THE GERMAN ATROCITY FIRST HAND.

In an interesting series entitled, "Letters of an Englishman to his son in Canada," begun in the April CANADA MONTHLY, the writer, a man well-known in England, relates the following:

Yesterday I spent some time talking to wounded men just back from Neuport and Lille. They have the heartiest contempt for the German infantryman. They tell me the Indian soldier is fighting splendidly and that the German is scared by his recklessness in hand to hand work. I had some vivid stories of the fighting; and some terrible stories of low-down behaviour on the part of German officers.

One lad of the Seaforth's told me that three of them came across a German officer lying wounded in Lys in the trench just evacuated. One of the three went back and told the sergeant, who came along with a young subaltern to help the officer out of the trench to the ambulance. The sergeant and the subaltern leant over the man to lift him. He then whipped out a revolver and shot both in the head; whereupon my lad put his bayonet through his throat.

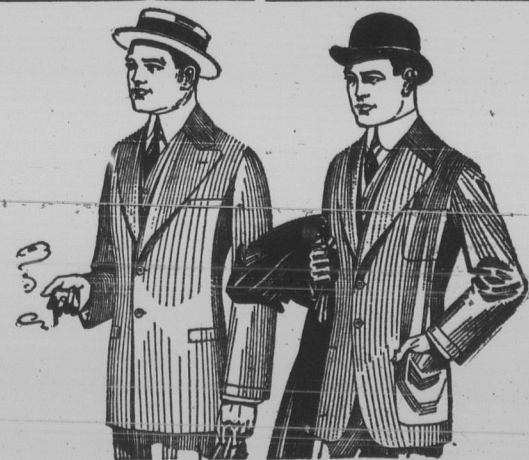

"And I am not sure I did right, as he was wounded and we may not touch a wounded man!"

I told him I thought he need not worry! Again I heard from a non-commissioned officer of the Lincolns of a bad case of white flag. A farm house was held by ten Germans or so. On the advance of the Lincolns the Germans sent out a man with a white flag. Directly the party sent to receive prisoners surrendering got within range they were all shot down.

The English officer in charge sent for two guns and battered the whole place down on their heads—"and they lie under the bricks still," he said, "out of the wet."

B—has a story from a Belgian doctor, who saw a Belgian priest crucified on his church door and left to die! Our men say that when the French and Belgian troops get into Germany no one will hold them back—they will kill ruthlessly in return for the horrible things they have seen done by the enemy.

Those punk boots may not be up to sample, but they are fairly representative of the combination that is manning Canada's public affairs.

ABSTINENCE HOLDS BRITISH ATTENTION

Prohibition Movement Has Great Strength and is Being Vigorously Pushed

London, April 5th.—The attention of the British public is concentrated upon the question of abstinence. For the moment it has overshadowed the war. In London it is doubtful if the biggest headlines chronicling military activity could withdraw the people from the all-absorbing topic of the probability of a "dry country."

Several of London morning papers appear with full page advertisements presenting petitions with the request that supporters of the movement cut them out and send them to the Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George. These petitions read:

"I am entirely in favor of the suspension of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors during the war, which I consider imperative for a quick and successful termination of the war. I shall heartily support the Government in any such measure."

The petition idea is backed by merchants and business men and other employers of labor, who disclaim any save a war interest in the proposed measure.

The sense of personal liberty is so strong in England that it may defeat total prohibition. But the sense of fair play fights on the side of the extreme measure, for the opinion is growing that if employees are deprived of their right to drink employers must take their places in the same boat.

It is believed the cabinet is in favor of total prohibition which, under the defense of the Realm Act, it has the power to enforce without any further legislation.

The brewers are making a strong protest, claiming prohibition would throw many out of employment.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Eighty-five merchant ships of the allied or neutral powers, and 59 German and Austro-Hungarian vessels are reported to be in Black Sea ports, and can be used for transportation of Russian products as soon as the Dardanelles are opened.

Cracow after Przemyśl, and then "On to Berlin" by way of Breslau! This has been the plan most in favor with the Russian Staff. Providing Cracow could be taken, the way would be open to the invasion of Germany by a route not topographically difficult.

Lloyd George says Britain has three enemies: Germany, Austria and drink. And for Britain, as for Canada, the greatest of these is drink.

FARM INCREASE AND IMPROVEMENT

Improved Production of Existing Areas Should be Canada's First Aim

The advice given in the most recent announcement of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa to make your land produce more, cannot be over-emphasized. Millions of bushels rather than the cultivation of excessive acres, should be Canada's aim. Improved production is only possible by the use of good, pure seed and by assiduous and knowledgeable attention to the soil. Experience is undoubtedly in farming as in all other objects in life, the best instructor, but just as fertilizers help the soil, so does acquiring the results of experiments made by others make the road easier to the lesson that is to be learned. Never was there so much necessity for thoroughness and earnestness as now when the markets of the world are wider open, when they are being shifted and former occupants are receiving notice to quit.

As proof that there is abundant room for increased production by improvement, an official statement as follows is presented of the average yield of various products last year, and of the average that is possible:

	Average	Possible
Fall wheat	20.43	50.
Spring wheat	14.84	33.
Barley	16.15	62.
Oats	36.30	91.
Corn, grain	70.	200.
Corn, Ensilage (Tons)	12.	19.
Peas	15.33	37.
Beans	18.79	50.
Potatoes	119.40	450.
Turnips	421.31	1000.

By "possible," it is explained, meant results actually obtained at the Experimental Farms and by many farmers under intensive cultivation.

While such results may not be obtainable in every case on the average farm, strict attention to the selection of seed, the use of fertilizers, and thorough preparation of the soil will accomplish much. It is estimated that in this way the value of the crops of Canada might be increased by a season by $150,000,000 which would be more than enough to meet interest on all the money borrowed by the Dominion from Great Britain or invested in this country.

This is not a burden placed upon the agricultural community. It is an interest and to make the Empire more self-sustained. It is the unity of patriotism and production, for the encouragement of which Bulletins and Pamphlets giving results of actual experiments by practical men, as well as vast stores of useful information, can be obtained free on unstamped application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. The best method of procedure is to send for a catalogue and then forward your order, but, to save time, it is announced that Bulletins on wheat, oats, corn, barley, peas, beans, potatoes, turnips, onions or live stock will be mailed immediately on notification of those wanted.

How would you like to buy everything you need on the roundabout plan by which the Government purchases war supplies?

The country expects the manufacturers to talk out against the rationing system. They are its victims to an even greater degree than the general public.

Various alterations are being made in the map of Europe, but neverer home the United States is not being built. March is the same old March is always used to be.

The Austrian Government has prescribed long imprisonment and hanging for war contract grafters. Would to heaven Ottawa would do the same to those implicated in the boot, binocular and other scandals, which are a blot on Canadian history.

After the torpedoing of a passenger steamer, throwing the helpless victims into the water and then laughing at their death struggles, one would be prepared to believe anything of the Huns. Arson, murder, and theft are among their highest accomplishments. A German tribunal at Strassburg has just decided that George Weill, a former deputy from Metz, but now a private in the French army is a deserter and confiscated his property.

The Paris Matin says the Germans had plans not only for the occupation of Paris, after what they presumed would be its easy conquest, but also for using the capital as a blackmail for imposing a shameful peace on France. Paris was divided into seven sections, each of which was to receive 100,000 Germans. Then unless the French Government agreed to a peace with a cession of provinces to Germany and a large indemnity of troops to help an invasion of England, Paris was to be systematically sacked, section by section, until the French Government gave in.
