GLASGOW, To-day.

Co-operation as the basis of the ideal state of the future was the keynote of the address of Earl Grey at the opening of the Congress of the International Co-operative Alliance here yesterday. Co-operation would put a barrier against the tyranny of the trusts, he said, and would reconcile the warring force of labor and capital. Six hundred delegates were present, representing Co-operative American and European societies. Earl Grey's views enunciated with much fervor, were warmly applauded. He declared the application of the Co-operative principle in the industrial life of Britain, the States, France, Germany, Denmark, and Ireland were proved by the substitution of organized distribution for unorganized distribution, co-operative buying for individual buying, cooperative transportation and marketing for industrial selling and cooperative use of power. Co-operative use of machines, the waste of both producer and consumer could thereby be met more effectively, and to the consumer a reduction in the cost of living, and a greater command not only of necessities but of comforts and conveniences of life, and to the producer a substantial increase in amount of net profits available for distribution which meant an increased fund from which alone could be drawn high wages, all of which are desired for the underpaid workers of the civilized world. The remarkable growth of the Co-operative movement justified the confident expectation that the day of a new social order was at hand. Although the delegates might be separated by differences of races, language and religion, they had met as one people under the flag of a Co-operative fraternity, carrying in their hearts the same motto, "Each for all and all for each."

LONDON, To-day.
Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, says he is going to appear in public music halls, where he is billed for a two-days test to find out if the public want to show; if they do he will fill his engagement. The pugilist entered the box last night of a Theatre of Varieties and was loudly cheered. Two performers who had taken a prominent part against Johnson in the controversy that has been waged over his promised appearance were unable to finish their turns, owing to a demonstration in favor of Johnson.

Will Morison Deny He Used Those Words?

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—It seems that John Alex.
Robinson and Patsy McGrath, as well as Sir Edward Morris have got to be taught the lesson that they shall not treat the people with contempt or buffoonery.
Now that Sir Edward Morris knows the sentiments which Donald Morison holds towards Roman Catholics, what is he going to do about it?
The he sucker Morison to his breast and deal out pigish cartoons?
Or will he tell us it is perfectly ridiculous to think that Morison meant what he said?
When Mr. Conker was charged with sectarianism by the "Daily News" and Patsy McGrath's Herald he treated the matter seriously and furnished proof in denial.
The "Daily News" writer "More Anon" quoted Morison's own words, and opinions about Roman Catholics, the only answer that the Morison organization is a pigish cartoon. Will Morison deny he used these words?
Is he going to let Buffoonery be his answer?
Because if he is there are lots of protestants as well as Catholics who will want to know the reason why.
The "Daily News" keeps preaching us about Sir Edward Morris's principles. Now is the time for him to show them—if he has any. What will Sir Edward Morris do or say to the Honourable Forgetful Morison?
Wait and see.

Yours truly, VOTER.

MEXICO, To-day.

President Wilson's personal representative, John Lind, will leave the Mexican capital to-day, proceeding to Vera Cruz. Lind called on Foreign Minister Gamboa yesterday, to say good bye, but there was nothing in their conversation regarding the resumption of negotiations or to indicate that Mexico would recede from its position. It is expected that William Bagshaw Hall, who has been in Mexico City in an official capacity, will accompany Lind, or leave soon afterward. Rumors persist that General Treviño who has been summa-ried to the Capital to become Provisional President, but confirmation is lacking of this report. It is offset by another that General Huerta has called out most of the retired officers and many of those report for duty. General Felix Diaz, who is on his way to Japan as special Mexican Ambassador, is also said to have received a summons to return to the capital.

Boy Gypsies Stole Found After 17 Years.

Special to Evening Telegram.

Know Only His Name was Fred, But Aunt, First, and Then Parents Identified Him.

Watertown, N.Y., August 20.—Fred Brosseau, twenty-four, who was kidnapped by gypsies nearly seventeen years ago, has been restored to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brosseau, of Sissonville, St. Lawrence County, N.Y., who had long mourned him as dead.

On October 14th, 1896, young Brosseau left home to meet his father at the edge of the village. That was the last seen of the boy in Sissonville.

About a week ago a young man deserted from a band of gypsies in the Canadian wilds, and took refuge with the monks of Oka, whose isolated monastery is forty miles from Montreal. He could remember nothing of his history previous to becoming a member of the band, except that he had been called Fred and that his former home was in Northern New York.

The presence of the wanderer was reported by the monks to the Montreal police, and an aunt of the young man recognized his picture in a newspaper. The parents were notified and went to Montreal, where they positivly identified Brosseau by a birthmark.
He is being detained by the police as a witness against some of the gypsies who are under arrest charged with kidnapping.

Algerians Feting British Squadron.

Philippeville, Algeria, August 21.— A telegram received in Paris states that the British squadron, composed of the battleship Inflexible, and the cruisers Dartmouth and Hussar, and nine torpedo boat destroyers are visiting this port. The British vice-consul has paid an official visit to the vessels, and the Anglo-Maltese consul is preparing a round of entertainments for the officers and crews.

REACHED BOTWOOD.—The A. N.
Co's steamer Parthenia arrived at Botwood yesterday from Glasgow, bringing 2,000 tons of coal, 20 tons of general cargo and six passengers.

AMBULANCE SUMMONED.—The ambulance was hurriedly summoned to Cabot Street this morning, and conveyed to Hospital a resident suffering from acute appendicitis. The patient will be operated on this afternoon.

The Furness Liner Tobasco, Capt.
Yeomans, reached port at eight o'clock this morning, after a two days passage from Halifax, bringing 100 tons of cargo. She sails again at daylight to-morrow morning for Liverpool, taking an outward freight of fish and passengers Messrs. Fraser and Smith.

CRICKET FOR CHARITY.—Tomorrow afternoon a cricket match will take place on St. George's Field the competing teams will be the Feldians and a picked city eleven.
A good exhibition is being looked forward to, as some excellent wicket-keepers of the bat will take part. The proceeds of the match will be devoted to St. Michael's Orphanage.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURE
COLD, ETC.

A Denial.

Editor, The Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—In your issue of yesterday under the somewhat disgusting heading of "Swallowing the vomit," you make editorial reference to a letter which you publish from a correspondent under the signature of "More Anon." In this letter your anonymous correspondent asks what you are pleased to call in a large-type headline "A few pertinent questions for Morison."

As you know I have neither time nor inclination to give attention to anonymous writers, and evidently "More Anon" is so ashamed of his production that he is not willing to put his name to it. At the same time I am always ready to give a reason for the hope that is in me, and if "More Anon" will put his name to his next letter he will find me quite ready to answer any "pertinent" questions which I may consider of interest to him or myself or the general public.

In the meantime let me say that I am not the writer of the letter signed "Watchman" in the Evening Herald.
I was not aware that there was such a letter until your correspondent called my attention to it. I read it for the first time this morning. Your correspondent is entirely mistaken in "attributing" this letter to me.
Also let me say that the disgusting expression which you set as the heading for your editorial article is not one of my "stock phrases."

Yours truly,
DONALD MORISON.

Window Smashing.

This morning Messrs. T. A. Macnab & Co. found that the large plate of glass in their sample room door had been broken out during the night. It is supposed that the guilty party was after the Fry's Chocolate samples, which Messrs. Macnab have in this room.
These delicious chocolates are becoming so popular that one needs more than plate glass to protect them! We understand, however, that all the best grocers stock these fine chocolates and that they are sold at really very moderate prices considering the high quality, so no one should smash windows to get them.

Rowing.

Rowing is a form of muscular exercise which rewards some of its devotees with handsome colored sails and outriggers with large, pink cas-houses. It is very much in use at parks and summer resorts, and on a hot day can hardly be told from any other kind of manual labour.

There are various kind of rowing, the most popular of which is the sprint race, in which the rowers start from an inland sea bounded on the north by the roller coasters, and on the west by fifty-seven various of pastoral spooning. This is a cheap and enjoyable form of navigation, by means of which a pretty girl with the love light beaming from her cent shirtwaist can be propelled from the casino to the bowery dance and back again by a radiant vision of a pompadour and duck pants who not only but a few buoyant bluffs.

The common people do most of the rowing in a deadly weapon known the rowboat, which slays its thousands every year by turning overboard and depositing its contents several feet of water. The average rowboat has no keel, safety valve, sense of direction, and can change its course faster than a civil service employee can change his politics. The rowboat is the author of a graceful form of delirium entitled "catching crab," by which an earnest sculler of miles the water altogether and then over backward and insert a boat shoulderblades in the fried chicken and deviled eggs.

Given the right kind of compass rowing becomes one of the most hand-raising diversions outside of lighting the kitchen range with gasoline. Nothing is more exciting than to sit in knock-kneed attitude in the stern of rowboat and attempt to chain places with somebody who insists on climbing out on the oarlocks and balancing himself on one foot. The we have always with us the personal humorist who is not deterred by the high death rate or the sage-ness of the corner's jury, and who tucks the boat with his mouth wide open and his mental processes of general and protracted strike.
