The Colonist. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1894.

BT

16

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING

The Colonist Printing & Publishing Co'y, Limited Liability. Harvards Beat Cornell Almost Two to One-Suggestions to Footballers.

THE WORLD OF SPORT.

A. G. SARGISON, Neoretar W. H. Brans, TERMS : THE DAILY COLONIST Per Year, (Postage Free to any part of TRANSLENT ADVERTISING - Per line cold nonpared :- "First insertion, 10 cents; each mbsequent consecutive insertion, 5 cents. Ad-vertisements not inserted every day, 10 cents per line cach insertion. No advertisements in-serted for less than $1.60. WEEKLY ADVERTISEMENTS-Ten cents a line solid Nonparell, each insertion. No ad-vertisement inserted for less than $2. Where Cuts are inserted they must be ALL METAL-not mounted on Wood.

DR. CAMPBELL ON THE "ANTI-

To this Knives :--We ought to be very thankful when ministers of Dr. Campbell's learning have the courage to address their people on a subject of so great interest as the "Antiquity of Man," and upon which there is so wide a divergence of opinion. A correspondence on this subject in your columns though it would give rise to end-less interesting letters expressive of the less interesting letters expressive of the views held by different writers would be deplored by all true scientists as in ne way helping to the solution of this question. I will therefore be as brief as possible in my remarks.

OhI AS TO GOOD MANNEP punted and Brewer's return was blocked by Rogers. Beschman made a touchdown, and Ohl kicked a goal for Cornell. Score-6 to 6 C. Brewer made a touchdown for Har-vard, and A. Brewer kicked a goal. Score —Harvard, 12; Cornell, 6 C. Brewer made a touchdown and missed the goal. Score-Harvard, 22; Cornell, 12. Nanaimo "Hornets" Defeat Vancou ver's Rugby Team After a Fast and Scientific Game.

SEATTLE'S FIRE

THE VICTORIA WEEKLY COLONIST, FRIDAY NOVEMB'

Where Selfishness Cor ses, In-A Good Heart Must Underlie Good Manners. <text><section-header> SEATTLE, Oct. 28.—Sixteen dead is the [Copyright, 1894, by Ar derican Press Associa-t; derican Press Associa-on.] TO THE SPORTING EDITOR :- Referring to record of the fire in the West street hotel

S. show forth their greediness and intem- | at customs and phrases not their own, show forth their greediness and intemperates people their intemperates, but the man radically coarse shows forth his coarseness as he never would do beneath a root, the silly man, or more probably the silly woman, proves herself a fool, the tyrant domineers openly and rudely —every one, in fact, returns to the brutal frankness of the untutored savage and for an hour or so throws aside the mask and domino of polite society.
So true is this criterion that I hereby advise every woman to delay accepting the man who wooes her until she has spent a day with him at a pionic or spent a day with him at a pionic or some other form of "pleasuring" under It was a member of very polite society he greenwood tree. But, short of such extreme conditions He was a member of very pointe society —-it was, in fact, a peeress of Great Britain—who tried one Sunday to hear as these, is polite society polite? That is to say, I inquire confidentially, Is your polite society polite? And I will 'Come away. We've done the polite wind that was not the exquisite piece of some interval to every woman under all circumstances, but this rule of exceptions has been stied upon by the majority of the malor ty of the malor ty other people. But space is limited, and I can only briefly mention a few items of the impoliteness I most frequently see practiced in polite society. Any reference whatever to age is a woman, or a very pretty woman, or an orude and dangerous compliment to acquaintance; but, as for the rest, they man or woman. I saw a lady of 85 serionsly annoyed lately by a young man.

Another form of defense is: "I am who asked her how young men dressed Another form of defense is: I all, coming home fired from my business and want to sit down and rest. Why should I give up my seat to a healthy young miss who has been down town therefore for her own any sement?'

All young women are not healthy and strong, although they may be about and look pretty well. How is a stranger to know that the "miss" has been down ping for her own amusement?" Shopping, as all women know, is yery fatiguing and eften requires a good deal of running about and stand-ing and waiting, and, above all, is tirheiging as the sention of min question of min question. The question of min qu cane with which the youth tapped his

Another impoliteness is to try too too steep or these steps too high and propose that he take the easy road, while every one else climbs the difficult one. Let him choose for himself. Do not officiously offer to read things for perbeardless chin.

THIRTY-SIXT RUSSIA'S RULER DI e End Came Yesterday, World Now Mourns for Good Man-

Expressions of Sorrow and of Appreciation From the tional Capitals.

LONDON, Nov. 1 -- Intimatic death of the Czar of Bussia, curred at Livadia, at 2 15 p.m., ceived at the foreign office a few later. The Czarina and the Du Saze-Coburg Gotha, sister of t were among those with him at the moon the action of the Czar's heart enfectle rapidly, and about halfanconsciousness supervened. The the heart became intermittent carcely perceptible until it ces

YALTA, Nov. 1 -The Czar was Tuesday that he could live only a more. He listened composedly. the rest of the day he passed most time in disposing of his personal an affairs. Then he calmly awaited with his consciousness broken occa by short periods of coma. Yesterda ing he looked for the last time f by anors periods of coma. Yesterda ing he looked for the last time f window of the palace. He was long then he said it was pleas feel that he could pass his las on Russian soil. Lest night in no sleep ; he was racked constantly lent coughing and hemorrhage. H grew so weak it often seemed to has ped besting. Having rallied slight become fully conscious, he wished to rament to be given him in the pres-the family. An hour and a half it was seized with violent spasms. It as if death had come, but he rallied, 12:30 he appeared to be free from pai comfortable. But the weakening hear and breathing told his physicians the end was coming fast. He was consec mont to the last moment. At 2:151 closed slowly and he ceased breathin The body will be embalmed in Live might and will be exposed in the ohapel for a day or two. According tentative arrangements made to hap aperior a day of two. According native arrangements made to-nig dy will be conveyed aboard the in ocht Polar Star to Odessa. It corted by the whole Black Ses om Odessa the body will be take solat train to St. Petersburg and cod in the oathedral of Saints Pat will The final commonics will in about two weeks, understood that Czer Ni proclaimed to procisimura

The Prince and Princess of Wales are on their way to Livadia, were at station this side of Vienna when t th. The r s did not re

MRS. FRANK LESLIE SHOWS V POLITE SOCIETY OFTEN I AILS.

Are the Four Hundred Polit

a Test of Civilization-J

R 2 1894

HERE

A?-Picnics a

m them. think we may conclude that the more ipture and science are studied together re-meed not fear that either will suffer at hands of the devout student. Religion the go hand in hand with science. had hoped that Dr. Campbell had been we may argue upon it been challenged we may argue upon it torrsot. 69 Beloher street. go in accepting them we are very spt to accept his manners as well—that is to say, those persons are apt to whose po-liteness' is veneered upon their natural temperament and is not its necessary outgrowth. Not only do greedy people

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> CORNELL YIELDS TO HARVAED. NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The football game between Harvard and Cornell universities was played at Manhattan field yesterday and resulting game by 22 to 12. The game was from start to finish one of the best contested matches played hers, and had the Cornell worked with the same vinn in the first half whing but improbable that the result might have been different. Harvard got the first goal by Wrington, from which A. Brewer

Thur Cleric

"Geology seems to show that me existed before Adam; the pendalian of the clock of time may still take its backward awy have be existed before Adam; the pendalian of the clock of time may still take its backward awy have be backward awy have the klok of a good ombination was worked. Miler was there and followed like a statory than fall of the seam and stating proves that and the seam of the following and proves that man datam." It does not become as to be dogmatic, but to approve hat become stating before the flowing array, dodget the answest and active a good ombination was worked. My object in writing is not as much to expose the following array, dodget the answest and active a good ombination was worked to approve hat become stating before the flowing array. The does not become as to be dogmatic, but to approve hat become stating before the following array. My object in writing is not as much to enske my protest stating strating before the following array. The does not become stating before the following array. The does not become as to be dogmatic, but to approve non Soriptures to support non Soriptures to support non Soriptures wind, we may lease most the field before reaching the toom himo and, and not shad the goal inte. Adde arry the field. Kloking become pre-awitted that the same of a proving down biblind the goal inte. Agein function wind, we may lease and field before reaching the sorum, Asaidon began to awitted that the same of man before the following intervent wind, we may lease of man before the field wing to ensite a mitted that the same of man before the field work is a ling well and an array that is intervent and stating Sorum beating the toom bind the goal intervent wind, we may lease of man before the field work is a down beating the toom intervent to support non Soriptures wind, we may lease of man before the field work is a down in the case, why, the is a down in the case, why, then I say this intervent way have been many sone are disk to soriety is not polities. Doos the the work, the tea hair, blue eyes, full beard, black striped trousers. No. 7—Height 5 feet 9 inches, dark navy blue flamel sbirt, grey undershirt. No. 8—Burned beyond recognition, but was probably a large man. SEATTLE'S DIVORCE MILL. bow in the cars, why, then I say this member of polite society is not polite. But let us be just and lay the lash upon our own shoulders if it is needed them, and that one class is just as im-portant to itself as the other. Sometimes very polite persons take note of the aliens revolving in another sphere in a good humored spirit of curiosity and in-dulgence, asking patronizing questions and exclaiming in pleasant astonishment tions as to mourning, which are to be lished in an extra gravits. The Russian embassy received its official news from Lord Kimberley, tary for foreign affairs, who handed to baseador Staal a copy of the dispatol from the British embassy in St. Peter Parts, Nov. I.—Receiving the ne the Czar's death Premier Casimir-P after a long silence said simply : "H France's strong and loyal frind." S mourning have multiplied ever aim news/was made public. La Presse, L and Le Soir issued special editions black borders. All sold as rapidly a could be brought to the street. The and newsmen were surrounded by occowds, struggling to buy papers befor supply was exhausted. The comment of La Presse was : French patricts will be grieved by th news. The mourning will entend the out France. The Czar was a sincere pa of peace and a davoted/friend of our co Our sorrow is unutterably deep, but the no reason for despair, as the heir of of peace and a devoted friend of our co Our sorrow is unstatably deep, but it no reason for despair, as the heir of ander III will recognize the close uniting france and Rassia. The sorr France will be most convincing evides the son and sovereign that the union nations which has for years assured what here is the source of more source of the source o must remain the guarantee of peac future." The probable effect of the event up Russo-French Alliance and the Eur situation in general is discussed by group in the atreets or cafes. The view lmost without exception optimistic.

Define is that Nicholas will adopt his fa policy. The Czar's death will be announce chally to the deputies and senators on day at the opening of the Chamber. Le Jour, commenting upon the death, says: "Russia's grief arouses sponse in France. The bulletins from dis have caused anguish to all pat France hopes ardently that the sen w worthy of his father." To a reporter Jour er. Minister Le Flourieus said : " not think that the change will endange alliance with Russia. I am convinced the Czarewitch will follow the course the Czarewitch will follow the coulout by his father."

out by his father." WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Prince Can rune, the Russian minister, received th lowing telegram from M. de Giers, the sian minister of foreign affairs, this a noon : "St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—If pleased our Lord to recall to him our n beloved sovereign. Alexander the T died at Livadis this afternoon, the 20 Ootober (1st November) at 2:15." P Cantsonne formally forwarded a cop the telegram to the department of s but as so late an hour that no activ likely to be taken by the department by thely to be taken by the department be

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1 —In an interview day regarding the effect of the Caar's d upon European politics Hon. Thes Bayard, United States ambassador to G Bayard, United States ambassador to G Bayard, United States ambassador to G Britain, said : "Forewarned has been armed with the countries of Ea in this case, I think. They h that this great friend of pesce dying and were prepared for I have reason to believe and hope that dootrine of peace which the Caar has str