LATENT SAVAGERY

Revives in Two New South
Wales Aborigines.

They Slaughter Eleven Harmless
Whites and are Still at Large.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—An outbreak of latent savagery in two aboriginal blacks, who had lived for years in close association with whites, is reported from Sydney, N. S. W., by the steamer Mariposa. The outbreak resulted in the slaughter of eleven persons. At Breelong, in New South Wales, the Marabry family offended two natives, known as Governor and Underwood, who in revenge broke into the Marabry house, armed with tomahawks and war clubs. In the house were Mrs. Marabry, her two daughters, Grace and Hilda, her niece, Elsie Clark, Miss Kerse, who was a school teacher, and three boys—Perceat, aged 13, George, 12, and Albert, 9. Of these only the youngest two boys escaped by hiding. After butchering these defenseless people, the blacks fled across the country to the Queensland Mountains. At Gulong they killed Alex McKay and his wife; Mrs. O'Brien and her young child at Meruwa, and Kerrie Fitzpatrick, an old man, at Muldree. The police are unable to effect their capture.

BROKE HIS NECK

While Excited Over the News of His Sister's Death.

New York, Aug. 27.—Philip Corrigan, of this city, came to his death in Newark, N. J., early yesterday under peculiar circumstances. Corrigan's sister having died, he was awakened and informed of her death. Corrigan got up, and while still half asleep started to go down stairs. He tripped and fell down the whole flight. His neck was broken by the fall, and he was dead when picked up.

A SUNKEN SCHOONER.

She is Loaded With Valuable Copper and a Sailor Claims he Can Locate Her.

East Tawas, Mich., Aug. 27.—A sailor who has turned up here who claims to have been a member of a schooner which was lost on Saginaw bay with a cargo of copper many years ago. He claims that he can locate the vessel in 24 hours, but refuses to divulge her name or the date of her loss. He has gone to Bay City with the hope of interesting parties there in his story. His idea is apparently to get some one to furnish the ready funds for the wrecking boat and to share the results between them.

Hot water, if taken freely a half hour before bedtime, is one of the best possible cathartics in several cases of constipation, while it has a soothing effect upon the stomach and bowels.

WHERE ARE THOSE OYSTERS?
"I haven't yet heard of any large consignment of oysters arriving in the city," remarked "To" Arnold, first mate of the Outlook this morning. "Andrew Thompson with his usual enterprise has got in a big, second-hand, job lot which he will sell at a greatly reduced rate but there is just at present." There are people who would like to know what "To" means when he warbles in this strain. Is it an echo from the Erie boat race?

AT MR. MILLS' OLD HOME.
On Thursday, 16th, the old neighbors who lived at and around Palmyra held a social gathering at the old home of Hon. D. Mills, minister of justice, and had a very enjoyable time. Speeches were delivered by Hon. Mr. Mills and Dr. McCully, of Cedar Springs. Songs by Mrs. David Millington and Miss Hattie Eberly and by Walter Mills were highly appreciated. Music by the Palmyra brass band was much appreciated. The spread prepared by the ladies was something magnificent and it is sufficient to say that "the old neighbors" have not lost their faculties for doing full justice to the occasion.

NUN FELL IN LOVE

Brooding Over Her Troubles
Drove Her Insane

And She Jumped Overboard From a French Liner in Mid-ocean and Was Drowned.

New York, August 27.—The French line steamer L'Aquitaine, from Havre, had a death among the cabin passengers. Margaret Meehan, a former nun, committed suicide by jumping overboard at 5 a. m., on August 23. The alarm was quickly given, a boat lowered and the woman was picked up, but too late to restore her to consciousness. A Roman Catholic priest among the passengers performed the burial service over the remains, assisted by a number of other priests and nuns who were on board the ship. The body was committed to the sea. A passenger on board said that the deceased was a nun in a Roman Catholic institution in France and was disappointed for some reason, which he did not learn. On the voyage she brooded over troubles and became demented, which caused her to commit suicide. During the voyage Miss Meehan had confided to some of her fellow passengers that she had been a nun, but her love for a young man caused her to leave the convent. She felt she had betrayed her family. She said she was on her way to her brother, a priest located in Pennsylvania.

WHAT NOT TO SAY.

Do not say, "I can't eat." Take Hood's Sarsaparilla and say, "I am hungry all the time, and food never hurts me."

Never say to your friends that you are as tired in the morning as at night. If they happen to be sharp they will tell you Hood's Sarsaparilla cures that tired feeling.

Do not say, "My face is full of pimples." You are quite likely to be told by some one, "There's no need of that for Hood's Sarsaparilla cures pimples."

It is improper and unnecessary to say, "My health is poor and my blood is bad." Hood's Sarsaparilla will give you good blood, and good health will follow as a natural consequence.

JOHN HAS HIS FEARS

That Holes May Be Jolted in the New King Street Pavement.

Now that the citizens have ceased to kickabout the quality of the brick to be used for the King street pavement, many of them have turned their attention to discussing the ability of the King street bottom to hold up the pavement, and the heavy traffic over it.

Although Overseer Stockton, says that King street is as hard as any has ever yet worked on, there are plenty to be found who are unwilling to accept the opinion of the expert.

"Why," said Add. John Liddy this morning, "in four or five years that pavement will be broken through in a dozen places. They should level the street down and roll it well now, then it should be left that way all winter, with occasional rollings. In spring the earth will have settled down well and that will be the proper time to lay the pavement."

"I think you are all wrong," said Banker W. E. Merritt. "Those who are everlastingly croaking about the bungling of that pavement, make me tired. The men who are beating the job say that the street is in fine condition, and they ought to know more about it than those who don't even know what kind of earth composes the road-bed."

TORONTO'S ALL CANADA

EXHIBITION.

"Educational and entertaining. Aggressive and progressive," are the very appropriate watch-words adopted by the Toronto Industrial Exhibition this year, which will be held from August 27th to September 8th. This is the twenty-second successive year of Canada's great Exposition at Toronto, and each year has not only seen an improvement in the arrangements as compared with the years that have gone, but the quality of the stock is very far ahead of what it was at the beginning, thus proving the inestimable value of Fairs such as that held annually at Toronto. It is an old story to say that the exhibition immediately approaching will be superior to all its predecessors, but it can safely be said that arrangements have been made, and negotiations are pending, that warrant the statement that the Toronto Fair of 1900 will fully maintain the reputation it has gained of being the best of all that are annually held. A good deal of the space has already been taken up, and a number of entries have been made, but there are so many divisions comprised in the prize list, with its 131 classes and $35,000 in premiums, that there is ample provision for all; and, taking of those divisions, it is interesting to note that there are no fewer than 55 in class 128, knitting, shirts, quilts, cloths, etc.; 354 in class 54, poultry; and an average of 16 or 17 in each of the two dozen classes devoted to horses and cattle. This will give some idea not only of the scope of Toronto's Great Exposition, but also of the opportunities offered to secure a prize. It is a little early to refer to what is promised in the way of entertainment, but when it is stated that $30,000 is spent annually on this department, visitors have ample guarantee that they will be abundantly provided for, and the admission to the Toronto Exhibition with its myriads of attractions is only 25c. Entries close on August 4th, and prize lists can be had by addressing H. J. Hill, Manager Industrial Exhibition, Toronto. As last year, so this, the exhibition will be inaugurated on Tuesday evening, August 28th, with a brilliant Military Tattoo. Reduced rates will be given to those who visit the exhibition on all lines of travel.
