeding between Mr. O'Dell and Martin on a basis of 45 cents per tie when the ties in question were disposed of through Mr. Letellier, who was then a harbor commissioner to the Quebec harbor commission at 60 cents each.

A letter written by Mr. O'Dell in connection with the transaction was made the basis for the action taken against him. As stated the grand jury dismissed the matter.

The statement to which Mr. Letellier takes exception is that he purchased the ties at forty-five cents from Mr. and Mrs. Martin, who sold them to the harbor commission at sixty cents each. Mr. Letellier contends that he bought them for the commission at the latter prices, sixty cents. Mr. L. T. Marchal, K. C., is appearing for the defendants.

Mr. Rivard, K. C., for Mr. Letellier and Chief Justice Lemieux, is hearing the case. The only witness heard at the afternoon session yesterday, was Mr. Renaud, secretary treasurer of the commission, who identified certain cheques which had been issued by the harbor board payable to Luc Marin and which had been endorsed "Luc Marin per N. Belanger." He identified the writing of these endorsements as that of N. Belanger, who was the accountant of Letellier. It was not to his personal knowledge that these ties had been purchased from Martin, these transactions coming within the scope of the purchasing department. Some time after the cheques had been sent to Martin, he discovered that some of the ties had been paid for twice and had written Marin to this effect asking him to return the amount paid in error. The reimbursement of the money was accompanied by a letter apparently written and signed by Luc Marin through the same Belanger who had endorsed the cheques.

Jesus and the Class Struggle
Dr. Carr Lectures To-night Upon How Christ Dealt With Poor and Rich.

At Victoria Hall To-night
 Rev. Dr. Edward Ellis Carr of Chicago, U.S.A., General Secretary of the Christian Socialist Fellowship, will deliver a lecture on "Jesus and the Class Struggle, or How Christ Dealt With the Poor and the Rich." This lecture is said to be rich with humor and pathos and full of startling facts and arguments. The admission is free, and both men and women are invited.

On Sunday morning Dr. Carr will speak on "Christ Against Mammonism" at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. On Sunday night he speaks at Colborne St. Methodist Church on "The Kingdom of God a Social State." On Monday night he lectures at the Alexandra Presbyterian Church on "The Mark of the Beast," a scientific, economic and convincing interpretation of the noted revelation.

The people are earnestly invited to attend all of these addresses.
