—The ADVERTISER had a call to-day from Mr. G. T. Fulford, of Fulford & Co., Brockwille, proprietors of Nasal Balm, that well-known standard remedy for catarrh and cold in the head. While chatting with Mr. Fulford he related the origin of Nasal Balm. He had been for years a sufferer from catarrh in its worst forms, had spent hundreds of dollars and had consulted eminent physicians without obtaining a cure, or indeed without experiencing more than temporary relief. Mr. Fulford being an experienced chemist at last decided to experiment in his case and the result was the preparation now known as Nasal Balim. experiment in his case and the result was the preparation now known as Nasal Baim. In his own case it removed every vestige of the disease. He then began selling the preparation in his drug store, and the universal satisfaction it gave those who used it, coupled with a feeling of gratefulness at his own cure, induced him to offer it for sale throughout the country for the benefit of the thousands of other sufferers from cold in the head and catarrh. That it has met the demand for a remedy of this kind, and has given universal satisfaction Mr. Fulford says is attested by thousands of testimonials in the possession of his firm. Good Holiday Nows.

Ladies' Aid Bazar.

The bezar last evening, managed by the Ladies' Aid of the First Congregational Church, was a very nice affair. The school-room was elaborately decorated, and the several tables weighed down with a load of tasty articles, useful and ornamental. Meslames Holt, Wrighton, Nightingale, Crossin, Greenway and Heron conducted the refreshment booth, where oysters and other palatable things received a large patronage. The apron table was under the charge of Mesdames Germain and Ward; the fancy table, under Mrs. C. Freeland and Misses Elsie Johnson and Annie Porteous; flowers, Misses Emery and Greenway; candy, Mesdames Mathewson and Langridge; bran pies, Miss Brock. Master Tom Nightingale won the raffle for a big doll. The programme consisted of recitations by Misses Allie Langridge and Mabel McKay and Mr. Duke; kindergarten songs by Miss Mary Mathewson. The pastor, Rev. R. Aylward, B. A., presided.

Good News For Those Afflicted With Eheumatism.

Rev. Jacob Her, of Cottam, Essex county, writes: "J. W. Kern: Dear sir,—For several months I was severely afflicted with sciatica rheumatism. In December last inflammatory rheumatism set in. My family doctor failed to cure me. I tried various remedies, also Celery Compound and Pride of the Valley, with no benefit. I sent to Essex Center for anotier highly advertised medicine, also to Kingsville, but could get none. My friend, Mr. James Doan, druggist, of Kingsville, sent me a bottle of Kern's Rheumatic Cure, which vexed me, and caused me to say to my family this preparation is from some irresponsible person of whom we have no knowledge, and if his cure is good why is it not extensively known. I did believe it to be one of those many hundreds of worthless preparations that flood the market these days. After some days I concluded to try the stuff. It can't prove more worthless than the drugs I have been taking. Eut, sir, I had not taken more than half a dozen doses of it before the pain was entirely removed. That was several months ago, and I have felt nothing of them since. I must pronounce your preparation—Kern's Invaluable Rheumatic Cure. In conclusion, I will say I think it is your duty, as well as your interest, to make yourself and your cure more extensively known. I am a Baptist minister of Cottam, Essex county, Ont."

P. S. The reverend gentleman was so elated over his complete cure after a long period of intense suffering that he put an advertisement in the Essex Center paper recommending Kern's Rheumatic Cure at his own expense. He is upwards of 70 years of age.
