

The Lincoln Monument.

The handsome marble monument which a grateful nation has raised to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, the martyred President, over his remains in Springfield cemetery, was unveiled on Thursday with becoming ceremonies. Over 25,000 persons assembled to witness the simple proceedings; and among the notabilities were President Grant, several cabinet officers, General Sherman at the head of the members of the society of the Army of the Tennessee, many prominent officers of the American Army, Sir J. Fowell Buxton, M.P., and Mr. W. G. Foster, M.P., England, also the only surviving son and sister of Mr. Lincoln.

After an eloquent address by ex-Governor Oglesby, of Illinois, the monument was unveiled in presence of the assembled multitude, whose profound silence gave evidence of the emotion they felt. President Grant then stepped forward and in a few sentences truthfully sketched the character of his illustrious predecessor. He closed his remarks by saying: "From March, 1864, to the day when the hand of an assassin opened a grave for Mr. Lincoln, then President of the United States, my personal relations with him were as close, as intimate as the nature of our respective duties would permit. To know him personally was to love and respect him for his great qualities of head and heart, and for his patience and patriotism. With all his disappointments from failures on the part of those to whom he entrusted command, and treachery on the part of those who gained his confidence but to betray it, I never heard him utter a complaint, or cast a censure upon any man. It was his nature to find excuses for his adversaries. In his death the nation lost its greatest head. In his death the South lost its most just friend."

We cannot refrain from quoting the following just tribute to the memory of Mr. Lincoln from the New York Tribune:—

"His tomb is a large, handsome and stately structure, overlooking a green valley and hillside, filled with the graves of the friends and neighbors, who saw Lincoln going in and out among them for thirty years, who learned to honor and love him day by day, and to whom he turned, in the solemn hour of his last departure from Springfield, to ask their prayers for Divine assistance in his heavy task. It is altogether fitting that his bones should lie there as long as the inexorable laws of nature will permit. But for his glory, monuments and processions can do very little. The most brilliant array of official visitors is eclipsed by the simple grandeur of the now almost mythical figure, which has grown up in the hearts of the people of the hero and martyr, who, as they believe, saved our liberties when they were imperiled, and gave freedom to those that were in bondage. The world is rapidly outgrowing monuments. It is hard to decide who merits them, of those who obtained them. But it may safely be asserted that no man conquers the love of Christendom without merit. Lincoln has become a myth and type of ideal democracy in every country on the earth where the history of our wars is read, and where the masses are working for a better future. Every one blesses him now, less than ten years after his death."

The Hon Mr. McKellar has decided to remain by his Bothwell friends, and be a candidate for that constituency at next election.

At the Reform Convention at North Williamsburgh, on Saturday, Mr. S. S. Cook, M.P.P., received a unanimous nomination to represent Dundas County in the Local House.

At a large and influential meeting of the Reformers of the West Riding of Northumberland, held at Cobourg on Saturday, Mr. Kerr, (who was lately unseated), received a unanimous nomination as candidate for the representation of that constituency in the House of Commons.

THE SOUTHERN EXTENSION.—The prospects for the opening of this Railway seem to be darker than ever. We are informed on the best authority, and our information has been confirmed by a telegram which the Lucknow Sentinel says Col. McGivern, President of the Company, has sent to the Reeve of that village, that the recently elected Board of Directors of the Great Western Railway have refused to accept the offer of the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Company with regard to the opening of the Branch to Kincardine. What will now be done we cannot pretend to say. There seems to be a deadlock between the Company and the Great Western Directors, and unless the Legislature take some action in the matter, we see no chance of the road being opened.

THE BROWN LIME SUITS.—Hon. George Brown's action for libel against the proprietors of the Sarnia Canadian was tried at Brantford on Saturday before Mr. Justice Strong. Mr. John Hillyard Cameron in his opening speech stated that his client did not seek heavy money damages but a verdict by the jury that the infamous libel complained of was uttered without foundation. Mr. Van Norman, counsel for the defendants, said his clients regretted as much as any one the publication of the matter complained of in their paper, and had they been applied to, for an apology before the action was brought, they would have given one. The jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff, damages $50. The excuse put forward by the defendants, that they would have made an apology if it had been asked for, is a very paltry one. Had they felt a desire to make full reparation for the injury done, they would have published their apology immediately after Mr. Brown's denial of the fabrication and without waiting to be asked for an apology.

CONDUCT OF CIRCUSMEN.—A

travelling party took place on Thursday night, at Tavistock, between some men connected with Cole's Circus and some of the inhabitants of that place. No fewer than eight of the citizens received severe injuries. Steel truncheons appear to have been used, and one man was stabbed in three places. One man had his ears bitten off. He is recovering, though for a time it was supposed that life was extinct. He was pounded, cut and bitten in such a fearful manner that he could scarcely be recognized as a human being. No arrests have yet been made, although the proprietor of the circus offered to do all his power to further the ends of justice.

COUNTY OF WATERLOO TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—This association met at Berlin, on Saturday, 10th inst. The weather being very unfavorable, there were only a few members present. It is proposed in future to have half-yearly meetings of two days each, instead of the present quarterly meetings. The January meeting will be held for two days, and it is proposed to secure the services of an able lecturer for the evening of the first day.

OWNERS OF HORSES

Who wish to have their horses' feet kept in good condition for travelling should give me a trial, as I devote my whole time and attention to this branch of business. Nothing but horse shoeing is done in my shop. This enables me from my long experience in this branch to do horse shoeing superior and quicker than can be done in shops where all kinds of jobs are done. Horse shoeing should be left entirely to itself.

Thanking my customers for their very liberal support since commencing business I hope by strict attention to my business to have a liberal share of public patronage.

I am, Yours Respectfully, D. MCKENZIE, Woolwich St. Guelph, Oct. 14, 1874. dhw-stw
