The King, who was not looking as well as usual, and was closely muffled up about the throat, had a few minutes animated conversation with Sir Edward Grey, both of them showing plainly their great satisfaction at the happy result of the sovereigns' short stay in Berlin. The visit certainly has had a wonderful effect upon the mind of the British public, and antagonism against Germany seems to have disappeared. Berlin's cordial reception of the King has paved the way for given out by the British and German. officials in which mutual satisfaction is expressed relative to the aims and foreign policies of the two Govern.

KIAMIL'S POWER GONE

The Young Turks in Absolute Control at Constantinople.

Constantinople, Feb. 14.-The new constitutional regime has passed through a severe crisis which has resulted in the downfall of the aged grand vizer, Kiamil Pasha, and complete triumph of the Young Turkey party, or committee of union and progress, which has virtually imposed upon ister of finance, raises and spends the Sultan a ministry of its own nominees, headed by Hilmi Pasha. The committee has publicly repudiated any intention to overthrow the Sultan or to install a military dictatorship, but the crisis and its outcome are regarded as not boding well for the stability of the throne or the sucess of the parliamentary government and it remains to be seen how the moderate elements of the empire will regard this assumption of absolute power by an irresponsible committee, especially in the face of delicate problems still to be solved in the Balkans. The committee of union and progress has constantly opposed Kiamil Pasha, It suspected him of being too considerate of palace influences and complained of his slowness in conducting negotiations with Austria-Hungary
