The White Lead Behind a Paint Determines its Quality

ONLY a very real quality in a White Lead can give successful results in paint-mixing. A worthless compound masquerading as White Lead cannot impart to paint those essential qualities without which it never gives permanent satisfaction.
To avoid risk of failure in mixing your paint, make it a point to use only paint in which the White Lead used is

Brandam's Genuine B.B. White Lead

It is absolutely purer whiter than others; of great covering capacity and long life. Working under the brush with ease and freedom, it produces a tough, elastic film that does not crack or peel.
Its real cost is less than that of seemingly cheaper white leads—because it produces a beautiful protective paint that lasts for many years. White Paint of unknown ingredients never looks well and rarely lasts two years.

A VERY enjoyable and profitable concert, was arranged by the Campbells on Easter Monday evening, at the request of the ladies of the Red Cross Society. The town hall in which the concert was held was packed to overflowing by an appreciative and attentive audience; pleasure and satisfaction was depicted on every countenance during the acting. The net proceeds of this concert amounted to $137.00; and the organizers and participants in this Red Cross benefit were complimented upon the success of their work. The programme read as follows:—
Song—By Chorus.
Song—By Mrs. D. Birchall.
Farce (His First Engagement)—By Mrs. D. B. Birchall, Miss Dorothy Suddart and Messrs. Eckford and Rod Edson.
Comic Song—By Miss Marjorie Annett.
Farce (Kissing the Wrong Girl)—By Misses Maude LeTouzel and Pauline Davis, and Mr. H. Olive LeMasurier.
Instrumental—By Miss Ina Valpy.
Song—By Chorus.
Song—By Mrs. D. Birchall.
Farce (The Lost Baby)—By Misses Ina Valpy, Tessie McKenzie and Ella LeTouzel, and Messrs. H. Olive LeMasurier and Edwin Valois.
Comic Song—By Miss Marjorie Annett.
Farce (A Jealous Husband)—By Misses Sybil Storie and Ella LeTouzel, and Messrs. Lewis McKenzie and Rod Edson.
Song—By Chorus.
... God Save the King...

The farces were very well staged and all amateur actors and actresses introduced many interesting and laughable features into their respective parts and were applauded continually. It would be very hard and almost impossible to say which farce was best, as they all appeared to equally appreciate by the audience; and at moments when the farce reached a critical stage, the crowd encored and cheered again and again. The songs rendered by Mrs. Birchall were well applauded and encored by the public; and Mrs. Birchall gladdened the audience by singing an Irish song in answer to one of the encors, Miss Marjorie Annett received her usual bounteous share of applause, and sang several comic songs to great advantage as she acted the motions described in the song very creditably. Miss Annett was encored after each song and responded accordingly. The patriotic songs rendered by the chorus helped to make the programme very interesting and attractive, and were well cheered and applauded. It is our opinion that all the participants in the above concert deserve great praise and credit for the good work so well executed in aid of the Red Cross Society; and we hope at some future date to be able to compliment the above mentioned workers on another concert. We must not forget to mention the laughable and descriptive talk supplied by Mr. R. J. Orvis during intermission and between the acts; Mr. Orvis kept the audience laughing whenever he appeared before them with his quickly thought-of jokes and comic sayings and was heartily thanked by the promoters of the concert.

chant for the Easter holiday.

How to avoid Operations

These Three Women Tell How They Escaped the Dreadful Ordeal of Surgical Operations.

Hospitals are great and necessary institutions, but they should be the last resort of the woman who suffers with ill results to their own. Many letters on file in the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., prove that a great number of women after they have been recommended to submit to an operation have been made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There are three such letters. All of them should read them.

Bellevue, Pa.—I suffered more than tongue can tell with terrible bearing down pains and inflammation. I tried several doctors and they all told me the same story, that I never could get well without an operation and I just dreaded the thought of that. I also tried a good many other medicines that were recommended to me, but none of them helped me until a friend advised me to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. The first bottle helped taking it and now I don't know what it is to be sick any more. I am picking up in weight. I am 50 years old and weigh 125 lbs. It will be the greatest pleasure to me if I can have a letter to recommend it to any other suffering woman. Miss I. Froelicher, 1923 Manhattan St., North Side, Bellevue, Pa.
