Big Four With Blogan Silenced Approved

in British Columbia however, so much the slander as it was the government, unreservedthat appealed to the of voters in the countr eral and timber indu iculturist is happy in the abundants fruits of the e public hall accommo-always remarkably eneir greetings and their expressions of ap rough which deficits had into surpluses and a stablished for the prov-rness and equity of the ne splendid business deal nd Trunk Pacific in ren island; the defeat of ers as illustrated by the lidway and Verno honest settlement s of the province togeth es of the province togeth-citive efforts to attract Better Terms question; consideration of the inter-lasses; and the wise leg-had encouraged capital, or, and brought about a crease of industrial activ-arily in the lumber line, anstively explained Recaded tively explained. Based the premier's appeal for n of public confidence in lon as against an un ticians, some of whon d into the campaign by

EN'S TRIUMPH NG KASLO CITIZENS

Carry Weight-Mr. aid's Speech Very Idly Received

28.-The Liberal meethe various scandals that harged against him by press and speakers was as satisfactory, and the red him to the echo Macdonald took the platied that the opposition ng on a campaign of in the next breath reanderous statements that urther misrepresentati st of his tirade of calum-majority of the meeting him with cheers for the candidate. His address mest friends. As an exhe policy of a party com-e mouth of its leader, d have been a greater then he himself shared f his antagonistic audid that their only policy criticism and fault-find-sed without touching on n of importance, such as or telling what the Libof they attained power. neeting demonstrated one clearly, that Neil McKay s next member, and that f this district take no campaign of slander the Liberal press and this campaign.

INSULT TO YMIR

3. C., Jan. 28.—The redelivered here by R. W. Rossland, the Liberal ordeclared that the elecwere corruptible, has not aid the candidature of the Labor-Liberal canis a verbatim extract liverance of Mr. Grigor: Mr. Shatford is not here, is not represented on this or this reason I will not out later on I will say, electors of Hedley. lkameen should be proud nan like Smith Curtis. ikameen should be proud man like Smith Curtis, him, but in Ymir riding ences, to my knowledge, to put up money to detis, and they are putting ead, and why, Mr. Chairuse you cannot buy the nilkameen, and you can the Ymir riding."

Late Mr. Blair

Mark for Canada Mark for Canada
an. 28.—Hersford, Canadat St. Kitts, says considension is being felt reproducers at the prose in duty on raw sugar a third cents per hundred it is feared will entire the advantage of preferagent Jackson at Leeds rises a distinctive Canadark, to go on all products the suggests a maple leaf just adopted one.

WON A DECISIVE VICTORY IN CAMP OF THE ENEMY

Liberal Meeting at Boleskine Road Captured stating that there was more railroad construction going on in the province than ever before. In reference to the by Mr. Eberts---Champions of Opposition Cause Worsted at Every Turn ostensibly in the interests god, but Conservatives had at the poll in Vancouver. to one majority. D. M. certainly snow John the Conservative candidate memory. Upon his remarking that he had stood for Liberal principles for time immemorial, someone said, "Draw it mild!" He asked the audience to vote for a man, "John Piercy, who will serve you as he will serve himself." He also made a most extraordinary assertion—that when the himself." He also made a most extraordinary assertion—that when the himself. The also made a most extraordinary assertion—that when the million dollar loan was unnecessary. The Reserve Lands

Friday, February 1, 1907.

Mr. Eberts then dealt with the request of the Dominion government that British Columbia waive its retrieval and make it the terminus of our road. If you will let us have the land we stood for the subsidy should be paid as the work proceeded. The subsidy should be paid as the work proceeded. The said as the work proceeded. The the surveys were not completed in the surveys were not completed in the surveys were not completed in the speakers and the chairman tried to the control of the control of the control of the chairman tried to speakers and the chairman tried to speakers and the chairman tried to speakers and the chairman tried to the control of the was wrong.

At this point Mr. Eberts entered the hall, and was received with a veritable storm of cheers, lasting for several minutes. When he was called to the platform the cheering was resumed, so much so that the chairman had to beg permission for a "patient hearing" for Mr. Piercy, the lend to address the meeting.

Was all.

Faien Island was the next subject to receive attention. Mr. Eberts had stated that the agreement was made with the Grand Trunk Pacific, not the did not know who paid Mr. Anderson for his work of surveying the lands, but thought it was settled by that gentleman receiving $10,000 in betray them.

Nicola Valley railway.

man asking, "Can't you come price at which timber was sold, but lose that door?" when somethed, "Eberts will soon warm.

This he did. He was encountered the time for this had arrived.

pespite every artifice that a half that, his only little scandal. It was everyone would be good friends after dozen Liberal speakers, in league with not the Nicola Valley railway at all. the election. He was tendered a compartizan chairman, could employ, D. The gentleman who was said to be plimentary hand-clapping on resuming M. Eberts, K. C., single-handed, cap-bribed had not been named. (Gorhie seat. The gentleman who was said. First, K. C., single-handed, cap-bribed had not been named. The meeting heid last night at don Grant said—Macgowan.) Mr. Boleskine Eberts retorted that it was false; it e interests would have been used against that The hall gentleman, who would probably head world.

The Taxation Question Mr. Eberts pointed out there was a large deficiency at the time the government came into power. Hon, R. G. Tatlow was compelled to raise axes to meet it. But through surpluses he had been able to meet the install meet it. But through surpluses he had been able to meet the install meet it. But through surpluses he had been able to meet the install ments and reduce the loan so that it cost only $35,000 per annum. Taxation in the persons pavid Stevens and Gordon M. mt, filled in the time. The whole minister of finance hoped within two years to bring it back to the old figures. Small farmers had been helped.

er order, and asked the supporters Trunk Pacific came along and said; of Mr. Eberts to refrain from talking. We will take your land, improve it, I the called on Gordon Grant next. (A provide roads, water, electric light, Voice—Look out, Gordon!) He is a and all the facilities of a great city, and all the facilities of our road. I good electronist with a first class and make it the terminus of our road.

for which he had been put up, talking float another loan when the first against time, was accomplished, Gordon M. Grant subsided amid a storm claimed that the surplus obtained was of "Bookel".

"Boohs!"

Mr. Grant was asked if he knaw frid Laurier. He gave as his reason what sums the C. P. R. paid in taxes that the amount came from the refund in 1902 and 1906. He admitted he did not know. ("Boohs" repeated.) He was forced to admit that his statement as to the dismissal of Mr. Then came the questions of taxation. He caused some disturbance by readment as to the dismissal of Mr.

question asked by Mr. Eberts. That o address the meeting.
gentleman said he was not a cash and interest in certain lands.
speaker, but a man who had Referring to the Columbia & Westd in his business affairs. He ern Railway, he understood Mr. Eberts at in the district, and if the placed confidence in him, he government's action regarding the sub-

In working sidy. He (the speaker) said that al Liberal party he felt he was though Alex. Henderson had said the right thing, and was proud company was entitled to the land in e of its candidates. He ob- 1901 it was not in 1906. The C. P. R. the way Hon. Richard Mc- had failed to demand the $50,000 for-d run the government, claim-feit. His strong reason for voting was socialistic. Upon people against the subsidy was that the comhe said: "A day will come pany had broken their contract. Con-You will be glad to listen to tinuing, Mr. Drury recited several unsuccessful amendments of the opposition, and said that the McBride govvas proud of the Conserva-refused bribes from the C. of "No! No!") The statement was vote in favor of a subsidy then reiterated that the opinion of Alex. Henderson had nothing to do

Alex. Henderson had nothing to do error next said he objected to on farmers, claiming the on twould not do a single half two the case.

Alex. Henderson had nothing to do with the case.

Forest first came in for attention next. Mr. Drury said he advocated help them. He asked all to the protection of forests against fires, the protection of forests against fires, who was the best man.

"Eberts,") "If you think ed out that there was no money in the treasury to pay for an adequate system of protection. This was a plank of the Liberal candidate subter giving thanks to the auditer listening to his humble relistening to his humble respectively.

The Colonist had said that the government should not inquire as to the price at which timber was sold, but dically received.

Mr. Drury then discussed the Premier's manifesto. If the Conservatives could show any measure that conduced to the provincial prosperity he was prepared to give them credit for it. The lumber mills were six months behind in their orders, but he claimed the demand was caused by the immigration policy of the Do-minion government. He must, he said, however, give the provincial adminis-tration credit for one thing. That was the measure prohibiting the exportation of unmanufactured lumber. Th pposition wholly approved of that Proceeding, he again claimed that all rosperity was brought about by imigration and consequent railway con-The Premier was right in mining industry, he believed the gov-ernment had done well in not tam-pering with the mining laws. After paying his compliments to the salmon and whale, Mr. Drury conclud-

An Effective Reply Mr. Eberts opened his speech in by taking Mr. Piercy at his charged him with roguery. This caused Coming to the question of taxation, Mr. Piercy to get very hot, and he in part of time. The whole particularly was a case of capture by the memy, and so sore were the Liberals on the platform at the magnificent ovation given Mr. Eberts that they went so far as to interrupt him, the chairman being one of the worst offenders. But it was an Eberts meeting all through.

Milling Time

minister of finance hope years to the old figures. Small farmers had been helped the worst of the usual tax, while the sum of $500 Mr. Anderson. He (Mr. Drury) knew the usual tax, while the sum of $500 Mr. Anderson. He (Mr. Drury) knew was absolutely free.

The Kaien Island matter was a matter of great concern, particularly to the Liberals, who were guided by the Grand Trunk Pacific. In additional to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Mr. Bodwell Example 1 through.

Killing Time

David Stevens was the first speaker, and when a bulky copy of the evidence in the Columbia & Western railway investigation. Several persided the speaker, but he struggled along manfully. In fact, the time agreement for a terminus at Kaien sing manfully. In fact, the time was filled in between laughter at Stevens, asking him questions, and a one? Upon some one saying "No," was not the bargain a good the land was worthless, and the one-guard badly read synopsis of the find
Mr. Eberts said:

To the Liberals, who were guided by the dagreement by which $40,000 was to be paid by the Grand Trunk Pacific. In addition up the agreement by which $40,000 was to be paid by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Mr. Bodwell and Mr. Anderson had both sworn that they had never received a cent from the company; all the money was paid by Mr. Larsen, for work done in confiction with lands and coal deposits, and Mr. Drury knew it. If the company; and Mr. Drury knew it. If the company had not located on Kajen Island. Was not the bargain a good one? Upon some one saying "No," Mr. Eberts said:

The facts of that picnic for Vancouver longshore—men to Galiano Island on election day, such as the buccaneering trip of the steamer Iroquois.

The last historic picnic to Galiano Island involved a term of fourteen months' imprisonment for the organizer.

The facts of that picnic are in the dark they had not located on Kajen Island. Was not the land was worthless, and the one-duarter reserved by the province was deposits, and the one-duarter reserved by the province was deposited to the content of the company and not located on Kajen Island. We should be deposited to the picnic for Vancouver 'longshore the content of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Mr. Bodwell had forn up the Galiano Island on election day, such as the buccaneering trip of the steamer Iroquois.

The last historic picnic to Galiano Island involved a term of fourteen men to Galiano Island involved a term of fourteen men to Galiano Island involved a was no deficit. Then he claimed the million dollar loan was unnecessary. (This was laughed at.) Upon reference from the British Columbia waive its region of the British Columbia waive its region of the British Columbia waive its representation of the British Columbia waive its recompany by the act of last syssion, and ineither Mr. Drury nor anyone else company by the act of last syssion, and ineither Mr. Drury nor anyone else could say it was not so. They completed these sections within the time for the charge preferred against could say it was not so. They completed these sections within the time for the charge preferred against could say it was not so. They completed these sections within the time for the charge preferred against could say it was not so. They completed these sections within the time for the charge preferred against could say it was not so. They completed these sections within the time for the charge preferred against could say it was not so. They completed these sections within the time for the charge preferred against could say it was not so. They completed these sections within the time for the charge preferred against could say it was not so. They completed these sections within the time for the charge preferred against could say it was not so. They completed the secti outh, he showed a most remarkable the speaker squelched him by reading the speaker sq

Constantinople, Jan. 29.—Fehmi tains the following provision of in-Pasha, chief of the secret police of the palace, and a great favorite of the ers: Sultan, has come into serious conflict ers:

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

For Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pain in the Chest, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Hoarseness or any affection of the Throat or Lungs, you will find a sure cure

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine anded. Syrup

Mrs. H. A. Misener, Port Williams, N.S., says: "My son had a dreadful cough. It started in the fall and lasted all through the about it and started to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and before he had used one bottle his cold was completely cured." Price 25 cents per bottle. Put up in a yellow wrapper. Three pine trees the trade mark. Refuse substitutes. Dr. Wood's is the

RUN GAILANO

Victoria Times Makes Announcement That Recalls Brocky Phil's Exploit

FACTS FROM POLICE COURT RECORD

Repetition of Political Buccaneering Trip in Interests of T. W. Paterson Is Promised

Captain Riley of the Dominion steamer Earle was in Vancouver last week, visiting his friends on the waterfront. It is expected he will run the usual picnic to Galiano or some of the islands on February 2.

Is the brother of Senator George Riley, the master of the William Head quarantine steamer Earle, who went to Vancouver a few days ago with Charles up in church matters expect that these accounts will be found all right, but nothing definite will be known until worker," going to run another elec-

Ings of the committee that investigated the land grant of the rallway mentioned. He predicted defeat for Mr. Eberts said:

"Carry your mind back five or six quarter reserved by the province was only required by the Land Act in reference to townsites. The agreement, was laughed at and subsided.

Then the chairman pleaded for better order, and asked the supporters Trunk Pacific came along and said:

"Carry your mind back five or six quarter reserved by the province was only required by the Land Act in reference to townsites. The agreement, however, with the company provided that this quarter should apply to outside lands also. (Cheèrs).

Then facts of that picnic are in the records of the Victoria police court. There will be found the story of how without transportation, and the Grand McBride Too III and the company provided that this quarter should apply to outside lands also. (Cheèrs).

The facts of that picnic are in the records of the Victoria police court. There will be found the story of how without transportation, and the Grand McBride Too III are reserved by the Land Act in reference to townsites. The agreement, however, with the company provided that this quarter should apply to outside lands also. (Cheèrs).

There will be found the story of how without transportation, and the Grand McBride Too III are reserved by the Land Act in records of the Victoria police court. There will be found the story of how without transportation, and the Grand McBride Too III are reserved by the province was only required by the Land Act in records of the Victoria police court. There will be found the story of how without transportation. The agreement of the victoria police court. The agreement of the victoria police cour Mr. Drury had grossly misstated the columbia & Water street hotel, and the steamer position regarding the Columbia & Iroquois, which T. W. Paterson than position regarding the Columbia & Iroquois, which T. W. Paterson then Western Railway. He (the speaker) operated on the islands route, was sent had the act with him and would read to take the party to Galiano Island.

The Provincial Election act as amended during the 1903-4 session of the British Columbia legislature con-

Sultan, has come into serious conflict with the German embassy owing to his action in causing the seizure recently of a ship cargo destined for Hamburg. The Sultan tried to pacify the embassy officials by immediately ordering the release of the cargo, but Germany in a forcible note to the Sultan, demands the punishment of Fehmi Pasha, pointing out that he was guilty of an infraction of the penal code, rendering himself liable to life imprisonment.

Sec. 216—Polling day in any electoral district shall be a public holiday, and every registered elector of the district who is within the electoral district who is within the electoral district on that day and who is a workman or employee for hire ballowed by his employer to be free from his employment on that day for at least four consecutive hours between the opening and the closing of the poli, and every employer who offends against this provision, without reasonable justification, shall be out reasonable justification, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than one hundred dollars, to be recovered under the 'Summary Convictions Act' and amending acts."

ALL ONE WAY.

Mr. Taylor Will Easily Win in Revels

One of the easiest victories for the Conservatives in the election will be ni Revelstoke riding. A visitor from the East who arrived yesterday after spending a week in the riding had this to say: "Out of curiostity, to find out how things were going, I asked everyone I met which way he was going to wote. In the week I only located two men who were not going to yote for men who were not going to you to you the causing its owner to assume the causing its owner to a Bark and the soothing, healing and expectoral herbs and to the soothing to vote for Thomas Taylor. They were both Socialists."

> Cremated Himself Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 29.-Tony Sain. a foreigner, went to a coke oven, deliberately undressed and threw him-self naked into the fire and was burnundressed and threw himed to death. His mind was unbal-

A Veteran Mason Rockford, Ill., Jan. 29.—Otis Eddy, aged 102 years, died here today. He was believed to be the oldest Mason in the United States, having been initiated at Chepachet, R. I., May 20, 1826.

He was treating his pretty city cousing to the opera.

"Wouldn't you like to step out and get a libretto, Josh?" she said, as the first curtain fell.

"No." said he, "by gosh, I wouldn. A feller what can't set out a three-hour show 'thout speakin' out 'twist every act for librettos and cocktains and sich ain't no man, 'cordin' to my way of thinkin'."

MARITIME PROVINCE GRIEVANCE Decreasing Representation in Parlia-ment is Discussed.

Ottawa, Jan. 29 .- An earnest plea was presented to the House in favor of the restoration to the maritime provinces of the full quota of mem-bers in the Commons allotted to them when they entered confederation. Nova Scotia has lost 3, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island each two, in recent years.

Mr. Aylesworth was unsympathetic in his reply, implying that Prince Ed-ward Island could only ask the good will of the sister provinces when her last member was wiped out.
Mr. Hughes, who raised the question, refused to withdraw his motion favoring an amendment to the British North America Act. The amendment to adjourn the debate was carried by 78 to 48, six Liberals voting with the

SHORT IN HIS ACCOUNTS

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 29 .- W. H. ed on account of irregularities in his counts. The late Hon, A. G. Blat chairman of the company, and Mr. Barry, solicitor, had an examination of the books on Friday morning last, with the result that the treasurer was found to be in arrears. The amount is said to be $25,000. On Saturday last the company took a transfer of all Smith's property, both real and personal. This consists of his residence and household effects. He refuses to say anythin connection with the matter. The result of the examination of the accounts was a great surprise and shock Mr. Smith was also treasurer of the diocese and synod, and W. E. Vrooman auditor of the synod, is at the capita the investigation is concluded.

STAND BY THE PREMIE

Mission Junction, B. C., Jan. 29,-(Special.)-Premier McBride arrived here this evening from Chilliwack and owing to the cold weather on a long drive had contracted a slight attack of influenza. His physician, Dr. Stewart, would not allow him to speak at the public meeting called for toat the public meeting called for to-night in his interests. F. G. T. Luca spoke for the government to a meeting of four hundred people who crowded the public hall. Sympathy was altogether with the premier and his no of regret including the belief t Dewdney would stand by him in election was cheered vigorously. T. Cooksley spoke for Robert Jardine the meeting was overwhe in favor of the premier and his elec-tion is assured. The premier is not seriously ill but his doctor decided that it was not wise for him to venture He has had a most arduous cam paign, having spoken at twenty-eight meeting in sixteen constituencies during the present month.

Ottawa, Jan. 29 .- (Special.) - An or der in council has been passed grant-ing permission for six months, from Jan. 1, to the New England Fish company or any other foreign corporation to land fresh fish in American bottoms at any port in British Columbia with-out payment of duties and to tranship same in bond to any port in the Unit-ed States. Such companies are per-mitted to purchase supplies at any port in British Columbia.

Quebec Judgeships Ottawa, Jan. 29.—The cabinet has appointed P. G. Martineau, Montreal, to vacant judgeship of St. Hyacinthe, caused by the death of Judge Madore, and A. Bruneau, M. P., for Richelleu.

DUTCH OFFICIALS KILLED

Amsterdam, Jan. 29.-A serious re

WEAK HEART SYSTEM WAS RUN DOWN

When the heart is healthy and performing its fuctions naturally, it should beat regularly seventy-two times a minute without causing its owner the slightest inconveni-

When it begins to beat irregularly intermittently, palpitate and throb, skip beats, beat fast for a time, then so slow as to seem almost to stop, it causes great The least excitement or exertion seems to

Many people are kept in a state of morbid fear of death, become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social or business duties, through unnatural

To all such sufferers MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE can give prompt and permanent relief. Mrs. F. Fletcher, Sault Ste. Marie, West. Ont., says: "I have been troubled for four or five years with weakness, and run down system. My feet were always cold and I felt almost dead. My heart was weak and I was so nervous I could hardly walk across the street. I started taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after using three boxes I felt much better. I continued their use until I had taken twelve boxes and I am well." Price 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Out.

Try my Java and Mocha, fresh ground by an up-to-date motor and mill.

40 Cts. per Pound.

Picnic Hams, 15 cents per lb.

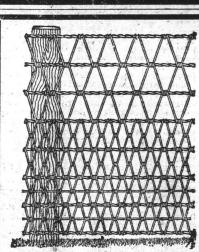

W. O. WALLACE

The Family Grocer, Tel. 312 Cor. Yates & Douglas St.

Dress Goods for the Ball

If you have decided to attend the ball at the Government House, you will need a DRESS SUIT. We have them equal to the best tailor-made, and at reasonable prices. Also DRESS SHIRTS, English make, at, each, $2.00 and....$1.50 WHITE KID GLOVES (Dress), at per pair, $1, 75c and 5oc WHITE SILK GLOVES (Dress), the very latest novelty,

Agents

King of Fences

Ellwood Wire Fencing

Bull Proof, Chicken Proof,

Fire Proof

Write for Catalogue and Prices to CKMAN-TYE HARDWARE GO.

Wardrobe

Victoria, B.C.

ONLY

FOUR MORE DAYS

In which to buy Fit-Reform Clothing at

SALE PRICES

Saturday Ends the Big Clothing Sale

For one week we offer the following articles:

Skates, No. 7, Steel, per pair..... $2.50 Skates, No. o, Acme Club, per pair.... 1.00 Conductors ..... I.O Each week we will have special sales.

B.C. Hardware Co.

WATCH OUR ADS

Cor. Broad & Yates St.