MARKETS and FINANCE

Thursday, January 9.—There was a large market this morning, but Tuesday's prices held all morning. There was a large supply of meat in, and the buyers were slow to come out and the sale was good. Butter and eggs remained the same as they have been for some time. Vegetables were a little scarcer than usual, but the frost kept the farmers from bringing them in. Apples are plentiful, and there is a big range of quality and price. Hay and straw were both a little cheaper than they have been for some time, which will be welcome news for city horse owners.

UNEXPECTED DEATH. Estimable Hamilton Lady Passed Away at Stratford.

Miss Emily Chilman, superintendent of the Stratford General Hospital, and a former resident of this city, passed away in Stratford last evening after a short illness of a week's duration. Miss Chilman came to this city on New Year's Day for the purpose of visiting her mother, Mrs. I. C. Chilman, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. McCullough, 29 Charlton avenue west, and on her return journey on Thursday evening, suffered a chill. It later developed into a very severe form of grip, under which she gradually sank. Mrs. McCullough received word on Monday that Miss Chilman was ill, but did not go to Stratford until Wednesday. She arrived in time to be at the bedside before the deceased passed away. Miss Chilman was of a very affable and generous disposition. She leaves her mother, two sisters, Mrs. W. J. Aitchison, and Mrs. H. H. Laing, and one brother, R. E. Chilman, all of this city. A short service will be held in Stratford, and the remains will be brought here for interment. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon from the residence of her sister, Mrs. M. McCullough, 92 Charlton avenue west.

Mrs. A. J. Anthony an old and esteemed resident of this city, passed away at her late residence, 218 Picton street east, at the age of 74 years. Her husband predeceased her some years ago. One son, A. H. Anthony, survives. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Eliza Guthrie, for the past twenty years a faithful member of the Salvation Army of this city, passed away at the City Hospital, at an early hour this morning, after an illness of two weeks' duration. She had always been prominent in the Army work. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon from her late residence, 126 Florence street, to the Citadel, where a public service will be held. The entire corps will turn out.

The funeral of John W. Sinclair took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of his son, 28 William street, and was largely attended. Rev. John Young conducted the services, and the pallbearers were W. R. Leckie, E. Bowers, T. Bradley, B. Anderson, A. Main and J. Will. The floral tributes included St. Andrew's Church, John Lyne, crescent grandchildren; cycle, grandchildren; ancestor, brother; sheath, grandchildren; Mrs. J. Hobbs; sprays, Mrs. G. McLeod, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. C. Burns, Miss Ada Hill, Mr. and Mrs. T. Bradley, and Mrs. R. M. Cline.

The funeral of Mrs. Catharine Sullivan took place this morning from her late residence, 133 Young street, to St. Patrick's Church, where the services were conducted by the Rev. J. G. McLeod. The pallbearers were C. Doyle, D. Sullivan, J. Ford, J. Foley, J. McMahon and A. Minahan.

Many friends in Hamilton will regret the death of Mrs. Taylor, widow of the late Mr. Howard Taylor, of Liverpool, England, which took place at her late residence, 48 Isabella street, Toronto, this morning. Mrs. Taylor was a sister of Mrs. Wm. Carey of this city, a most estimable lady, and her death will cause much sorrow. The body will be brought here for interment, the funeral, which will be private, taking place from Mrs. Carey's residence.

STEELE'S FUNERAL. London, Ont., Jan. 9.—The body of Peter Steele, traveling chairman of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, who died at St. Luke's Hospital, Ottawa, Tuesday night, as a result of having his legs cut off by a C. P. R. passenger train at Carleton Place, arrived here from Ottawa this morning. The funeral will take place at the grave, the pallbearers being C. Doyle, D. Sullivan, J. Ford, J. Foley, J. McMahon and A. Minahan.

SKATING PARTIES. These parties held at the regular evening sessions are quite the popular idea now and at the Alexander Hotel (the place where the nice people go) there was one of the first of the season last night. There were about fifty young people in the party, and after enjoying themselves to the fullest extent, skating to the strains of the fine band, the party of twelve numbers, they returned to the home of one of the young ladies for refreshments and a little dance. There is a large private party from out of town for Friday night, when there will be skating. (C. S. R. M. and lots of other skating numbers and lots of other opportunity for fun in the leap year programme. The lemon race to-night will be a laugh-producer.)

RIOT AND TORCH. Shanghai, Jan. 9.—Rioters at Kia Hsing Fu, a town in the province of Che Kiang, have burned the Protestant chapel and school there. The official residence of the local magistrate also was destroyed. The foreigners at Kia Hsing Fu are safe. There has been considerable unrest recently in this province, but the disorders have been directed principally against the Chinese dynasty.

LIVE STOCK LOST. Petrolia, Ont., Jan. 9.—About twelve o'clock last night the barn belonging to Mr. Thomas Montgomery, farmer, about two miles from here, was totally destroyed by fire. Mr. Montgomery lost 21 head of cattle, five horses, grain, farm implements, etc. The cause of the fire is unknown.

TO BE JUDGE. Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 9.—(Special)—Calixte Lehouk, K. C., who represented the Province of Quebec before the Insurance Commission, is to be appointed circuit court judge in Montreal, in succession to the late Judge Champagne.

CLAIMANT FOR $75,000. George Horton Morris has just reached England to prosecute claim for the vast Page estates, which is said to have an area of sixty square miles, lying north and west of the Marble Arch, in the city of London, and including about a third of the county of Middlesex, whole suburbs of London and some parts of rural Hertfordshire. Like G. H. Druce, who claims the Portland estate, he comes from Australia, but he was born in Stepney, sixty-three years ago. He has been sailor, gold miner, hotel manager, manager of a woolen business and Sydney manager of Maconochie's, the famous Yarmouth fish firm.

An Abyssinian Hotel. A hotel has been built at Addis Abeba by the Empress of Abyssinia, and to inaugurate it the Emperor Menelik himself presided at a banquet given for the diplomatic body, sitting for the first time as a European at a European meal. This is perhaps one of the most astonishing things in an astonishing world, and shows how things have changed even since Lord Napier, of Magdala, went up to the town from which he took his title just forty years ago. Not so very long ago we used to hear of the banquets which the Abyssinians made of raw flesh, and there was a wooden in an old book which represents the chiefs sitting around a cow and carving steaks off the placid animal, which apparently walked about from table to table for the purpose.

Mr. Alexander Noble, principal of Noble's Detective Agency, died at the Western Hospital, Toronto, on Wednesday. It is understood Germany is willing to give France and Spain a free hand in Morocco provided the open door there is not disturbed.
