Buildings Only A Shell
In opening the speaker remarked on the high quality of many of the buildings which were being erected in the west for educational purposes. He congratulated the people on such enterprise and yet he urged them to look on the buildings merely as a shell and ask themselves what this shell contained. The building itself was not a thing of any importance. It was the teacher inside the shell that mattered for the teacher and the pupils made up the school alone.

" Got Some Hard Knocks. Got Some Hard Knocks.

It was barely ten minutes later that he turned and saw the man running across the open field with many people following hard on him. He fell struck with a stone and the crowd got up to him and took hold of him though he got some pretty rough treatment till the policeman took him out of the care of the men who had given chase. No one knew that the girl was dead or where she was till they came back, from the chase and it was only then that the body was found in the basement of the shack.

Only Here Three Months.

The father and mother of the young child, so foully murdered, were terribly stricken when seen at their home last evening. Neither is much out of the teens and the robbing of their young girl has deeply affected them. With tear stained cheeks and eyes all red with crying the father told his simple tale in the broken English which he could command last evening. He has been but three months in the country having come from Hanover in Germany. This first blow in the land which he thought would be the land of hope and promise is a severe one for him to bear and it was all in vain that some of his compatriots who have been longer here assured him that they had been here for six and ten years and never seen or heard anything of the sort. The mother was more prostrate still and could neither see or speak to any one last evening. There are a large number of Germans in this settlement across the river and indignation ran high amongst them last evening and what would have been the fate of Dionne, had it been known that he had killed the little girl before he was caught, is not very easy to understand.

We are placing the original townsite on the market, and, as is our usual policy, the prices are on such a basis that the investor is assured of a quick turnover at a large profit. You can obtain lots in the very centre of the business section from $150. Other towns with not nearly as good prospects or with as large a population are asking from three to five times as much for their lots.

When we place a townsite on the market, we always make money for those who invest,
