Fog Signal on the Car Track.

Fog Signal on the Car Track.

A loud explosion on the corner of Dundas and Clarence streets startled the residents A loud explosion on the corner of Dundas and Clarence streets startled the residents round about at 8 o'clock last evening. A fleeting rig and a cloud of smoke added mystery to the occurrence. Windows went up and heads appeared all along the street, while everybody who could got out into the road in a hurry with visions of another shooting scrape in view. An immense crowd gathered at the corner, and each car brought up one or more policemen. P. C. Howie came up from Richmond street, while Sergt. McGuire arrived on the scene shortly afterwards. P. C. Gall was also on hand, and P. C. Ralph was in view. After much explanation it was found that some joker had placed a fog signal on the car track, and the buggy passing over exploded it, at imminent danger of a serious runaway. No lives were lost.

Car Shop Accidents.

David Erskine, a machine hand at the G. T. R. ear shops, had the minfortune on Monday afternoon to get his clothes eaught in a revolving rod of the bolt-threading machine on which he worked. He was whirled around several times, his head striking the floor at each revolution. His striking the floor at each revolution of him whicled around several times, his head striking the floor at each revolution. His clothes were almost completely torn off him ere his workmates could throw off the belt and extricate him. The injured lad was carried on a stretcher to his home on Brydges street in an unconscious condition. Medical aid was summoned, but the full oxtent of his injuries cannot yet be learned, as foars are held that internal trouble may result.

The St. Thomas Meeting.

The St. Thomas Meeting.

If Mr. Hyman occupies a warm place in the hearts of the Liberals of London, those Liberals have not a monopoly of the respect and sympathy which is entertained in the country for the genial, clover, resourceful young man, whose seat in Parliament was stolen from him by as cowardly and contemptible a conspiracy as has ever darkened the annals of Canadian political history. St. Thomas and Elgin showed last night by the ovation that their citizens gave Charles S. Hyman that they resent that outrage almost as keenly as though they themselves were the victims, and that they respect and honor the man who, though the vanquished in the fight, is still the victor. As Mr. Hyman, graceful of figure, genial, yet firm of face, came forward, he looked every inch the man whom, it is easy to believe, has wen the personal Occasions of his fellows.—St. Thomas it is easy to believe, has won the persona affections of his fellows.-[St. Thomas affections of his fellows.—[St. Thomas Journal.

The manner in which the details of the meeting were carried out reflects credit on the Young Liberals of St. Thomas. A feature of it was the presence of the Young Liberals of London, who were there to show their loyalty to Liberal principles and to their defrauded leader, Mr. Hyman.—[Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

Hyman may well be proud. After the meeting the brigade formed in front of the doctor's residence, and in single file marched in, the members were individually presented to Mr. Laurier, and the unbroken line passed out, and took up position on the street until the pleasant little ceremony was concluded. Then, having come, and looked and conquered, the brigade went back to London. It has placed the Liberals of St. Thomas under no slight debt of gratitude, and in their memory the boys in blue will long remain associated with a pleasant visit, and a meeting made more successful by their presence.—[St. Thomas Journal.

Education was called for last evening to consider the advisability of widening the steps at the entrance to the Collegiate Institute. There was no quorum and no business was transacted.

—The motor trucks of the first motor car to strive in the city was run up the Dundas street tracks to the stables yesterday afternoon. Supt. Smith and several workmen enjoyed a ride through the streets on what citizens generally did not understand.

—A Granton correspondent asks What was the origin of the Primrose League and the designs and ends of the organization? The primrose was the favorite flower of Benjamin Disraelf the Conservative party. It was specially designed to enlist the aid of the men and women in the poorer ranks of life by appealing to their sympathies through the agency of entertainments, charitable visitations, etc.

—Mr. Bart Howard, who has been in Chicago attending the Moody Bible Institute for the past two months, has returned home and expects to be located in this vicinity shortly.
