ECLIPSE SHOULD BE NOVEL SIGHT

University Students Will Witness Event From Steps of Arts Building.

VISIBLE AT 9:04

On the morning of Saturday, Jar 24, at 9 o'clock, the members of the aculties and the students of the University of Western Ontario will stand out on the steps of the college of arts building and witness the total eclipse of the sun, that is, if the day is a bright one, and everyone hope it will be clear and fair.

Professors here will make their of servations on the spot. London is well in the path of the total eclipse The instructors and astronomers a the University of Toronto believe that the University of Toronto believe that they are not so fortunate and that they can do better by going to a point a little south of Hamilton to get in the path of darkness.

The total eclipse will be visible at Detroit at 9:03, at London at 9:04, Stratford 9:05, Buffalo 9:06, Ithaca, N.Y., 9:09, New York 9:10.

The time will be short, though. The college only allows humans a bare 60 seconds to witness its beauties. The moment the darkness sets in all eyes should be turned to the sun as it vanishes to bring out a few of the brighter stars as are seen on a moon light night.

weeks' wait between election day and the inaugural meeting of the new city council is proving beneficial. They point to circumstances which exist at the present time and declare these things to be argument in favor of the long wait.

For instance, early gossip regarding appointments to certain standing bodies had appointments all picked out for the new year. Since then matters have changed complexion and support is gaining for appointments that weren't dreamed of a month ago. That the six weeks' wait offers the right amount of time for careful weighing and considering of arrangements for the new regime is the belief held in some circles.

On the other hand, promoters of the move to have the inaugural date moved forward persist in their argument that the wait permits too much idleness and allows time for misuse of office by retiring councillors.
