Wesleyan Academy. Mount Allison, Sackville, N. B. PRINCIPAL.—The Rev. HUMPHREY PICKARD, A. M. CHAPLAIN.—The Rev. ALBERT DEDBURY. TREASURER.—CHARLES F. ALLISON, Esq. STEWARD.—MR. THOMPSON THURMAN.

THIS Institution will continue to be conducted on the same principles which have rendered it so generally popular, and secured for it such extensive patronage from almost every part of the Province. It has now been opened and is successful operation upwards of nine years. The arrangements which were made to accomplish the important object for which it had been founded, were such as obtained for it from its very commencement, a very high position in the public estimation. And those, upon whom the direction of its affairs has devolved, have been encouraged and stimulated by its prosperity, to continued efforts to render it, in all its departments, ever increasingly efficient. Every year in its history has consequently been marked by valuable additions to its educational facilities, and by more or less extensive general improvements throughout the Establishment.

THE attention of young men and of parents and guardians of youth is, therefore, respectfully invited to it, as an Institution, where the advantages of a thorough intellectual training, may be obtained in safety and comfort, and under most favorable circumstances.

THE GREAT BRITISH QUARTERLIES, AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE. LEONARD SCOTT & CO., No. 54 GOLD ST., NEW YORK.

CONTINUE TO PUBLISH THE FOLLOWING BRITISH PERIODICALS, viz: THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, (Conservative.) THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, (Whig.) THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, (Free Church.) THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal.)

AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE, (Tory.) THESE Reviews have been successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class, and from the numerous Ecclesiastical and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood's will under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintain its ancient celebrity, and in, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Captain" and "The New Novel" (both by Bulwer), "My Penitential Meditations," "The Green Hand," and other series, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott and Co., so that Subscribers to the Review of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS. For any one of the four Reviews, $5 00 For any two of the four Reviews, 9 00 For any three of the four Reviews, 12 00 For all four of the Reviews, 16 00 For Blackwood's Magazine, 3 00 For Blackwood and three Reviews, 9 00 For Blackwood and the four Reviews, 10 00
