that leads in interest. NEW FALL HATS that fairly distract lovers of the beautiful. If you love a perfect exhibition of this character come as soon as you can.

You Will Notice a Difference

Between our NEW FALL MILLINERY and that of all other milliners in the city. We have decided opinions on correct Millinery. We believe in variety. Even the latest styles are killed when you make them common. Here you will find a great variety, and numbers of patterns that you will see nowhere else.

Did You Get It Here

-Your last Hat-or didn't you? The chances are that you did. If you didn't, recollect how you felt a month after you bought it; recall if you can if you were fully satisfied. There are unpleasant recollections that follow some Millinery experiences from which our work is free. Try us and you will never be disappointed.

Over-Fed in a Poorhouse

Too Much Food Causes the Death of a Pauper.

New York, Sept. 28 .- A London correspondent of the Mail and Express

Quite a number of cases of death from over-feeding occurred in the Bideford workhouse. The coroner held inquests on no less than three cases within a short time. Oliver Twist is evidently a back number nowadays for at the inquiry into the death of the latest victim of parochial kindness, a man 70 years of age, who had lived in the Bethnal Green workhouse and acted as assistant librarian, the following dialogue ensued between the coroner and an inmate of the workhouse. Pauper - On Thursday afternoon. while we were having tea, I saw the deceased, who was cutting some bread the bench on which he was sitting.

The Coroner—You don't think the exertion of cutting bread and butter Pauper-No, not likely. He had cut up a lot before that.

The Coroner-They give you plenty to eat, then? Pauper-Aye, they do that. The doctor who was called in to see the deceased, testified that death was due to syncope, produced by an over- A FAMILY WIPED OUT. loaded stomach The Coroner-One may say that he was killed by kindness'

The Doctor-It may or may not be kindness to overload a man's stomach.
The Coroner—Well, it shows he did not go short of food?

Why, they have nothing to do but eat, A Juror-When I am out of work I shall want to go there. The Coroner-To judge by these cases there are many worse places than the workhouse. We often hear the other side of the question raised, but it is comforting to hear of a case like this, where everyone has plenty. The jury returned a verdict that deceased died from syncope, the result of an overloaded stomach, and that such death was due to natural causes. And as the jury gave the decision a deep, sepulchral voice in the back of the court room remarked:

"What a glorious death!" The owner of the voice was a tall, had evidently mentally decided that "the 'ouse was not a bad place to end one's days."

MAN HUNTING DOWN SOUTH

and the Fatal Wounding of Two Negroes

New York, Sept. 29.-A special from New Orleans says: Mr. Rutland McEnery, nephew of United States Senator Samuel D. McEnery, and one of the most prominent planters in this state, was shot yesterday near Monroe, Ouachita parish, while leading the pursuit f a negro named Ferren, who on Sunday assaulted the 10-year-old daughter of a farmer near Cadeville. The negro, who was a farm hand, threatened to kill the girl if the facts were made known, and it was later learned that he had assaulted the little girl's sister.

Many leading citizens of the country down, and bloodhounds were placed on Ferren's track. McEnery learned that Ferren had hidden in the cabin of Jas. Turner. He went there and demanded admission. Entrance was denied, and McEnery attempted to force his way in, when Turner shot him with a rifle. The his elbow, McEnery aimed steadily at the negro, and fired. Turner fell dead in his doorway, and McEnery is fatally injured. The entire male population of rounding parishes, started on the hunt

The Terrible Deed of an Iowa Farmer -Murders His Wife, Six Children and Himself.

Carroll, Iowa, Sept. 29 .- John Boecka farmer, living eight miles from this place, on Sunday night murdered his wife and five children and fatally wounded his 8-year-old son Henry. Afterwards the fiendish or demented man sent a bullet into his own heart The family were prosperous Germans, inflicting a fatal wound. and as far as is known lived happily. No motive for the tragedy has been discovered. Boecker's victims are his wife and these children: Caroline, aged 14; Christine, aged 9; Henry, aged 8; Lizzie, aged 6; John, aged 3, and an infant. Henry cannot recover from

The owner of the voice was a tall, aunt, hungry-looking individual, who ad evidently mentally decided that ward he had stretched himself beside Graham.

Boecker used a shotgun and a revolver er. He had seemingly shot his wife and shot himthe corpse of his wife, and shot him-

Boecker was 34 years of age, and for over twenty years had lived in the neighborhood. He has been regarded as a prosperous farmer, and only rebought a 200-acre farm a miles from the old homestead. Members of his father's family say he had no family troubles; his financial affairs were in good shape, and they can assign no motive for the terrible crime.

Opening Day of the Fair at

With Fine Weather It Promises to be a Decided Success.

The Exhibits of a Superior Character -Partial List of the Prize-

Allsa Craig, Sept. 29.—The opening day of the 32nd annual fair of the North Middlesex and East Williams Agricultural Societies yesterday brought in farmers with their own and families' exhibits, which were placed in position in the unpretentious main building without delay. The live stock will not arrive until today, when a big crowd will invade the village, if only the weather will continue fine, which from present indications will be the case. Considering that the season is bad for fruit, there is a good show of apples, which is the only class exhibited in any quantity, plums, pears, etc., being only excellent. A very large and tasty disand reflect credit upon the exhibitors. Dairy produce takes up a fair amount of space, butter being particularly good, as well as the display of bread, cakes, pies, and honey. The samples of grain shown are well filled and sound, up to and above standard, emphasizing the claim of this section to be a leader in this kind of crop. Roots also are surprisingly good, the potatoes being particularly well formed, and free of scab, ton; embroidery on cotton, 1 L. ead. It tells in plain, every day language that anyone can understand, many vital truths that every maid, wife and mother should know. It tells the untold suffering and agony that women endure who enter upon the important duties of wifehood and motherhood without seeing to it that they are strong and well in a womanly way. It tells about a wonderful medicine for women. A medicine that fits for wifehood and motherhood. A marvelous medicine that gives strength, vigor, vitality and elasticity to the delicate and important feminine organs that bear the brunt of maternity. It contains the names, addresses and photographs of many hundreds of women who were weak, sickly, nervous, freful, childless wives, but who are now healthy, happy, amiable wives and mothers, through the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. That book is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It used to cost $1.50, now it is free. Send 31 one-cent stamps, to cover customs and mailing only, for a paper-covered copy. "During the fall and winter of 1894 I was engaged in teaching at Public School No. 31, in Smith Co., near Tyler, Texas," writes Mr. J. P. Sneed, of Omen, Texas. "During this time my wife was badly afflicted with feenale weakness. We tried three of the best physicians in the county without benefit to my wife's health, but at great expense. My wife grew worse and we gave up in despair. She could not get in and out of doors without help. She was not able to stand on her feet long at a time, and complained of dragging down pains in the abdomen. Nothing but an untimely death seemed awaiting her. I wrote to Dr. Pierce for his advice. My wife took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and in six menths was completly cured, at a cost of less than one month's treatment by the last physician we employed before consulting Dr. Pierce."
