Horatio E. Dixon's Expose of Fall From Grace of Wife and Wm. Seldon Bears Fruit.

SHUNNED BY RELATIVES

So Thought Best Thing To Do Was To Go Where Common Law Marriages Allowable.

Exposed yesterday by Horatio E. Dixon, husband of the woman with whom he eloped from Perdue, Sask., to this city, and shunned by his rela tives and friends. William Seldon today ed two Grand Trunk tickets for Detroit, Mich., while Dixon left for While purchasing the tickets, Seldon asked the different times trains left here for the City of the Straits. He was visibly nervous, but made no mention of Mrs. Dixon, who he claims is his "soul affinity." He appeared to want to get out of this city as soon as possible, and said something about leaving on the 11:35 p.m. train.

Evidently Still "Sore." Dixon, prior to leaving here last night told railwaymen that his home was in the state of Maine, U. S. A. He refused, however, to say what town or city he lived in, or where Mrs. Dixor from. He mentioned, during the course of a conversation with a railway man, that he was not through with Mrs. Dixon and Seldon

It was stated today that the American immigration authorities in Detroit and other cities had been warned to be on for the elopers and to detain them if they are caught.

May Arrest Them.

Dixon, while talking with a group of railwaymen at the Grand Trunk headquarters, stated that if his wife and Seldon are caught in the United States he will spare no expense to have them both sent for trial under the Mann white plave act.

At the different hotels, where all in elopement concerned stopped, it was said by employees of the places that the trio concerned in the elopement were interesting readers of the local papers, but that what they thought of the reporters who wrote the story would have to be censored.

reassembled within three months with a speech from the throne May Be Dissolved

The possibility of a dissolution of the Chamber undoubtedly has been contemplated, if it is found to be in control of a fictitious parliamentary majority which does not represent the real will of the country. In this connection it is recalled that the grandfather of the present king, while engaged in war with Austria, dissolved the Chamber three times in succession until he obtaine the majority he desired.

ASSURANCES NECESSARY

Washington Will Require the Safety of Merchant Ships in the Meantime.

[Canadian Press.] London, May 15-3:22 p.m.-The Exchange Telegraph Company has received the following message from Amsterdam: "A telegram from Berlin states that the Vossische Zeitung announces that high Government circles in Germany favor the submission of the question of the Lusitania's sinking and the difficulties with America arising therefrom to a court of arbitration.

WAS EXPECTED. Washington, May 15.—The suggestion of arbitration contained in dispatches from Berlin by way of Amsterdam was received among officials here with the informal comment that such a course was among the considerations which had Washington, but it was pointed out that it probably would not be satisfactory unless assurances were given in the meantime and the submarine warfare on merchant ships was suspended. Officials pointed out that uness that were done, more lives might be lost while an arbitration was in progress.
